

Make Money In California

If you are industrious and capable you can make money there. The big ranches are breaking up into small farms that need more workers to care for the increased product. The towns and cities are prosperous because the country is prosperous. There are great valleys of the richest soil in America waiting for you. If you have a little capital you can own one of these small farms yourself, or you can rent one and share and pay for it out of the product in a few years. We will send you descriptive booklets and folders giving full information about the money-making opportunities for every member of the family. If you want to see what the country is really like; you can go there, work a few months, enjoy the delightful climate, the flowers, fruit and scenery, and earn enough to pay your expenses both ways by taking advantage of the

WEDDING YESTERDAY

Miss Maggie Kester and D. H. Mahaley Married.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Esquire D. M. Miller, on west Cemetery street, Miss Maggie Kester and D. H. Mahaley were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, "Squire Miller officiating.

Mrs. Mahaley is one of the prettiest young ladies in Rowan county and the groom is to be congratulated on securing such an estimable lady for a life partner. She is a daughter of Mr. Calvin Kester, of Dunn's Mountain who know him.

This wedding has been anticipated for some time and was the county's most prosperous and esteemed farmers.

Mr. Mahaley is also a prosperous farmer and held in high regard by all such an early date.

The marriage was a very quiet affair, there being only two other persons present.

The couple left on 36 for Washington, on a bridal tour, and expect to be gone several days.

Upon their return they will be at home to their numerous friends at M. Mahaley's pretty, country residence.

The Sun joins their many friends in wishing them a long life of peace and prosperity, free from all cares and overshadowed by the dark clouds of gloom, but that the Rule of Heaven and earth may even smile on them, and bring to them the happiness they both deserve.

GOV. GLENN AND STAFF OFF FOR WASHINGTON

Special to the Sun. Raleigh, N. C., May 22.—Governor Glenn, State Treasurer B. R. Lacy, Chas. E. Johnson, Joseph G. Brown, left this morning for Washington to attend Southern Industrial Parliament, in session Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Governor Glenn is to preside and says it promises to be of great importance. An announcement was made from the office of Adjutant General Robertson, that the matter locating the third regiment band has been referred to Col. Craig, Greensboro, Charlotte, Raleigh competing for band. It is announced that new military companies have been accepted for High Point and Louisburg subject to satisfactory inspection by Inspector General Bain.

The town of Louisburg was visited by another fire this morning. The big dry goods store of Stokes and Ferguson was destroyed—Loss $10,000.

Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Main Street Methodist church, passed through Salisbury this morning, en route home from Asheville. Mr. Smoot stopped over for a few hours and visited his brother, W. B. Smoot.

CABIN THAT ROOSEVELT LIVED IN

The log cabin in which President Roosevelt lived in for three years while he was a rancher has been placed in the agricultural building at the Lewis and Clark exposition, as a part of the State of North Dakota's exhibit. The cabin was taken apart and the pieces numbered, so that it could be put together again exactly as it was when the President lived in it as a cowboy. It stands near the south wall of the Agricultural building.

It was in 1883 that Mr. Roosevelt went to North Dakota and purchased the Maltese Cross ranch, a place on the Little Missouri river, eight miles south of the town of Medora. On taking possession Mr. Roosevelt changed the name to Chimney Butte, a short distance away. The rough cabin which he bought with the ranch was the future President's only home for nearly three years, and in it he lived the life of a cowboy.

In the cabin there will be exhibited also a number of interesting mementos of the President's life at that period. An old straw hat which Mr. Roosevelt wore when he went to the ranch, but which was discarded shortly afterward as unsuitable to the kind of life he must lead, was found in an old sack in a corner of the cabin, and will be shown to visitors at the Western World's Fair. Other relics include the President's old gun, his caps, boots and a war bag in which he stored these articles when he gave up his cowboy life.

CARRIED TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. W. H. Dow, of Spencer, Taken to Charlotte Last Night

Mrs. W. H. Dow, of Spencer, who is so seriously ill with typhoid fever, was taken to Charlotte last night where she will enter St. Peter's hospital, for treatment.

Mrs. Dow is wife of Mr. W. H. Dow, manager of Gorman & Green's branch jewelry store at Spencer, and has many friends who hope to hear of her early recovery.

BIG SALE

Which Shows That Advertising is a Paying Investment

Last week Gorman & Green advertised for sale 1,000 rings which had been secured by them at a very low price and which they intended to sell at a great bargain.

As a result they sold $25 of these rings and only have 175 left.

We are told every day now that President Roosevelt is to visit Raleigh and Charlotte. It may be he will. But if the old Sheriff ever comes this way, and we wish he may, he will stop off at Salisbury. Watch if he does not. Whether there is a ball game here or not.

ATTEMPTED MURDER

THIS MORNING

Davidson county again to-day came very near being able to record another murder on her court records.

As H. Clay Grubb and Clarence Thompson were coming to Salisbury this morning, they were fired upon by two men hidden in the ambush.

The shooting took place about 8:30 o'clock, 1 1/2 miles from the toll bridge, near the forks of the Salisbury and Tyro roads, in Davidson county.

The gentlemen were driving along leisurely, when all at once, someone hidden in the bushes by the side of the road, opened fire upon them with a shot gun loaded with No. 2 shot.

Mr. Grubb received 11 shot in the shoulder, at the lower side of the right arm; 1 in the left side about 10 inches from the shoulder and 1 1/2 in from the spinal column; 1 in the forehead, passing under the skin and coming out about 2 inches from the point of entrance, 1 through the chin, 1 near the corner of the right eye, 1 in the right elbow, 1 in the right hand, 2 in the right hip, 1 grazed his throat and another his left leg about 6 inches above the knee.

When the first shot was fired, Mr. Grubb spoke sharply to his horses, and they started off at a swift pace. Someone then fired again and Clarence Thompson received 10 shot in the back. In addition to the wounds in his back, four shot struck his left hand at the first fire.

Mr. Grubb recognizing one of his assailants as Nt Crump, a negro.

Crump is a desperate character and has been in trouble before, having shot a policeman in Lexington, some time ago.

The other man had a rifle but none of his shots struck either man.

The buggy was fairly riddled, having 72 shot in it.

Mr. Grubb was warned yesterday, that an attempt would be made on his life, and, as a matter of precaution, he retired early last night, and put extra shades over his windows.

He was apprehensive of danger last night, but did not anticipate anything of the kind this morning and thosmir Jack was therefore not prepared for such an attack.

He naturally believes this is the outcome of his killing Obe Davis, and expresses as his opinion that the men who made this attack on him were hired for that purpose.

Grubb and Thompson drove immediately to the office of Dr. Whitehead and McKenzie, where their wounds were dressed.

The wounds, while painful, are not considered dangerous, by Dr. Whitehead and the men were able to walk out of the office.

Thompson was more seriously hurt than Grubb, notwithstanding the fact, that the first shot fired was at close range, and from the side of the buggy on which Grubb sat.

Charlotte authorities were immediately wired for bloodhounds and they will be put on the trail with the Rowan county dogs.

The roads are now being scoured for the men and if caught it is feared they may be lynched.

Grubb left for home shortly after his wounds had been dressed and Thompson is at the home of Mr. McInturf.

It is reported late this afternoon that the posse who are after Grubb's assailants, are on their trail and their capture is expected at any hour now.

FORGED NAME OF HIS WIFE

Notes Held by the Charlottesville Banks Have Been Paid in Full.

Charlottesville, Va., May 21.—It is probable that the commonwealth will try to subject the estate of the late Samuel J. McCue, who in February last was executed for the murder of his wife, to the payment of the costs. Indeed there has been entered upon the judgment document a memorandum of the fees and costs, amounting to 3,097.42, made up for the following items: Jurors, $1,847.52; board of jury, $230; guards, $426; Sergeant C. W. Rogers' expenses in getting a jury, $82.55; witnesses, $498.55; Commonwealth's attorney, $10; clerk, $25.00.

Auditor Applied to. Commonwealth's Attorney Gilmer this morning was averse to discussing the matter, and contented himself with saying that he had referred it to the Auditor of Public Accounts with the request to instruct him as to what course to take.

Under sec. 4087 of Polard's Virginia Code, the clerk of the court in every criminal case is required to make up a statement of the expenses incident to the prosecution, and his statement has all the force of a judgment in such court in favor of the Commonwealth against the convicted felon. The costs and expenses for this made liable are jail fees, charges for dieting, guards and transportation accruing before conviction, compensation to witnesses, jurors, fees to constables for arresting the accused and summoning witnesses.

Attorneys Will Contest. The attorneys for the estate, it is understood, even to the point of taking it to the higher court.

The two notes on which it is alleged, McCue forged his wife's endorsement—one for $8,000 held by the Jefferson National bank, and another for $4,000, held by the People's National bank, have been paid in full by McCue's estate.

LET US ABIDE THE RESULT

This has been a strenuous week in Salisbury. The court house has been full of people and the interest of the crowd has been intense from first to last. What will be the result of the Grubb trial, has been uppermost in the minds of a large number, who have watched the rather uninteresting progress of the proceedings day after day. It's an awful thing for any man to be on trial for his life. If he is guilty and convicted, he has at once approached the end of his career, and the world contains little for him. And even though he should not be convicted, but should go free he is hardly ever the same man again, but must go through the balance of his life a marked man.

We must remember that the law of the Lord is the only perfect law, and yet the law of this good land, if properly executed, the ends of justice are sure to be met.

The lawyers in this case have done their work well. Neither side spared labor nor pains, and nothing now could be added to the efforts on either side of the case. The men who compose the jury are strangers to us. However, it is evident they are good average citizens, and to all appearances will do what they think is right, rendering such a verdict as in their judgment is justified by the evidence.

Whether the prisoner is convicted or set free, the twelve men who have been so patient and apparently so anxious to learn the truth, deserve and we have no doubt, will have the moral support of this town and county. People ought never to be encouraged to discount the sacredness of our laws, but, to look to our courts as the only source from which justice can come.

The average man is after all, the best juror under all circumstances. This is why our present jury system is the best method for the trial of causes, of whatever sort. And just as the system is honored and protected by the best people of the country, just in that proportion will it remain free from objections, and from imperfections.

SPENCER.

MR. HAYMORE RESIGNS

Spencer, N. C., May 21.—In the spring of 1903, as I was completing my work at Wake-Forest College, I received a letter from this church asking me to come, and look over this field.

After accepting the invitation and having preached here the 4th Sunday in May, the church unanimously called me, and I took up the work on the 4th Sunday in June, 1903.

Since that time, it has been an inexpressible pleasure to serve it. I have learned to love you more and more as I have gone in and out among you, yes, I love your children and even the timber in this house. During my pastorate here the Sunday school has grown from a mere handful to a large and enthusiastic school, and the church has had over 100 additions, which our pledges have increased from $43.00 to $294.00.

Deeply beloved, as I think of severing my connection from you, it makes me feel as though my heartstrings were being torn out; but I hear the voice of God calling me to another field and I must go; therefore, I do now tender my resignation.

May the dear Lord, in his infinite love and mercy, call a shepherd to this noble flock that it will lead them out into the green fields and beside the still waters. It has been my heart's desire and prayer to God to serve you faithfully, and He has greatly blessed us.

And now what shall I say for you? Words are inadequate to express my feelings; you are a noble people—yes, you are some of God's salt, and you have stood by and faithfully and heroically helped in all my work. And may God grant that this church may always be a preserving and saving force in its town and in the world. And when at last, your work on earth is finished, may you all hear his welcome voice, saying: "Well done thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of the Lord," is the prayer of one who loves you.

J. W. HAYMORE.

Prof. Allman's classes are now in the second month, and he desires all old pupils to continue that they will make doubly the progress this month. He proposes to make his classes proficient in the glide, waltz, and old two-step, besides teaching them several new, beautiful waltzes. Parents are invited to meet him at armory hall a 4 o'clock tomorrow evening.

An entertainment will be given by the Young Ladies' Relief club of the First Baptist church, an ice cream supper for the benefit of the church. All are cordially invited to attend.

EXTRACTS

From Exposition Notes of Interest to Our Readers

The Lewis and Clark exposition to commemorate the exploring expedition of Captains Merriwether Lewis and William Clark, which added 307,000 square miles of territory to the domain of the United States, will open June 1. President Roosevelt, at Washington, will press the button, and the great chimes in the United States government building will peal the stirring strains of America, as the opening signal. The people of the Pacific northwest have spent $5,000,000 on their fair, and it will be ready on time.

Frank Hall, manager for John L. Sullivan, is negotiating with the Lewis and Clark exposition authorities, for space on the Trail, where wax figures of men whom he twelve-years champion knocked out will be shown, with the winning punch indicated in each case. The former champion wants to spend the summer in Portland, and plans to give boxing exhibitions. He would like to get into a fight with Charley Mitchell or Tommy Laras.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. J. Howell May, a prominent physician of Waynesville, passed through the city to-day going north. There will be a meeting of the Typographical at the Royal Printing Company, this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Dr. R. T. Vann delivered the library address at Crescent Academy, on Friday last. The address is said to be exceptionally good.

Mr. Fred N. Day, the lay preacher, filled the pulpit yesterday and last night at the Baptist church. He went to his home in Winton this morning.

Rev. W. H. Rich, who has been indisposed for several days, is now better and hopes to attend commencement this week at Wake Forest College.
