Good News to the Ladies

Of Salisbury or any other town, you can have your andirons and Fender, etc., refurbished, lacquered and made as good as new, lasts just as long. The Lacquer prevents the brass from turning dark. It is true you can have your brass cleaned at home though it will not look nice at all, and will in a short time turn dark.

BURNISHING

They will sell you new silver ware of their own make very cheap, and guarantee same to be first-class, or they will repate your old silver at half what new cost—guaranteed to be as good. ### Wheeler and the Constitution.

The Constitution (Article I, section 6, clause 2) says, "and no person who holding any other office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office." This is a plain direct unmistakable provision of the fundamental law of the land. It is wisely meant to guard against the dangers which would result if men representing outside governmental interests should be given a voice in the legislative body. Because "Fighting Joe" Wheeler is a picturesque character enjoying great popular favor the politicians lack the moral courage to judge his case purely on its merits. Gen. Wheeler is a popular idol. Many little incidents, true or fictitious, circulated at the time of the Spanish war, have thrown a lustré about his name. He stands in a way as the reincarnation of a united North and South. His genial personality, his democratic spirit, and the kindness with which he treats all his acquaintances have extended and strengthened the sphere of his popularity. But all of this does not alter Article I, section 6, clause 2, of the Constitution of the United States.—Omaha (Neb.) News.

Comparatively little is said by the papers about the revolution in South America, but it appears to be considerably more of a war in the important item of killing than that in the Philippines or the one in Africa. In the recent bombardment of Puerto Cabello, 300 are said to have been killed or wounded, whereas the usual casualties reported to the killing of an army mule or a dog, or, at most, one or two persons killed and four or five missing—Statesville Reporter.

It may be that Senator Pritchard runs the western federal courts pretty much to his own notion, but those who make the charges do not help out their side of the case by giving publicity to anonymous communications which tend to substantiate the charges. If anyone has evidence to introduce or complaint to make he should do it above his own name.—Durham Herald.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitter,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed, at Theo. F. Klutz & Co.'s Drug Store.
