URGENT OPINION.

The Richmond Times makes an attempt to bring Daniel out for president. It won't work. Daniel has gone in with the machine and that ends it. There is nothing but death to beat Bryan, so far as the nomination is concerned. He is the man the people want, and that is all there is about it. The Daniel boom is a weak affair.—Danville Bee.

Otis is spurred on to renewed efforts in the Philippines. He is expecting a house and lot presentation when he gets back. His secretary now wildly manipulates the typewriter and tells of twelve barrels of Mrs. Aggie's fine clothes captured and that Aggie himself has lost his hat and got mud on his uniform. 'Rah for Otis.—Wilson News.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," is being advertised and pushed for sale by a certain Northern publishing house. They call it the "greatest American classic." Maybe so and maybe not. It is now as it was when it was written—an overdrawn picture and a base slander on the South. It has had its day and its work is done, and it is creating and fostering a false impression in the minds of Northern people as to the people of the South. Uncle Tom's Cabin can serve no purpose now except to do injury to the slave owners of other days who cannot stand to defend themselves against the statements of that book. Uncle Tom's Cabin should be a book of the past and as dead as the conflict which followed its publication.—N. C. Baptist.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald learns that it is the purpose of the President to appoint Joe Wheeler, Fitzhugh Lee, and James Wilson, now brigadiers in the provisional or volunteer army, to the same rank in the regular army, in order to reward them for their services and allow them to retire on full pay. The correspondent adds that popularity of these officers, it is believed, will insure the confirmation of their nominations by the Senate. They will then enjoy liberal pensions for the rest of their lives. It is further stated by him that the appointments will not be made until sometime in January, when there will be two vacant brigadier-ships.—Richmond Dispatch.
