CURRENT OPINION.

Times are so good in Mexico that the coming Congress will reduce taxation. No such good news comes to American tax-payers.—The Washington Post advises the new members to "go slow." As the Real rules are to govern, the new members could not otherwise if they were so inclined.—If Hoke versus Henderson is good law, then the decisions of every other State in the Union, the Supreme court of the United States and of every civilized country on the globe is wrong. Every civilized State or country under the sun except North Carolina regards an office as an agency for the public convenience. Here the Supreme court says that a public office is a private snap.—Raleigh News and Observer.

MORE MONEY DID IT.

A correspondent of the Springfield Republican calls attention in a striking way to a fact we have presented more than once to-wit, that the revival of business is due largely to the increase in the production of gold. It demonstrates that the Democrats in 1896 were right in demanding more primary money. We quote: "The Democrats demanded more money and higher commodity and labor prices; the Republicans said, not money, but a one-hundred-cent dollar; not higher prices, but stable prices. But what has happened? God, to defeat Satan's pet proposition, a cornered dollar, has directed men to the bowels of the earth, where gold was on deposit, and they have brought forth more yellow dirt in the last three years than the Democrats hoped to see come of both gold and silver, so that in spite of Flylocks wish and design, we have had more money, and, as was foretold, we have had rising prices (not altogether due to the increase of the gold output, but largely so). Labor is more fully employed and better paid, and the Republican politicians are howling. "Behold our promised prosperity." BUT THEY FAIL TO ADD, MADE MAINLY ON THE DEMOCRATIC FORMULA OF THREE YEARS AGO." This is a statement of the case that will confound the gold bugs from Hanna to Wittkowsky.—News and Observer.
