REGISTER TO-DAY.

Do not put off till tomorrow what should be done TODAY. Let every Democrat get his name on the registration book TODAY.

BOYD DARE NOT.

The advocates of Negro Rule are much exercised over the turn affairs are taking. They are startled, astounded at the growth of amendment sentiment during the past week, and the final outcome of the arrest of the two Winston registrars is especially irritating to them.

"The arrest of the registrars would have had just the effect we desired," said a prominent Republican yesterday who has been here in conference with Butler and Holton, "had not the men who had them arrested been themselves in turn arrested. When that was done, of course the effect of the registrars' arrest was neutralized."

"How could the arrest of the registrars help?" was asked.

"It would make them let our people get their names on the book so they can vote."

"Do you expect any more arrests?"

"Yes, I expect arrests this week in almost every county in the State, if only we can get it fixed so that the man who has the arrest made will not himself be arrested, as those were at Winston. Unless we can get that done there will be no more arrests."

"How can it be done?"

"I know of only one way—have Boyd, who has just been appointed Federal judge, to issue an order declaring those in contempt of court who arrest or otherwise intimidate a witness in one of these cases."

"Will Boyd do this?"

"I don't know, but I understand he will. He has qualified as judge and is now in Greensboro. He will be asked to make such an order."

And to discuss this proposed order with Butler, as well as the State ticket, was part of Holton's business here yesterday. But Boyd will hardly be fool enough to make such an order. Mr. Boyd knows he's not confirmed yet. He remembers Ewart—the "mair" question with him. He's not going to take any chances by sticking his head in the fire.—News and Observer.

Let Jim Boyd try it! He dare not. In the first place he has too much sense. He knows which side of his bread is buttered. He will need Democratic votes in the Senate to confirm him. He knows this and will not dare do this dirty job, expected of him. Not that he is averse to doing that sort of thing, as his course with the Ku Klux Klan proves; but he will do it only to protect his own material interests. In this case it will not; for he will need Democratic support when the question of his confirmation comes before the Senate. In the second place Mr. Boyd will not gratify Holton, Butler and Co., who have lost the respect of all honorable white people and make himself more odious than they by such a high handed, illegal measure. Boyd will try to stand in with the white people sufficiently enough to secure the respect of at least some of them.

FUSION DUPLICITY.

Holton, the Republican State chairman, was in the city yesterday. He spent the day with Senator Butler, and they discussed the Fusion State ticket, which is about to be printed—what names shall appear on it for the various offices.

Then they took dinner together at the Yarbrough, with Little Claudie Bernard on the side. They discussed the ticket some more till train time, then Butler called a carriage and took Holton to the depot. Little Claudie went too, of course. There was no getting rid of him.

After that Butler went up and talked with Gov. Russell and Col. Ike Meekins for an hour, telling them how he wasn't going to win, but that he and Holton thought about the best thing they could do would be to print the ticket with Spencer Adams for Governor, Worth for Treasurer, Thompson for Secretary of State, Ayer for Auditor, Waiser for Attorney General and Dr. Alexander for Commissioner of Agriculture.

It is certain now that there will be only one real ticket out and all Populists and Republicans alike will be urged to vote it. That ticket will be headed by Spencer B. Adams. They also discussed the advisability of putting out a few tickets with only Populist nominees on it, for "fool Populists who don't want to take any Republican in their'n." It was urged that this would keep them from voting the Democratic ticket. No decision on this was reached, the matter being left in Senator Butler's hands to do as he thought best.—News and Observer.

How can any honest Populist have any confidence in Marion Butler? Here he is cheek by Jowl with Holton, the infamous, and the no less dastard Claude Bernard, all plotting to give the State to those who oppose every principle of Populism! Yet he has the infinite cheek to go around asking Populists to vote for the enemies of every principle they prefer!

Butler and Holton are doing their best to deceive; but their chicanery will fail. The hopes of Butler are that the Legislature may be Fusion and that he may go back to the Senate. In that he will be grievously disappointed. The Legislature will be as largely Democratic as it was in 1899. If Butler fail in that hope he is acting a double faced part in national politics, so that if McKinley is elected he may get some position under him, and, if Mr. Bryan is elected he may get some position under him. He would as well assume the name of Republican, and, doubtless, would, but he thinks he can better aid in giving North Carolina to McKinley by his present course than to do so. Butler will be sure to keep Towne in the field, if he can and will have Populist electors in North Carolina to try to deliver the State to McKinley. Butler is a chameleon and a first class demagogue and political double faced trickster and renegade.

Brevities.

From Wilmington Messenger.

The Charlotte Presbyterian Standard tersely says: "There is a great difference between bigamy and polygamy in the eyes of the law. The bigamist goes to the penitentiary when convicted but the polygamist is sent to Congress."

McKinley is waxing uneasy over his own state, Ohio. He wants his friend Dick to have personal charge. What's the matter with Hanna?

It is much too early for prophetic newspapers to begin to blow over the states and to foretell how they will go. The Indianapolis Journal, rep., rebukes a Pittsburg newspaper saying that Bryan is "foredoomed to defeat." It says an active campaign is very necessary to prevent defeat.

The Iowa Keokuk Gate City, edited by a republican member of the last Congress, admits that the Kansas City ticket is a strong one; it considers Bryan more to be dreaded now than in 1896.

Flory, republican candidate for governor in Missouri is campaigning on a railroad velocipede. He will make a roaring campaign and may "get there."

It seems in the late democratic convention a vote was taken on the theory of 16 to 1, and that southern states give 56 for and 86 against. That does not mean what is claimed by some ignoramuses that the south is against silver and bimetalism.

A Political Boss: "They say you are merely a political boss," said the candid informant. "Great Scott!" ejaculated Senator Sorghum. "The irreverence of these moderns is something disheartening. Why, that's all Julius Caesar was."—Washington Post.

Some Georgia Editors Say.

The mother of Roosevelt was a Georgia lady. She was a Bulloch. But Georgia will cast her vote against Teddy all the same.—Thomasville Times-enterprise.

Mr. Bryan though not present, controlled the Kansas City Convention, as absolutely as did Mark Hanna the recent Philadelphia convention. Yet how different the men and their methods. Hanna's influence, that of boodle and bossism, Bryan's that of an able, honest man, whom men delight to honor.—Brunswick Call.

While we have eyes on China Germany is quietly perfecting her hold on Brazil and other South American countries.—Augusta Tribune.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney trouble and never disappoints. 50c at Theo. F. Klutz & Co's., drug store.

'INDEPENDENT SALE'

—OF—

THIS SEASON'S FINE FOOT-WEAR,

—IN—

ODD SIZES, SAMPLES and JOBS.

This is not a "COST SALE" but a LOSS SALE, (to somebody), as there's not a manufacturer living who would make these goods in a regular way, at the prices we are selling them. Yet they were made by the largest and best manufacturers of high gradeshoes in the country; and ninety per cent of them are brand new goods, made this season. It's useless to go into further details as to why or how we can sell them at such prices when we have the goods at the prices to show for ourselves.

How long this sale will continue, we are unable at present to say; but we will say that when we can buy a bargain we will sell a bargain, and when we say it's a bargain, you can depend upon its being a bargain with value attached; as we are no vendors of shoddy stuff at any price. Keep your eyes open for our "Special Sales" of special makes. It will pay you well.

BURT SHOE CO.,
