BRIEFS CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

THE PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO, LITTLE LOCALS.

Items of Interest Condensed and Brought Down—The Personal and Brief News Items of a Day.

Mr. Jas. C. McCausless left last night for Norfolk and other points North and West.

Mrs. J. G. Walker, who has been visiting relatives in Charlotte and Salisbury, returned to Washington yesterday.

Col. C. H. Allen, president of the Union Copper Mining Co., arrived at Gold Hill yesterday morning and will remain there until this evening, when he will return to his home in New York.

Mr. U. L. Barrett, who has charge of Mr. E. M. Andrews' furniture, is an accommodating and enterprising business man of several years experience in his line. Read their ad. to-morrow.

MRS. DAGGETT DEAD.

Body Taken To Quincy, Mich., Last Night.

Mrs. Eliza A. Daggett died at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, on Igniss street, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Daggett had been ill about two weeks. During this time she suffered great pain, but bore it with the resignation of a Christian. She was 67 years of age.

Mrs. Wilson accompanied the remains to Quincy, Mich., leaving last night. A short service was held at the house at 7 o'clock. The route taken was that by way of Chantonoga.

Eastern Time on W. N. C. Now.

Beginning today all railroad men whose run is between Salisbury and Asheville, moved their watches an hour forward, changing to eastern time. The central time belt will be entered at Asheville in the future, instead of Salisbury.

A person traveling across the continent toward the land of the rising sun would enter the central time belt at Atlanta, Asheville (now) Charlottesville, or other point of the same approximate longitude. He would strike western time at the Mississippi river, mountain time on the eastern slopes of the Rockies, say at Denver, and Pacific coast time after crossing the water-shed. These are the conventional railroad time belts in use in this country.

Meetings Near China Grove.

The meetings conducted by Dr. J. N. Stallings, near China Grove, have been quite successful. Nine have been received into the membership of the church by letter and there is earnest attention amongst the unconverted, several having presented themselves for prayer. The members of the church are revived and much good already accomplished. The meetings will continue until Sunday. The hours of service are for to-day 8 p. m.; for to-morrow 7 p. m.; for Sunday 9:30 a. m.; 3 and 7 p. m.

A Card of Thanks.

I hereby tender my unfeigned thanks to the many friends who kindly showed their sympathies and kindnesses to me in my recent great affliction and bereavement. Their kindnesses will always be remembered with profound gratitude. Wishing for all the blessings of the Grace of all good I am,

Most Sincerely,
R. B. SCHOOLEY.

Mr. Klutz at Chestnut Hill.

Don't forget Congress man Klutz's engagement at Chestnut Hill Saturday night. It ought to be necessary only to call attention to the fact to ensure a crowd.

INHERITS LARGE SUM.

Mrs. Dr. W. A. Newman of This City is the Fortunate One.

Mrs. Dr. W. A. Newman, nee Miss Mary Leigh Page, wife of our townsman, Dr. W. A. Newman, has just fallen heir, as reported by the Richmond papers of Wednesday, to the Mont St. Angela estate, in Virginia, through the death of her aunt Mrs. Julia Fletcher Williams, who left a fortune valued at five hundred thousand dollars.

YOUNG MAN HURT LAST NIGHT.

While Riding a Bicycle he Collided with a Team and was Hurt.

Robert Hopkins, son of Mr. R. T. Hopkins, a machinist in the railroad shops and living on Innis street, was hurt on the street at about 7 o'clock last night. Young Hopkins, who is about 18 years of age, is a proficient cyclist—in fact, a trick rider of some attainments. On this occasion, however, he was riding without looking up and met with an accident. A double team was coming in the opposite direction and a collision took place, the tongue of the vehicle striking the young man in the abdomen.

He was taken to the sanitarium where his injuries are being ascertained. As they are internal it is not known yet whether they are grave.

MEETINGS CONTINUE.

Mr. Stuart's Pleasant Wit.—Dick Morse Still Preaching.

At a tabernacle meeting recently, one of Evangelist Stuart's ministerial associates in his work here expressed regret for the good old days of "cold Sunday dinners." "Oh, you've fallen from grace yourself, then, Bro. Blank," said the evangelist, amid laughter from the audience.

The placing of an arc light in front of the tabernacle is a great convenience and one much appreciated.

The meeting last night was probably the largest of this series so far. Conversions have begun to take place and there will doubtless be many before the evangelist leaves.

Dick Morse, the street preacher, has returned from Winston and his "amens" are heard once more. They are given with the energy of a college yell.

Messrs. Blair and Rendleman Quit.

The remaining joint engagements of Messrs. J. R. Blair, of Troy, and Jno. L. Rendleman, of this city, respectively Democratic and Republican district electors, have been cancelled by mutual agreement. Mr. Blair is suffering from a cold which affects his throat and renders speaking impossible at present. This has been the only thorough joint canvass of the campaign.

Mr. Julian Ill.

Mr. Jno. M. Julian, city editor of the TRUTH-INDEX, was seized with a violent attack at 4 o'clock yesterday morning as a result of eating ice-cream after a midnight lunch of sardines and oysters. His condition becomes less acute later in the day and he is now comparatively comfortable. May to-day see him well.

Get Out and Vote.

Let all the Democrats who read this get out and vote and see that all the rest do. If this is done, they will be repaid by agreeable sensations in hearing the election returns from the State and congressional district.

Daughters of Liberty.

Owing to the Stuart meeting at the tabernacle, it has been decided that the regular meeting of the Daughters of Liberty, Friday night, November 2nd, will be postponed until the following Friday night, November 9th.

WARSHIP TO TANGIER

A Call for Five Thousand Dollars.

RELATIONS WITH MORROCCO.

Renewed Representations to Sultan.

The Moroccan Treasurer Will be Required to Disgorge $5,000 for the Murder of Marcus Azzagui by a Mob at Fez Five Months Ago.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Matters are getting a trifle warm in our relations with Morocco. Our consul General at Tangier has renewed his representations to the Sultan, under instructions from Washington that the Moroccan treasurer must disgorge $5,000 on account of the murder of Marcus Azzagui, a naturalized American, who was killed by a mob at Fez 5 months ago. No answer to our latest pleading has been vouchsafed so far as can be learned here, but our government is now looking about for a convenient warship to send to Tangier by way of reminding the Sultan of the fruitlessness of his past endeavors to evade his obligations.

GEN. SUPT. SANDS' QUARTERS.

Locates his Offices Temporarily near the Passenger Depot.

Mr. J. H. Sands, general superintendent of the Southern's newly erected eastern division, has fixed his quarters in the small railroad houses across the main line from the depot. Five of his clerical force are already here, including his chief, Mr. J. C. Gentry. Mr. C. P. Lee, of the Washington office is getting the force in shape for work.

Salisbury is headquarters for the operation of the more important half of the Southern's great system of 7,000 miles of railway. This will be worth a great deal to it as an advertisement.

REV. REED ACCEPTS

The Calls of Calvary and Phanel Baptist Churches.

Rev. G. W. Reed, who was recently called to fill the pastorate of Calvary Baptist church, four miles north of Salisbury, we are informed, has accepted, also that of Phanel Baptist church, in Cabarrus county. Mr. Reed will continue as foreman at Thompson's machine shops and will give these churches his Sunday's. These churches have been organized four or five years each, but seems to be in very good condition numerically and otherwise. This is a compliment to Rev. Reed's effort which were deserved.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Salisbury at the Central Hotel on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

WANTED—A neat colored woman who can cook, wash and do the light work for a small family. Fair wages punctually paid. Apply at this office.

THE TABERNACLE MEETINGS

GREAT GOOD BEING ACCOMPLISHED.

66 Promise to Establish Family Altars.—Satan's Deceits.—The Voice of Nature. Much Good Being Accomplished.

At the morning service at the tabernacle yesterday, the earnest appeals of Mr. Stuart resulted in the promises of many to read and study the Bible more diligently and prayerfully than they had been accustomed to do, and in the erection of 66 family altars in families where family prayers had not heretofore been held.

At the evening service the tabernacle was packed to and beyond the doors.

His text was from the 91st Psalm 3 verse, "Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler," which Psalm he ascribes to David, the great poet of Israel, who drew so much of his inspirations from the beauties of nature, as did David's greater Son, when he spake and taught in parables those all comprehensive sermons, yet so plain that none need misunderstand.

Mr. Stuart referred eloquently to the voice of God in nature, which leaves no excuse for skepticisms.

Referring to the tricks and snares of Satan, he spoke of the decoys used by duck hunters and drew a striking parallel between the use they are put to and the unconscious influence of social card playing, wine drinking and dancing, and laid at the door of those church members who indulged in such practices the responsibility for the wreck of many souls.

The Devil has his decoys in society, these he aids to deceive, and the initiative steps taken have led on to ultimate depravity and hell, the social game of cards, innocent enough, apparently at the beginning, leads by degrees to the gaming table; the ball room influence is apt to lead to sensual depravity; the social glass to the bar room and the drunkard, and all, by easy gradations, to hell.

He drew a striking simile of the vine and the branches. The branches have to go with the vine and if we are really a part of the vine, we cannot be Christians and go where the vine himself would not go. Satan spreads his nets and snares everywhere and it is the part of a Christian to be ever on the watch and look to God for guidance and strength. All of Mr. Stuart's anecdotes are striking and directly to the point. Every one drives home some truth he wishes to impress upon his hearers.

Lightning Ignites a Powder Magazine.

Shanghai, Oct. 31.—The Daily News reports that a powder magazine at Nankin has been exploded by lightning and that many persons were killed or injured and much property destroyed.

Lost—At the tabernacle or on the street last night alladies' silk pocket containing a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, a lacette handkerchief and ten cents in money. Finder please leave at this office.

WORSE THAN BLOODY BATTLE.

London, Oct. 31.—Partial returns from the hospitals show that at least 10 persons were killed and over 1,000 more or less injured in the wild orgy which marked the welcome to the returned City Imperial Volunteers. The list of casualties is greater than that of the whole corps of the volunteers in twenty-six engagements in South Africa.

Lost—A round Gold and Onyx pin. About an inch in diameter. It has a band of Onyx and a band of gold chasing and a very small diamond in centre. Leave at Index office.

BELL TELEPHONE BOYCOTT.

CONSTITUTES THE TOPIC OF DISCUSSION IN CHARLOTTE.

A Special Received at Charlotte Says the Alamance Cotton Mill Owners have Ordered Strikers to Vacate Their Houses.

(Correspondence Truth-Index.)
Charlotte, N. C., November 1.—The boycott of the Bell Telephone Company here is all the talk here to-day. Those who have decided to discontinue the Bell 'phones are the Butcher's Union, the druggists and grocerymen.

The trouble arises from recent notice from the Bell Company that an increase of rates would go into effect to-day. The company claims that the increase was necessary in order to provide for some contemplated improvements.

A special received here to-day states that the Alamance cotton mill owners have given notice to all striking operatives that they must vacate the houses they now occupy within ten days.

The wholesale robbery of the old graded school building is one of the most unusual ever heard of here. The thief procured three clocks from the different rooms as well as other articles. Supt. Alex. Graham has a clue which he is working on.

There have been rumors here for some time to the effect that a new daily paper would be started. Nothing definite has yet been given out though.

The chief of police here and one of his officers are figuring on a pair of bloodhounds which they realize are badly needed. It is stated that the county commissioners did not see their way clear to paying $400 for a trained pair, so the officers are figuring on a pair of pups which would come much cheaper.

CURIOSITIES FROM MANILA.

Mr. Barger, of the County, Receives an Interesting Package.

Mr. Barger, of the county, whose brother is serving in the United States army in the Philippines, has received a joint of bamboo about 12 inches long by 4 inches in diameter, which contained a number of curiosities gathered by his brother there. Among the lot is several kinds of native tobacco cigarettes, beads, peculiar seed, wood and bamboo combs, a catechism, a set of buttons made out of small whole shells and several beautiful diamonds. Mr. Barger is very proud of these mementoes.

FINGER CUT OFF.

Tom Artz's Fingers cut off.—Mr. Taylor moves to Salisbury.

(Correspondence TRUTH-INDEX.)
Faith, North Carolina, Nov. 1.—Several photographic scenery's taken out on the granite belt can be seen at the Mt. Vernon hotel. They are views of the different quarries.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor is moving from Faith to Salisbury to-day.

There are five families that will move to Faith in the next thirty days.

Tom Artz got two fingers badly mashed in the quarry. One was cut clear off.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Snider have awarded the contract to J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, to cut and place a granite curbing around their child's grave in the old English cemetery. It will be the only first class job of this size in this cemetery. The tombstones have already been erected.

If you want fine fresh York river oysters call at the Criterion. Remember we receive oysters daily from West Point.

STOLEN—A Lefever, 16 gauge hammerless gun. No. 19891 and weighing 6 1/2 lbs. Reward for its return to Ernest H. Woodson.

CREAM OF THE WIRE FOR BUSY READERS.

The Carlist movement more Favorable.—A Fearful Typhoon in China.—Price of Coal Higher.

Madrid, Nov. 1.—The latest news is that the Carlist movement is more favorable to the government. The associated chief of the Borgia band offered to surrender if pardoned, but the government decided to act vigorously and pardon no one.

A Fearful Typhoon in China.

Hong Kong, Nov. 1.—A dispatch received here shows that a fearful typhoon caused havoc through Anama, a French protectorate in the Southern part of China. The area of destruction is very large and 1,000 people are reported to have perished. Besides those killed 465 persons were rendered homeless.

Max Muller Dead.

Oxford, England, Nov. 1.—Professor Max Muller was buried to-day.

Price of Coal Higher.

New York, Nov. 1.—Local coal dealers were thrown into a state of consternation to-day by the announcement that the price of anthracite coal had been advanced 50 cents per ton.

Long Succeeds Balfour.

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 1.—It is asserted here that Right Honorable Walter Ham Long will succeed Gerald Balfour as Secretary for Ireland.

Lord Roberts' Departure Postponed.

London, Nov. 1.—Lord Roberts, who is scheduled to leave South Africa, Nov. fifteenth, has postponed his departure owing to the fact that one of his daughters is ill with enteric fever at Pretoria.

The Galveston Strike a Farce.

Galveston, Nov. 1.—The wharf strike amounts to the loss of only seven carpenters. All others of the eighteen hundred employed ignored the order of the Building Trades Assembly.

Russia Still Holds Out.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The argument of the British-German agreement is now practically completed. Russia being the only government remaining to be heard from.

ALL AVAILABLE MEN EMPLOYED.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 31.—All the collieries in the Lehigh Anthracite region with the exception of those belonging to the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Company, were working full-handed to-day. For the purpose all men available are being hired, without distinction as to whether they are union or non-union, as the operators are anxious to get out their quota of the output by January 1st.

It was feared that there would be some trouble at the Lattimer colliery, operated by C. Pardee & Co., because of their refusal to engage 100 of their former employes but none developed.

The Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Company has notified the men that it will abolish the sliding scale and work will be resumed there Friday.

The men employed by D. J. Roderick, a contractor driving tunnels in the No. 40 shaft of the Lehigh Valley, who struck a few days ago returned to work this morning, a mutual agreement having been reached.

Dr. (?) Bolla or Bolling a Fraud.

I am reliably informed that a party giving his name as Dr. (?) Bolla or Bolling is travelling through the country claiming to be associated with me in practice. I desire to say that I have not now and never have had a partner, and all persons claiming such relationship are frauds.

INTERESTING DISCOVERIES.

EXCAVATIONS IN ROME RESULT IN GREAT VALUE.

Two Equestrian Statues, Statue of Apollo, bust of Jupiter, a Handsome Christian Basilica and Other Articles Found.

Rome, Nov. 1.—Excavations just made in the forum resulted in discoveries of great value and interest. The finds include two equestrian statues, statues of Castor and Pollux, belonging to the best persons of Grecian sculpture, which stood before temple castor and pollux. Other finds are a grand Greek statue of Apollo, bust of Jupiter, statue of Aesculapius, fountain belonging to the epoch when Rome was under kings and a rostrum made in the day of the republic. The most important find, however, is a part of a great Christian basilica belonging to the third century with magnificent fresco and marble columns.

SIMMONS IN NASH.

Nashville, N. C., Oct. 31.—Hon. F. M. Simmons made his first speech appearance in Nash yesterday, where he was met by a large crowd of enthusiastic voters. He denounced the administration and explained the evil of imperialism and trusts in a masterly way. Everybody agreed that it was the finest and deepest speech they ever listened to. He went from here to Spring Hope, where he found a large audience awaiting him. At the train he spoke for twenty minutes amid cheers and applause. Mr. Simmons has made many friends by his visit here, and old Nash which has been on the doubtful list has fallen in line and will certainly give him five hundred majority.

Mr. Simmons spoke in Wilson last night.
