JANUARY 29, 1901.

The Charlotte Observer downed the Norfolk Landmark's sneasly remarks completely yesterday morning.

We know that we haven't paid our subscription to the Durham Herald, but that's no excuse for its abrupt stop last week.

How would it do to insert in the wedding ceremony these words: "Until death, divorce or the devil us do part."

We love the W C T U, especially the W., but we don't believe that the Kansas wing of it can hold its job with Mrs. Nation as president.

Mrs. Nation says all that you need to destroy saloons, is hatchets and votes. This is a slight improvement upon Dick Croker's baseball bat method of carrying New York.

We confess that we cannot "point with pride to the 7,000,000 voters that supported Mr. Bryan, when over half a million more who supported Mr. McKinley stand out to be "pointed" at too.

The New York world says that it will print an interview its representative had with Auginaldo. This was done Sunday, we believe. There can not possibly be a bigger lie in the interview, than that which says one has been held with the Filipino Chief.

Some paper suggested several weeks ago that the Congressional Record containing Mr. Linney's speeches should be excluded from the mails. You couldn't do so much for the speeches of Senators Hawley and Chandler. But they might be incorporated in the Record as classic billingsgate.

We agree thoroughly with the Durham Herald's terse statement of the libel law and its intent and justice. Say the Herald: "There is not a newspaper in the State that objects to a law that punishes the man or newspaper that knowingly makes a false statement to injure the character of any person, but a majority of them do think that the law as it stands, at present works to their injury. They do not ask for reform because they helped to elect the Legislature or because they supported the Democratic party, but ask it as simple justice."

We move that the divorce business be taxed. It's decidedly a profession.

Rowan Barber Shop.—Hair cut 15c. Burt McNeely has moved his shop to East Main st., opposite court house. Workmanship second to none. Give him a trial.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

The needs of the University as disclosed by President Venable, are deserving of the most serious consideration by the gentlemen of the Legislature. We know that there is much to be said against this increased appropriation, for the finances of this state do not now permit of heavy drafts upon it. But it should be remembered that the University has long been living upon a small amount of money and its needs are now so great, that the old appropriations are wholly inadequate.

We have often heard people say that they would not oppose state aid if the University were really a University, if its standard of excellence were very high. They forget that they are the ones who are doing most to lower and to keep down its high standard.

A Harvard Student Killed. Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 28.—Curtis L. Crane, of Brookline, was accidentally killed during a boxing match with his closest friend, George R. Ainsworth, in the latter's room in Graigie, Harvard College, this afternoon.

Alfred Austin on Life of Queen Victoria. Alfred Austin, the poet laureate publishes a long poem entitled "Victoria," in which he traces her life. He thus describes her character: Queen, Empress, more than Empress or than Queen, The Lady of the World on high enthroned, By right divine of duties well fulfilled, To be the pattern to all Queens, all Kings, All women and the consciences of men Who look on duty as man's only right.

Moonshiners' Victims. Lexington, Ky., January 27.—A dispatch from Jackson to the Morning Herald states that in a bloody battle with moonshiners at Elkhorn Creek, United States Marshal Tom Hatfield and Posseman Simon Combs were killed and Elaine Combs was captured by moonshiners. Rufus Wootan and Ambrose Amburgy, other members of the posse, were shot and wounded.

Chicago, January 27.—Arthur R. Barnard, teller of the Zion City Bank, the private financial institution established by John Alex. Dowie, four years ago, disappeared Saturday. His father, Mr. Dowie and others believe he has been kidnapped and held for ransom. The police think it more probable that young Barnard has been held up by robbers and possibly injured seriously if not fatally.

Paris, Jan. 27.—Recently Le Petit Sou, a Socialist journal, announced that it was prepared to sell ads to its subscribers at a very moderate figure, being persuaded that an armed nation was indispensable to the welfare of the public and the country. The government watched the proceedings of a week, and finally decided that a depot of arms were not safe in the hands of those who were only too willing to attempt a coup d'etat, seized the entire lot of ads.

Ladies, don't fail to watch the grocery stores for Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla extracts. For Rent—Two houses—Brooklyn also two furnished rooms.—Mrs. G. H. Hillig. 1-24-1wk.

CERVERA TO HOBSON.

Text of Message of Sympathy to His Former Prisoner. New York Special, 25th, to Baltimore Sun. Lieutenant Richmond Pearson Hobson will to-morrow leave the Presbyterian Hospital, where he has been for several weeks ill from typhoid fever.

The young naval constructor sent a cable message today to Admiral Cervera in reply to a message of sympathy recently received from the commander of the Spanish fleet at Santiago. When Admiral Cervera learned of the illness of him who had gallantly attempted to imprison the Spanish warships by sinking the Merimac, he promptly expressed his regret over the news in a message dated at Madrid, December 5, 1900. Because of his weakness Lieutenant Hobson was not able, until a few days ago, to read Cervera's message. It was: "I am greatly afflicted to learn that the gallant Hobson is in an unhealthy state. I am praying to God to return him to health, and if he dies to receive him into his presence."

In addition to his cable message of thanks Lieutenant Hobson will in a few days, write a personal letter to his former enemy and present friend. When your correspondent called at the Presbyterian Hospital Lieutenant Hobson was preparing for a drive. His room was filled with the perfume of fresh flowers. There was a basket of fruit on the table and near by a pile of letters from relatives, friends and admirers.

"I am still very weak from my long siege of sickness," said Lieutenant Hobson, "I am just learning to walk now. I am gaining weight however, and shall soon be strong enough to resume my duties." Lieutenant Hobson said he expected to leave the hospital tomorrow. He will recuperate at the home of a friend, S. Reading Betrom, a banker here.

Alfred Austin on Life of Queen Victoria. Alfred Austin, the poet laureate publishes a long poem entitled "Victoria," in which he traces her life. He thus describes her character: Queen, Empress, more than Empress or than Queen, The Lady of the World on high enthroned, By right divine of duties well fulfilled, To be the pattern to all Queens, all Kings, All women and the consciences of men Who look on duty as man's only right.

Having referred to the Queen's widowhood and the experiences of her later life, Mr. Austin continues: And long and late this happy season wore, The mellow, gracious autumn of her days; This sweet, grave Indian summer, till we grew To deem it limitless, and half forgot Mortality's decree, and now there falls A sudden sadness on our lives, and we Can only bow disconsolate heads and weep And look out from our lonely hearths and see The homeless drifting of the winter mist, And hear the requiem of the winter wind.—London dispatch.

Would Employ "Votes and Hatchets." Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Carrie Nation addressed a large audience at the United Brethren and First Christian churches in this city, tonight. She said: "The issue in Kansas is 'Down with the whiskey trust.' The best rocks to throw are votes. We women cannot vote, but you men with your ballots and we women with our hatchets will clean up this awful traffic."

Mrs. Nation will probably address the meeting of the Kansas Women's Christian Temperance Union organization, which will be held here tomorrow. An attempt is also being made to have her speak to the Legislature on the subject of temperance. Mrs. Nation says she will not attempt to break up the joints in Topeka single-handed but if the women of the town will aid her she will start out "joint smashing tomorrow."

BLEEDING KANSAS.

It Presents an Instance of Common Humanity. The Conservative. In 1856 New England was sending Yankee, Beecher, rifles and Bibles to Kansas in car-load lots to make it a free State. The same year the slave-holding South was shipping in to Kansas bowie knives, guns and a game lot of fighting cavaliers to make it a slave state. Thus the Commonwealth of Kansas came into existence through turmoil, strife and bloodshed.

The territorial or pre-natal condition of the State made an indelible birth-mark upon its emotional and intellectual nature. Kansas has always been from the date of its admission to the Union in 1861, phenomentally hysterical. It has gone from the paroxysmal convulsions of prohibition on one day into the idiotic contortions and gyrations of Populism the next day. It has been most radically Republican one year, giving eighty thousand majority for that party, while denouncing with intensest bigotry and intolerance, all ex-confederate soldiers as worthy of damnation, and another year electing an ex-confederate colonel to represent it in the United States Senate.
