FEBRUARY 1, 1901.

The only animal that Gov. Roosevelt failed to tackle on his western tour, was Mrs. Carrie Nation. Give her a rap.

The Atlanta Journal says Senator Pettigrew is a mighty hard thinker, that he knocked his arm out of socket while in one of his deep studies.

Mrs. Nation is still wrecking saloons, and now has an organized band something on the order of the James band of out laws. She seems to be doing a nice business.

A Republican exchange says Mr. Joe Caldwell is a very decent sort of a man, notwithstanding that he is a Democrat. There is no telling how good he might be if his politics were different.

This is a nice note to carry to the captain. It is from the Durham Herald. "We arise to ask is the dog tax intended to arise revenue or to protect the sheep, for it cannot be both? The more dogs, the more revenue, but the more dogs the fewer sheep."

Governmental extravagance is something fabulous. Yet, every man who was ever kicked by a nightmare while snoring over an appropriation wants a pension, and he generally gets it. The only way to knock the props from under false sentiment, is the realization that it's an expensive luxury, and you've got the freight to pay.

This brother whom we quote was born in a newspaper office, has lived and will die of starvation there: "Bring us some wood. Why are you waiting so long about it? Also we are needing the corn, meat, meal and other stuff that was promised us. We won't need these things after we are dead—especially the wood."—Hayesville Courier.

The News and Observer and Morning Post have had several cross fires recently. Here is a little, a ruling of the Post which is neat and not gaudy: In referring to the insane criminals in the penitentiary, Mordecai asserts in yesterday's News and Observer, evidently with confidence and without fear of any sort of contradiction: "For the News and Observer and the criminal insane department are but a short distance apart."

Rather short for a fact, but does this indicate a purpose to plead insanity in order to get over into the insane department?

Part of my spring order for matting just received, fancy patterns of all colors. Call early and make a good selection. G. W. Wright.

GENERAL NEWS.

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 30.—Chief of Police Stahl announced tonight that when Mrs. Nation raided a joint here he would arrest her so as to make a test case.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Fire this evening destroyed the building at Milwaukee and Ashland avenues, occupied by the Continental Clothing Company. Total loss, $110,000 of which 80 per cent. is insured.

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Carrie Nation today organized a band of 46 women to follow her leadership and assist in wiping out "joints." The band was organized at a mass meeting for women called by Mrs. Nation and presided over by her at the Presbyterian church.

Baltimore, Jan. 30.—With pitiful screams of fright and groans of pain the 75 or more animals of all descriptions confined in cages at Frank C. Bostocks Zoo, which was in winter quarters in the old cyclorama building in this city, were roasted or burned to death tonight. The fire probably originated from a badly insulated wire on the outside of the building. Mr. Bostock estimates his loss on animals at about $440,000. Loss on building probably is $15,000.

Boston, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Mary Green, who seemed to be familiar with the methods of Mrs. Carrie Nation, of Kansas, wrecked a Cambridge street bar room last evening, and today was sentenced to serve a term at the house of correction. Mrs. Green not only laid the bar tender low with a plate, but also reduced the bar ware to molecules, shattered several plate glass mirrors and drove the frightened patrons of the establishment into the wine cellar. "I'm Carrie Nation," she yelled, "and I'll leave no rum shop in the city when I get through."

Berlin, Jan. 30.—Prof. A. Slaby, of the Berlin Technische Hochschule, in the course of a remarkable interview on "the coming electrical revolution," which is to appear in the forthcoming number of a new technical periodical, asserts that his recent invention, multiplex wireless telegraphy, will produce a very great transformation in existing methods. It will be possible, he declares, to apply the principle to submarine cables in such a way as to send hundreds and even thousands of messages simultaneously on the same wire, thus enormously cheapening rates. Prof. Slaby believes that the problem of direct production of electricity from coal will be solved. Germany he predicts, will be the foremost nation of the 20th century in technical production, and electricity will be the poor man's source of power and light.

The Bond Election Postponed. Lumberton, Jan. 29. To-day was the day on which the citizens of Lumberton were to vote on issuing bonds for electric lights, but owing to the fact that some one had stolen the registration books no election was held. It was first thought to be a joke some one was getting off on Register W. O. Thompson, and that the books would be returned to him, but when the time came to open the polls they failed to turn up. The election has been postponed for 30 days, and the aldermen will order a new registration and election at their meeting tonight.

Miss Fannie McNeely, of Washington, is visiting her brother, Mr. T. C. McNeely, superintendent of the Carolina & Northern Railroad.—Gen. T. F. Toon, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and family left last week for their new home in Raleigh. Work is progressing nicely on the new cotton mill here and by next fall Lumberton will be buying cotton instead of selling it.

McBee to Succeed St. John.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 30.—There now appears to be but little doubt that V. E. McBee, former superintendent of the Seaboard Air Line will succeed Mr. St. John as vice-president and general manager of the system. Since Mr. St. John's retirement Capt. McBee has been performing the duties of his position as well as fulfilling his own as general superintendent. The impression prevails that it has already been determined to place him permanently at the head of the operating department of the system. Mr. McBee is expected to return to Portsmouth from Washington to-morrow and it is believed that some announcement will then be made.

To Decide the Fate of the Bill.

Washington, Jan. 30.—A conference of Democrats and their associates of the Silver Republican faith will be held to-morrow as a result of the declaration yesterday by Mr. Frye that he intended to push the consideration of the ship subsidy bill to the exclusion of all other business except by vote of the Senate. This conference will determine the fate of the bill.

If the opponents of the measure decide to continue a stiff fight and debate the measure at great length it will mean defeat at this session with the short term remaining to pass the appropriation bills. Some of the opponents of the bill on the Democratic side feel that if the Republicans are determined to pass the bill the majority should not go further than to state their objections fully and vote against it, but let the Republicans take the responsibility which is theirs.

No one wants an extra session and that will be avoided if there is any possible way of doing so. It is even said that the Spooner bill will be passed in order to avoid such session after the 4th of March. Republicans leaders say that they believe an extra session can be avoided. They also say that the Democrats must decide whether they will take the responsibility of defeating the subsidy bill and if they are ready to take that responsibility then other necessary legislation will be pressed rapidly to avoid an extra session.

What's the Matter?

You say you have had good trade. Why haven't you paid your city tax? You contractors, you clerks and laborers you say you have had plenty of work. Why haven't you paid yours? You who have been standing on the streets, why don't you go to work and pay Shaver yours, and don't have him looking so sour at you? He is not hard to find and he will be only too glad to accommodate any of you.

Rowan Barber Shop.—Hair cut 15c. Burt McNeely has moved his shop to East Main st., opposite court house. Workmanship second to none. Give him a trial.
