

CITY ITEMS.

Cold snap. Fine skating. "Beautiful snow." Thermometer down to zero on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Some new things in the second hand column—thresher, bark mill, etc.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. J. M. Tiernan, the wife of Prof. Tiernan, at Asheville on the 10th.

Some of Morgan's Funny Four Minstrels, colored black, are going to New York to join the profession.

The Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran churches have united in holding prayer meetings again this week.

The live real estate agent, J. M. Haden, reports the sale of two lots for $400, on Cemetery street, to W. H. Woodson. Mr. W. will erect two dwellings on the property.

On the first page will be found a lively letter from our Montgomery county correspondent, at Eldorado. He is also a ready-made poet, as will be seen from the poem on same page.

We are pleased to see that Mr. Frank Patterson, formerly of Concord, has been engaged as salesman at Smithdeal's. He is polite and obliging, and it is a pleasure to be waited on by him.

Mr. John F. Ross informs us that he will move his family back to this city in a short time. His suits against the Railroad Company seem to be in his favor. If this is so he will be greatly benefited.

Capt J D Stewart is kept very busy at his different portable saw mills. One is doing work six miles above Mocksville, another seven miles up the river, and one on the Guild Hill road.

Meroney & Bro. can compliment themselves on having a good business last year, and has started out this year with such astonishing cheap offers that they should carry all the trade with them. Read their advertisements.

Miss Jennie Gill, the pretty 16 year old daughter of Capt. Oliver Gill, has made one of the finest silk patchwork quilts ever offered at a raffie. It is on exhibition at Klatt's drug store, and well worth $1 per chance.

Plenty of pretty girls, lots of establis and drinkables, fine music and a good jolly time, are the reports from the party given by Capt. C. H. Edwards and his good lady to a boat of friends, at their residence on last Wednesday night.

Henry Hannah, who is a very warm hearted darkey, found a front and some sausage hanging in front of J. G. Cauble's store Saturday night, and concluded to take it home to keep it from freezing. He now boards at the hotel de county.

George Foster, a negro drayman, was badly hurt on Saturday last, by falling from his wagon, near the heels of one of his horses, which began kicking and struck George over the eye, inflicting an ugly wound. Later we learn he is dead from the effects of the kick.

The dancing season is over. The band has been dismissed and the city has had a series of dances which have been enjoyed by all at the expense of twenty-five young gentlemen composing the Salisbury Pleasure Club. The gentlemen are indebted to Mr. Sam Miller for a present of $5.00. Thus, with one other, being the only donation made. The dances have been a perfect success and a great credit to the managers and city.

Salisbury Cotton Mill. The cotton mill will be built by some means. Let every citizen take at least one share or more, as he is able. It pays in Concord, Atlanta, Greensboro, and at other places. Why not in Salisbury? Now that Theo. F. Klatts, Esq., is at the head of it, something must be done, as it is a known fact that he has followers that will put money where he recommends. We feel sure it will pay 10 per cent on the investment.

Death of William Goat. It is not our intention to record the death of every tin-can-eating Billy Goat in the county, but on this occasion it is with regret that we note the death of Sidney Heilig's goat on the 10th, at the age of fifty years. The remarkable feature in the case is that some of our best citizens have in infancy played with this venerable William Goat, and mourn his death. He was a faithful playmate, a fond husband to many wives, and a great bucker.

Consol Report for Fourth Month of Session. WHITE SCHOOL. 1885-'86, 1886-'87, 1887-'88, 1888-'89. Enrollment, 310 205 206. A's, attend, 186 202 195.

F. J. MURDOCH, Sec.

Annual Meeting of the Old Hickory Club.

At the expiration of one year this Old Hickory find themselves on a substantial basis, with nicely furnished rooms, two elegant billiard tables, and other equipments necessary to the comfort of a gentleman's club. The annual election of officers resulted as follows: Maj G P Erwin, re-elected President; W Smithdeal, Vice-President; second and third Vice-Presidents, Theo F Klatts and T K Bruner; Secretary, R Eames, Jr.; Treasurer, W H White, re-elected.

Executive Committee: John Jacobs, W C Lindsay, Theo Parker, Harry J Overman, S H Lord and E R Osterman. After a very satisfactory meeting they adjourned.

Tatum's Minstrels are strictly first class in every respect. Nothing said or done to offend the most fastidious.

A Prosperous Bank. Annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank was held on Monday. No change in the Board, which would be hard to improve upon, as they comprise some of our very best and most level-headed business men. Old officers elected also, and are to be found, as usual, ready to serve the public. As has been stated heretofore in these columns, the affairs of this institution are in a prosperous condition, and the outlook for the New Year very bright and promising.

Laugh and grow fat. See Tatum's Minstrels at Meroney's Hall on Thursday night.

A Present For Every Farmer. OFFICE OF PARKS & CO., BALTIMORE, JAN. 7th, 1886.

DEAR HERALD: Will you please do us the favor of sending us names of some of your most prominent farmers and truckers, who take the HERALD and get their mail from your office. We wish to send them some valuable information, and oblige.

Very respectfully yours, PARKS & CO.

New house for sale, with three rooms, on Fisher street, near J Allen Brown's. Possession given at once. J M HADEN.

Personal. Miss Bessie Carr, of Concord, is the guest of Miss Fannie McNeely.

A. H. Bronson, a capitalist of New York, has been registered at the Mt. Vernon this week.

The great joker, B. P. Beard, has left town again to accept a position with Horstahl & Deuche, cigar manufacturers of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Maggie Merrimon, of Raleigh, is the guest of Mrs. L. S. Overman.

Mr. Theo. Baerbaum and wife, Mrs. Miss Jennie Eames, arrived on Sunday morning after a bridal tour of ten or twelve days in New York and Washington.

For Sale.—House and lot on Fisher street, near the railroad bridge. Cheap for cash. Apply to J M HADEN.

Railroad Notes. Capt. Melles has been presented with an oil painting, executed by an artist friend of his in Atlanta, Ga. The scene is on the Western Railroad near Waynesville, in the mountains.

Geo. Melben, formerly of Company Shops, has been appointed foreman of the railroad shops at this place, under Capt. Gates. Mr. Melben fills the vacancy made by the removal of Mr. Fetner. He is a clever and skillful workman, and liked by all at the shop.

Mr. Wiley Horn, from Company Shops, is engaged as machinist and engineer at the shops in this place.

Many friends of the popular Capt Lee Wynn will be pleased to learn that he was only slightly hurt while attending to his duties on the Western road, near Round Knob, on Monday.

Bilesville Items. Bilesville Academy, Miss A. L. Rutledge, principal, assisted by Mr. E. C. Sell, has an enrollment of 76 pupils, and there are more to come in. The school is in a prosperous condition at present.

On the 31st ult., Mr. Adam Troutman and Miss Charlotte Glover, were united in holy matrimony; D. M. Ritchie, Esq., officiating. We extend our best wishes.

A few weeks ago, Mr. George Miller shot a large hawk at a distance of 87 yards. The hawk measured 45 inches from tip to tip. Hurrah for George.

"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away." Fell asleep in the arms of Jesus, on the 4th inst., an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sides.

"I take these little lambs," said He, and lay them in My bosom; Protection they shall find in Me. In Me be ever blest. Death may be banish'd from life unlose, But can't dissolve My love; Millions of infants souls compose The family above." E. C. S.

MINING NOTES.

Mr W F Darlington of Dakota is here looking into our mines.

The Bilesville Gold Mining Company have been pushing things forward for the last two weeks. A number of hands are employed raising ore. They have a vast amount—enough to keep them running their stamp mill several months. It is paying very well.

On Wednesday we were pleased to receive a call from Mr. Geo. D. Stonecreek, M. E., of Birmingham, Ala., in quest of mining interests in North Carolina. Mr. Stonecreek is a mining engineer of large experience, having mined in Africa and many other districts. He is well pleased with our minerals, and hopes to do some work in our State.

Mike Holtzhausen Mine. Prof. J. M. Tiernan has been sinking a prospect shaft on this mine, which has proved so satisfactory that he is negotiating for the purchase of the boiler, engine, and stamp mill used by the Bilesville mine. They have a three foot vein of fine Ferruginous, Auriferous quartz which, to the depth attained, is free milling. Rowan county will soon have in this mine another producer.

N. O. G. & R. Works. We had a pleasant call on Tuesday from John Jacobs, the superintendent of the Chlorination Works, and after going through his pockets we fished out one bar of 19 ozs. of refined gold valued at $350, the result of his last days work before the cold snap. He will resume operations in a day or so.

Redmond Mine. Mr. S. T. Muffy has made arrangements to purchase this property adjoining Hoover Hill, in Randolph county. Should this turn out to be as valuable a property as Hoover Hill is, Mr. M. will be very fortunate. He has begun operations and has twenty hands employed. He will sink a 100 foot shaft at once.

Bear Poplar. Mr. Editor:—Xmas and New Year has come and gone and the most beautiful weather almost ever witnessed at such a season of the year, but we have a beautiful young down to 16", with the ground frozen quite hard, so it is apt to lay until more comes on it.

This section passed Xmas in a very quiet way; we had preaching at St. Luke's at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. D. Shirey had a turkey dinner after preaching, to which a good many of his favorites were invited, and we learn, had quite an enjoyable festival of it, but as I was not of the favorites, I only give hearsay evidence.

During the week J. W. Miller gave a wild goose dinner, which is something rare in this section, as wild geese are seldom ever caught napping about here, but the extent of the assembly and their enjoyment I have not heard but presume they were well filled with goose.

There were a few marriages just a few days before Xmas and Xmas eve. The most conspicuous was Mr. Walter Rankin and Miss Maggie Houston, (both of Mooreville) daughter of the late Dr. J. P. Houston of near this place.

The darkeys had several marriages and weddings, two at this place. The darkeys are busy moving about from their last year homes and a goodly number of the farmers have not as yet got in their hands for next or this year; and they appear to be scarce, and many are holding off in expectation of something to turn up. A good many farmers have turned their next summer's corn and cotton land, which is something unusual for this time of year.

Wheat that was early sowed is looking well, the late wheat only come up during the warm holidays, quite a large crop is in the ground.

There is, and has been quite a number of cases of pneumonia about here and about Amity Hill. Several cases proved fatal, others are convalescent, otherwise this community is (as the doctors would say) distressingly healthy no news afloat.

The schools generally started up last Monday and are liberally patronized.

Heilig's Mill Items. The Sunday School scholars of Organ and Lower Stone churches were on Christmas pleasantly surprised by the appearance of a beautiful Christmas tree at each church.

Mr S J M Brown, the efficient matrician, is giving instructions in the rudiments of vocal music at Organ and Lower Stone churches.

The congregation of Organ Church is now without a regular pastor.

Christmas and New Year was fully made known by the booming of firearms. One man made a big Christmas shoot in the dark—in firing his gun it secretly deserted; when looking around next morning for the fragments, he found that the load came out at the breach.

Mr R W Best slaughtered a hog that balanced the scales at 707 lb gross, 608 net. Mr. Best is slightly ahead. Who will excel? W.
