CITY ITEMS.

The commencement exercises at the Zion Wesley College were creditable to both teachers and scholars.

Capt. J. R. Nicholas has our thanks for some very fine cherries with which he regaled us last Friday.

The first apples of the season have made their appearance. The sweet little innocents adorn A. Parker's store window.

The first series of the Building and Loan association closed last Tuesday, with 611 shares. The success of the B. & L. is now assured.

The certificates of the averages of the graded school pupils are at Baerbaum's Book store and will be delivered when called for.

We acknowledge invitations to the commencements at Pleasant Garden, Thomasville Female College and Salem Academy.

The Salisbury District Sunday-school Conference will be held at Mt. Taber Church next Friday morning, commencing at 9 o'clock.

Mr. R. M. Davis has taken a contract to furnish 150 mattresses to the new hotel Meroney & Bro. are building at Icard station, and Mr. R. L. Ramsay is furnishing spring beds for the same.

The Methodist Sunday School had their annual picnic last Tuesday. Nearly 200 persons were present under the shades of the ancient oaks on Dunn's Mountain. Everybody enjoyed the occasion.

J. F. McCubbin will list taxes for Salisbury township at J. S. McCubbin's store between the 7th and 27th of June. He will be at Goble's Mill on the 25 inst. to list taxes of that neighborhood.

The commencement at Zion W. College, also the ceremonies of laying the corner stones of the Dodge and Mark Hopkins Halls took place on Tuesday last, and was attended by a large congregation of colored people. The ceremonies passed off in a very creditable manner to all concerned.

Continental money is becoming quite scarce, it is all taken up by collectors. One of our subscribers showed us a hundred dollar bill the other day bearing the following inscription:

Death to counterfeit. State of N. C. $100. 1780. North Carolina Currency.

The size of the bill was 2 1/2 by 3 inches and printed on ordinary paper.

The tobacco factory of Rice & Ford is now in good working order. Mr. John Stewart, of Mocksville, the manager of this factory, has arranged everything in a manner that recommends itself to common sense, economy and speed. They have now 48,000 pounds of leaf on hand—promise to work more than that though. At present 30 hands are engaged, but in a short time 20 more will be added. We have no doubt of the success of this firm as they have money, experience and the vim to push their business.

We learn that Dr. W. L. Seigler will open a Dental office in our town this week. Dr. S. is a graduate of Baltimore Dental College, and has practiced for 12 years. This is what the Gainesville (Fla.) Daily News says about him: "Dr. W. L. Seigler has returned to Shelby, N. C. He will engage in the work of his profession, dentistry, at that place during the coming summer. He left a good practice and many friends in Gainesville. Should he return, his coming will be welcomed by his many former patrons."

Messrs. J. G. Finley and Corpening, proprietors of the Watanga Hotel, Bowling Rock, have painted the hotel throughout, and the grounds are laid out with flowers and shrubs, rustic seats, &c., and the blue grass lawn, making the place look very picturesque. They have a large fish pond stocked with trout for the exclusive use of the guests, who may enjoy the sport of angling to their heart's content. The proprietors have secured one of the best lady housekeepers of Davidson College, Mrs. Brady, and her charming daughter, Bobbie, who will attend to the wants and comfort of the lady guests. This is by far the coolest spot in summer, and for scenery cannot be surpassed any where on the Blue Ridge, situated on the very summit.

Messrs. Henkel & Corpening, of Lenoir lively stables, have nice conveyances to take large or small parties in a few hours direct to Blowing Rock Watanga Hotel, at very reasonable rates, over a turnpike road kept in splendid order. Carriages meet every train.

BROTHERHOOD OF LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

No organization in the United States is stronger, firmer, and at the same time more reasonable in all its demands than the above named society. No ranting, lazy, good-for-nothing, can creep into its ranks. Every brother is a master workman, a sober gentleman and an industrious wage worker. Knowing that their own lives and that of their passengers depend upon their faithfulness, vigilance and knowledge, they conscientiously and soberly do their work.

Seldom, if ever again, will so many engineers of the W. N. C. R. R. be together in our place as there were last Saturday night, when the Swannanoa Division No. 267 of the B. L. E., gave a reception at their lodge-room to a few invited guests. Mr. Theo. F. Klutz addressed them in his pleasant and appropriate style. At 10 o'clock the engineers' big supper came off. Mine host, Mr. Frericks, with the able assistance of the energetic Mr. Vernon, had tried his best and had succeeded well. Something good to eat always touches a man in a tender spot, especially when it is washed down with Mumm's Extra Dry and elegant scuppernon wine.

All enjoyed the occasion; wit and good humor seasoned the dainty dishes; the presence of ladies gave such a charm to this festive occasion as only ladies can give. At five long tables the guests were seated as follows:

First table—Maj. G. P. Erwin and wife, Capt. G. W. Gates and wife, Mr. Lester Aldrich and wife, Will Kirby, (of the Cincinnati Southern R. R. and brother of engineer Kirby who got hurt last week near Round Knob); G. W. Clarke and wife, the much travelled Will Lowe and sister, Miss Edna. At the second table were: Will and James West, C. H. Edwards and wife, Rev. T. J. Clarke, Geo. Melane, Geo. Klutz, Henry Trot, J. B. Gordon, (the happy father of the day); J. B. Stevens, J. R. Nicholas and Theo. Baerbaum. Over this table presided with all the grace and politeness of a true Virginian, Doc Stevens, a dish of rare fruit garlanded with geranium leaves ornamented the table in front of the presiding Doc. The third table was occupied by Theo. F. Klutz, C. R. Barker, J. F. Barber, W. C. Lindsay, Gaither Pearson, W. B. Berry, J. Fulmer, Locke Aldrich, W. L. James, L. F. Wynne, Cal. Welch, and J. B. Bradley, of the R. & D. R. R.

At the fourth table J. M. Edwards was the master of ceremonies, Maj. C. M. Bolton, the chief engineer of the R. & D. System; Mrs. V. B. McBea, T. McBea, our genial agent, A. S. Lewter, T. J. Harrison, W. P. Terrill, E. T. Clarke, D. A. Troutman; Mr. Leuty and Alex Lesby.

At the last table Mr. Tom Murphy and wife had the pleasant task of chaperoning the younger folks. Miss Mattie James and T. E. Winslow, Miss G. E. Edwards and W. S. Overton, Miss Josephina Baker and G. R. Hanger, Miss Marie Gates and W. A. James, Brooks Moore and John Clarke.

It was nearly twelve o'clock when the party left the dining room, and by midnight everybody was on his way home, conscious that these pleasant hours were spent by the courtesy of the Swannanoa Division No. 267 B. L. E.

Children's Mission Band.

Ice cream, cake, lemonade, green lawn shade, swing and comfortable seats were the attractions at a lawn party given by the Childrens Mission band, of which Mrs. S. H. Wiley is president. The party was on the beautiful lawn back of Mr. Wileys residence; shaded by trees, under which tables, benches and chairs were placed and visited by over two hundred people. The scene presented a pleasant and beautiful picture. As you entered the grounds Master Sam Wiley greeted you, superintending the lemonade stand, which was an exact counterpart of an old-fashioned well out of the depths of which he drew up with a picturesque sweep, sweet ice-lemomade. He was ably assisted in his cooling efforts by a corps of able assistants. A handsomely decorated ice cream stand was presided over by Misses Annie Gowan, Miriam Wiley, Janie Klutz and Annie Wiley. The cake stand near the well was tended to by Misses Edna Lowe, Coit, Nettie Marsh and Corinne Erwin. The combination ice-cream and cake stand decorated with banners and flags was in charge of the Misses Bessie Krider, Bessie Brown, Carrie Knox, Bertha Knox and Maggie Knox. Mrs. Wiley superintended the whole affair from her table where beautiful and rare flowers were on sale. Last but not over which hung suspended a quaint and artistic bell, Misses Maggie Beall, Josie Coit, Clara Knox and $30 were the able salesladies. $0 well gotten up and so thoroughly enjoyed by old and young. We hope for an early repetition of this pleasant occasion.

Baerbaum & Eames have one of those new improved Singer Sewing Machines for sale.

The Magic Baking Powder. It is guaranteed.

Rev. W. Stondenmire preached his farewell sermon last Sunday night at the Lutheran Church. After the services were over the members of his congregation and others crowded around their beloved pastor and bade him good-bye. Many an eye was wet with tears and the scene was quite affecting. His many virtues, of which kindness and charity to poor people was the brightest, had made him warm friends, whose love will outlive this mortal life. Rev. S. left on last Monday morning's train to visit his mother in South Carolina and he will be back to preach at Concordia Church, this county, before he will set out on his trip to Europe.

Graduating at the Graded.

It was our pleasure to attend last Friday the awarding of the certificates of the graduating class of our graded school. After the scholars and visitors were called to order by the Principal, Miss Capitola Moore, and the vocal class opened the ceremonies with music. Dr. J. Rumpke then followed with prayers. Rev. F. J. Murdoch, in behalf of the graduating class, presented a gold fountain pen to the principal, Prof. R. C. Kizer. The latter was evidently not expecting this proof of his pupil's love, and for a few minutes he was quite overcome; rallying soon he thanked them in appropriate and fitting terms. Rev. Mr. Murdoch then made a statement of the examination of the class about to graduate, showing that Leo. C. Wallace being the highest in this class, was entitled to the Peabody medal, which medal was presented to Leo. by Mr. Lee S. Overman, in his happy style and well chosen words. Our worthy mayor, Mr. Neave, then awarded the diplomas, and Dr. Rumpke closed the exercises with prayer.

The Peabody medal is of bronze, 2 1/2 inches in diameter and nearly a quarter of an inch thick. On the obverse bears the likeness of George Peabody, his name above it, and underneath the words, "born 18th February, 1795; died 4th Nov. 1869." On the reverse was the following: Education due from present to future generations, the trustees of the Peabody education fund.

The Magic Baking Powder is now ready and for sale at the principal stores.

Memorial Day.

The memorial exercises of May 30th took place last Saturday. The procession was formed at the A. M. E. Zion Church, headed by a brass band. They went to the cemetery, then to the court house, where Rev. J. C. Price, the president of the day, introduced the orator, Hon. J. C. Dancy. His speech was well delivered, his words well chosen, his oration appropriate and fitting. There was an entire absence of the rant of former years, when decoration day was prostituted into a republican whipping-in day, when the speeches were tending to antagonize the two races. The town was crowded with colored people, and to their credit be it said that order and good will prevailed, and no arrests had to be made.

Railroad Notes.

No trains, no freight, no mail last Tuesday.

Mr. East is the new operator of Capt Lewter's staff.

The depot facilities here are becoming painfully inadequate.

Roanoke voted a subscription of $100,000 dollars to the Roanoke & Southern R. R.

The gauge on the A. T. & O. R. was changed on Wednesday, and Thursday morning trains were running as usual.

We saw at the depot the other day, a chain that weighed 2100 lbs., to be used for transfer purposes in the W. N. C. R. R. yard.

The North bound passenger train No. 53 was wrecked Thursday, breaking through a trestle near Riddy's, Va. No one hurt.

E. K. Bryan, an efficient clerk on Capt. Lewter's staff, has accepted a position as loading clerk at the C. C. R. R. depot in Charlotte. Sorry to lose him.

At the late repairing of the R. & D. R. R. bridge, over the Yaddin, four different bridge building crews contended for a prize of $100, which was carried off by Capt. McBea's W. N. C. R. R. boys. That speaks well for them.

Everything around the car shops looks busy, not an idle man not an idle machine not even an idle hammer, and the busiest man is Capt. Gates. He is working hard to have everything in ship-shape, according to the new gauge.

At Paint Rock a short piece of side track of the E. T. Va. & Ga. R. R. had been forgotten at the late change of gauge. When they tried last Sunday to run an engine and tender on this side track, it became a small sized wreck, but no serious damage was done.

The gauge on the W. N. C. R. R. was changed last Saturday from 5 feet to 4 feet, nine inches. The work was begun at 4.30 a. m. and the last spike driven home at 10.52 a. m., 288 miles of railroad in 6 hours and 22 minutes. This is certainly the most remarkable feat in railroad building and all the men deserve unstinted praise for this remarkable achievement.

The gauge on the R & D was changed last Tuesday; at 9:25 a. m. Mr. Eddins squad of 15 men passed our depot. It was quite a sight to see the men at work, pulling up the old nails, moving the iron rail, gauging the track and driving the nails in their new places. If all the squads had been as well managed as Mr. Eddins', the R & D branch of the Great Western R. R., as the latter's employees bantingly call the R & D R. R., we have no doubt they would have finished the task as quick as the Western, which latter, as it stands now, is several hours ahead of the R & D in time consumed to change the gauge. The gauge from West Point to Danville was changed Monday and from Danville to Atlanta Tuesday. The W. N. C. R. R. 188 miles, made over 5 hours better time than the R & D, 169 miles, from Danville to West Point.

MINING NOTES.

Prof W Traggelas, mining engineer, of London, England, arrived in town on Tuesday.

The Powers mine, near Horse Creek, in Ashe county, is down 22 feet on an incline, a drift to the N. W. on level, has drained the shaft. The ore is much improved. The ore is sent to be assayed.

Prof. J. M. Tiernan will soon have his ten stamp mill running at the Heltschouser mine. He is, with his known energy, pushing it right along. The ore now being taken out from the lower level is richer than any seen since the mine was opened.

W B Lewis, Esq. of London, England, arrived from Europe a few days ago. He is connected with the Gold Hill camp. He proceeded to the mines and will remain there for a week or ten days, to see for himself the prospect for larger milling facilities.

Capt W Nance, superintendent of the Gold Hill mines, was in town on Tuesday. He reports everything working satisfactory at the mine. They are sinking in new ground in the 750 foot level. The ore continues of the same grade as the old workings. They will soon have a large amount of ore on dump ready for milling, and results cannot but be satisfactory.

New Find.

Miners from Pennsylvania are opening a strong vein of argentiferous Galena on the Grayson and Ashe county line. Near the foot wall the gangue is quartz and embedded particles of siliceous slate, with black sulphuret of silver and bismuth, also some pyrite. The vein is opened at several points by shallow shafts and cross-cuts. On the hanging wall are large geodes, filled with limpid quartz, coated with sulphuret of iron. The ore on assay gave 3 oz. of silver, 02.73 bismuth.

Upon motion it was resolved that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the city papers and the Lutheran Visitor for publication. The resolutions by a rising vote were unanimously adopted. SALISBURY, May 30, '86.

How To Save Gold.

THE TRIPLER AMALGAMATOR! PATENTED.

This machine is a combination of silver plates so as to represent a large amalgamating surface, working with rapidity and efficiency, which has not hitherto been accomplished. The drawing above represents the machine in working position. It consists of four corrugated plates fitted together, allowing a space between of 1/4 inch. Two plates are perpendicular, connecting with two horizontally inclined. The pulp passes from the battery and falls perpendicularly through the plates, which gives it a zigzag motion, causing the free gold to impinge on each side, when it passes through the horizontally inclined plates, which act as riffles, catching any escaped gold both on top and bottom. The plates discharge in a circular pan at the end which is given a rotary motion, thus concentrating the heavier portion of the tailings for subsequent treatment if necessary. At the top of the machine is a mercury cup which feeds automatically any required mercury to keep the plates in active force.

The machine is especially adapted for placer mines. It can be worked with or without water; it requires no mill for pulverization, it only being necessary to stir the sand, which can be done at a trifling cost, so that low grade ore can be worked profitably. This machine has been practically tested and is now on the Herring mine, Randolph county, where it met with such success as to warrant the belief that it will be of great value to the mining interest of this State. This machine has an electrical attachment by which the mercury should be sickened by the various causes to which it is liable, can be instantly restored to activity. Inspection is invited. Estimates given for the erection of this machine on placer and other mines; also for all other mining machinery by the undersigned.
