

RELIEF!

Forty Years a Sufferer from CATARRH.

WONDERFUL TO RELATE:

"FOR FORTY YEARS I have been a victim to CATARRH—three-fourths of the time a sufferer from EXCORIATING PAINS ACROSS MY FOREHEAD and MY NOSTRILS. The discharges were so offensive that I hesitate to mention it, except for the good it may do some other sufferer. I have spent a young fortune from my earnings during my forty years of suffering to obtain relief from the doctors. I have tried patent medicines—every one I could learn of—from the four corners of the earth, with no relief. And AT LAST, 67 years of age, I have met with a remedy that has cured me entirely—made me a new man, I weighed 128 pounds and now weigh 146. I used thirteen bottles of the medicine, and the only regret that I have is that being in the humble walls of life I may not have influence to prevail on all catarrh sufferers to use what has cured me." Graham's Pioneer Blood Renewer.

DR. HENRY CHEVES, 207 Second St., Macon, Ga.

"Dr. Henry Cheves, the writer of the above, formerly of Crawford county, now of Macon Georgia, merits the confidence of all interested in catarrh." W. A. HUFF, City Mayor of Macon.

FARM NOTES.

Dry earth or muck in the stable will save manure, prevent disease and keep milk from being tainted.

Do not forget that the calves will want a little good cold water two or three times a day if they are tethered out during the hot weather.

One bushel of salt, two of lime, and five of good earth make an excellent compost, but should be in bulk for three or four months under cover.

To prevent the spread of chicken cholera Dr. Salmon recommends a mixture of two ounces of sulphuric acid to two gallons of water. This will destroy every germ of cholera that it touches in a few minutes, being one of the best disinfectants known.

EXTRA FEED FOR HOLSTEIN Cows.—Holsteins will probably give a greater quantity of milk than any other breed of cows, but it does not possess the extreme richness of Jersey milk. But this lack of richness may be remedied by feeding corn meal or oil meal. Whatever the Holstein cow gets in feed rich in oils will come out in the cream, and while giving milk, no matter how highly fed, she will not fatten, and there is less danger of causing caked bag or milk fever by high feeding with Holsteins than with Jerseys, whose milk is naturally as rich as it can be on ordinary feed. The forcing of large production is therefore better adapted to increasing the richness of milk already large, than to increasing the quantity of a small but rich yield.

HOW TO MAKE COWS GIVE MILK. A writer says that his cow gives all the milk that is wanted in a family of eight, and that from it, after taking all that is required for other purposes, 200 pounds of butter were made this year. This is in part his treatment of the cows: "If you desire to get a large yield of rich milk, give your cows every day water slightly warm and slightly salted, in which bran has been stirred at the rate of one quart to two gallons of water. You will find, if you have not tried this daily practice, that your cow will give twenty-five per cent. more milk immediately under the effects of it, and she will become so attached to the diet as to refuse to drink clear water unless very thirsty. But this mess she will drink almost any time and ask for more. The amount of this drink necessary is an ordinary water pailful at a time, morning, noon and night."

The Horse and his Rider.

(From the London Society.) The sagacious horse expects that his master or rider shall be fully competent to perform his share of the business. A horse soon learns to despise a timid rider. The confidence of a horse in a firm rider and his own courage is great, as was conspicuously evinced in the case of an Arab possessed by the late Gen. Sir Robert R. Gillespie who being present on the race course of Calcutta during one of the great Hindoo festivals, when several thousand people may be assembled to witness all kinds of shows, when suddenly alarmed by the shrieks of the crowd, and informed that a tiger had escaped from his keeper. Sir Robert immediately called for his horse and grasping a boar spear, which was in the hands of the crowd, rode to attack his formidable enemy. The tiger was probably amazed at finding himself in the middle of such a number of shrieking beings, flying from him in all directions; but the moment he perceived Sir Robert he crouched with the attitude of preparing to spring at him, and the instant the gallant soldier passed his horse in a leap over the tiger's back and struck the spear through his spine. The horse was a small gray, after he had sent home by him, a present to the Prince Regent. When Sir Robert fell at the storming of Kalunga his favorite black charger, bred at the Cape of Good Hope and carried by him to India, was at the sale of his effects competed for by several officers of his division, and finally knocked down to the private of the Eighth Dragoons, who contributed their prize money to the amount of £500 sterling to retain this commemorative of their late commander. Thus the charger was always led at the head of the regiment on a march and at the station of Cawpore was indulged with taking his ancient station at the color stand, where the salute of passing squadrons was given at drills and reviews. When the regiment was ordered home, the funds of the private running low, he was bought for the same sum by a party who provided funds and paddock, for him where he might end his days in comfort, but when the corps had marched, and the sound of trumpet had departed, he refused to eat, and on the first opportunity, being let out to exercise, he broke from his groom, and galloping to his ancient station on the parade, after neighing aloud, dropped down and died.

FACETIAE.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland has "appeared out," as they say down East.

"Greenland has only one newspaper." This is probably the reason they call it Greenland.—[N. Y. Graphic.

The man whose name gets into the paper without his consent should go and comfort the man whose name is left out when he wanted it in.—[N. O. Picayune.

It is said that in a recent fit of rage Hannibal Hamlin threw half a mince pie at a man who was playing on a bagpipe under his dining room window. The man was no doubt the piper of Hamlin. Hats.—[Pittsburg Chronicle.

"I left a little check for $10,000 among the wedding gifts," said the girl's father to his prospective son-in-law, "and after the ceremony is over we will quietly tear it up. See? That's the style nowadays, George." "Yes," hesitated George, "that's the style, but I'm afraid it's too late to tear it up now." "Why?" "Because I went down to the bank and got it cashed."—[N. Y. Sun.

In a poem called "The Organist" we are informed that—

"He sat him down at twilight hour Before the ivory keys, And let his fingers wander o'er The clavier as they please.

Though dark and still the empty church, At once lit up over head, And passing near with drooping wings, He leaves the player dead."

That angel should not weary in his good work. Sometimes when a man is clawing the ivory keys the neighbors want to hurl a brick at him, but they would be satisfied if an angel would hover over him and leave him dead. The angel should also hover over the amateur flute player, the cornetist, the accordion fiend, and other musical aggravations.—[Norristown Herald.

A Stranger Who Took the Cake.

The young people of a certain church are constantly devising novel plans for their church socials. A short time ago they decided to have a sewing contest for young men, and the competitor whose workmanship was decided to be the best was to receive a very nice cake of liberal dimensions, which the young ladies had baked. When the contest took place, among the dozen competitors was a stranger. When the work was examined the young ladies were greatly chagrined to learn that the unknown gentleman's sewing was far superior to that of any of the others. Of course they were compelled, but much against their will, to award him the cake. The next day the young ladies discovered that the winner of the cake was a tailor, and they were the maddest people who were ever connected with a church. The simple mention of the word "tailor" now sends them into hysterics.

Eating Before Sleeping.

Among the novelties suggested by certain physicians is a recommendation to eat before retiring at night. At first the sleep will be heavy and the dreams disturbed, but eventually, it is claimed, a full stomach will cause drowsiness and the food will digest better. The blood, it is argued, being drawn to the stomach, incites to slumber, because the pressure upon the brain is thereby relieved. Actors, it is said, eat heartily after a performance and find it advantageous to do so. Our English progenitors, in a past generation, partook of late and hearty suppers, and lived quite as long as their descendants. Late dinners are still the custom in England, and then in hot countries it is always the custom to take a siesta after a heavy midday meal. Animals generally sleep after eating. It is doubtful, however, if these theories will succeed in changing the habits of the American people. Outside the large cities, the mid day meal is the principal one, and the supper, or tea, is partaken of several hours before retiring. Man is a creature of habit and he had better follow the customs of a lifetime. Still, it is probably true that persons suffering from indigestion would advantage themselves if they could take a nap after a heavy meal.—[Golden Argosy.

—FOR—

SALE.

—O—

Having determined to settle up and change my business, the following property is for sale, the greater part of which is in and near Salisbury, N. C., now one of the growing cities of the State.

1st—The house and lot where I now live; a good brick house with ten rooms 18 feet square and 10 feet hall-way; two other brick buildings 16x32, 2 rooms each; fine brick dairy, 3 wells of water, 2 good large stock and forage barns, and other out-buildings; a large garden, about 4 acres in choice fruit trees, just in good bearing. The whole lot contains 15 acres, beautifully situated, the ground slightly descending from the dwelling at all points.

2nd—20 fine building lots 50x200 or larger to suit purchasers, adjoining the residence of J. S. McCutbins and others.

3rd—45 acres of land adjoining the above, between the Charlotte and Caldwell Roads, about one-half mile from city, well suited for building, manufacturing sites or truck farming. About 6 acres of good forest timber on this tract.

4th—A house and lot just one mile from centre of city; lot contains 7 acres, house 3 rooms, well of good water; lies between the Charlotte and N. C. Railroad. This lot is well suited for manufacturing as a fair portion is on grade with R. R.

5th—80 acres of Land on East side of N. C. R. R., within 200 yards of the corporate limits of Salisbury, with 2 common houses which rent for $6 per month; a never failing stream of water runs nearly central through this tract, part near railroad well suited for building lots or manufactories, or the whole a good stock farm.

6th—80 acres on the West side of N. C. R. R., one and one-fourth miles from the city. This tract lies near on a grade with railroad, and is well suited for truck farming, manufacturing sites, fair grounds. There is on this tract about ten acres wood land.

7th—9 building lots, 50x200 feet, on Fisher and Bank streets, in the great South Ward of Salisbury, adjoining the lots of James Lineberry, D A Atwell and others.

8th—26 acres of land on the Gold Hill or Stokes Ferry Road, East side, and on both sides of what is known as the Town Creek, just one mile from centre of town; about 15 acres of excellent meadow.

9th—182 acres. A very fine farm about three miles from Salisbury on the W N C R R., with 2 farm houses and other buildings; one good well of water. This tract has about 60 acres of the best of bottom land, most of which is in cultivation and meadow; the upland is fine tobacco and cotton land.

10th—100 acres on the Bringle's Ferry road, 14 miles from Salisbury, 3 from Gold Hill. All wood land.

GOLD MINE

11th—50 acres Placer gold mine tract, about 7 miles from Salisbury. This is valuable property. There are at least 10 acres on the place that will show gold to every shovel of surface dirt. There is also a vein of 12 or 15 inches showing gold. This property paid a Mr Goodman about ten thousand dollars some years ago by washing the surface not more than 150 feet square to a depth of 12 inches. With proper development I have no doubt but that it would be a fine paying property.

12th—1589 Acres. I have also a one-half interest in fine properties in the above number of acres in Rowan and Moore counties, having good veins of gold, silver, copper, iron, soapstone, roofing slate, also a large vein of fine Jasper stone.

All of the above named properties are positively for sale on reasonable and easy terms. All persons who desire to invest in or purchase will please give me a call before buying.

As reference in regard to the above, see Proprietors NORTH CAROLINA HERALD, J. S. McCubbins, St. Luke Blackmer, Esq. Davis & Wiley, Bankers, and M L Holmes of Salisbury, N. C. and S E Linton, Esq. of Charlotte.

SAL-MUSCATELLE

IN AMERICA

WITHOUT THE EXPENSE OF AN EUROPEAN JOURNEY!

The crystallized salts, as obtained in a pure state from grapes and choice fruit, in a palatable, simple form, are now presented to the public and are the greatest solvent of impure blood, corrector of the liver and regulator of the bowels—the natural promoter of
