BRIEFS.

Col. Corkhill, a gallant soldier during the war, afterwards editor, lawyer and United States district attorney for the district of Washington, who tried Giteau, died suddenly at Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

During a procession of Norwegians in Chicago, a United States flag carried by them was shot upon and riddled by anarchists. It is a wonder that the Northern republican papers have not attributed the shooting to ex-rebels.

The United States pay more pensions to soldiers than all the other countries of the world combined. This is a serious fact, deserving the attention of all honest men. Pensions ought to be paid, but to prostitute the pension business into a kind of a test machine of loyalty or disloyalty, is un-American, un-Democratic and demoralizing.

Solicitor General Goode's nomination has been rejected by the Senate. It seems that the main cause of the rejection was the promise made by Goode to some of his republican employees that he would retain them, if they would use their influence with their Senators to confirm him. If that is true, Goode ought to have been rejected. A bargain of that kind is dishonest.

Hon. S. S. Cox will resign his position as Minister to Turkey and allow his New York constituency to elect him to his old place in Congress. By the resignation of Mr. Cox as member of Congress, the democratic party lost one of its most useful and experienced members; his return to Washington will be hailed with delight by all lovers of an honest and good government.

Paul Hamilton Hayne dead! So the mournful news was flashed over this continent. The beloved poet of the South has gone to his heavenly Arcadia. Although a typical Southerner, his rare genius has made him a place in the literary world which is excelled by only a few. Born in Charleston, S. C. in 1831 he published poems as early as 1855. In 1859 appeared his "Avalon; a Legend of the Island of Cos."

Gladstone is defeated. Irish Home Rule will have to wait a little, unless something unexpected turns up. No party has an absolute majority, so that it is impossible to foresee what English Parliament will do. It may be that some coalitions be effected, by which Home Rulers or its enemies may gain an advantage and a victory either way. Whatever may be done in the Parliament now elected, Home Rule will come; a just cause is always the people's cause, and it will finally be victorious.

The question as to whether Davie or Rowan is entitled to the State Senator was forever settled in 1882 at the convention at Foard's Mill, when Hon. J. S. Henderson offered a resolution to the effect that each county should be entitled to one term alternately, Rowan to begin in 1882. This resolution was unanimously adopted and all further strife about it is thereby put aside. While Rowan county has a larger voting population and casts all the democratic majorities of the two counties, a fairer division could not well be devised. Rowan county is entitled to the Senator this year.

Out of the sixty-seven police officers wounded at the anarchist riot in Chicago a few weeks ago, seven have died, four are in a critical condition, sixteen are unable to leave their beds, twenty-two slowly recovering and eighteen have reported for duty. Officer Shannon sustained eighteen distinct wounds from fragments of the bomb, but none of them were serious. Two of the officers still alive have suffered amputation of a leg. The fact that the wounds inflicted by fragments of the bomb have been very slow in healing has inspired the belief that the shell was poisonous.

The veto power is being systematically and persistently exercised with a view to Southern popularity. Bills for public buildings at Zanesville, O., and Sioux City, Ia., are vetoed because they are in Republican States, but it appears that the Southern bills are passed and signed, because they are in Southern States, for instance, Asheville, N. C.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Is the writer of above sincere in what he says? We hope he is, for we would rather accuse a man of ignorance than of malicious lying. We wonder whether the Chicago Inter-Ocean will also editorially comment upon the fact that it was mistaken in regard to Asheville, and that the President vetoed the Asheville public building bill for materially the same reasons that he vetoed the Zanesville, O., and Sioux City bills. The late Col. Ike Young, the Republican collector of the 4th district of N. C., gave the true keynote to Republican political methods: "Lie like hell and then stick to it."

Saturday July 10th, President Cleveland vetoed the bill providing for a public building at Asheville. Receiving the telegraphic news of the veto, Nat Atkinson, the once cast iron reform legislator, telegraphed the following to the President: "Having sent you several invitations to come to Buncombe county, believing you to be a wise and a just man, and having found out that you are neither, all invitations are withdrawn." We hope the President will survive this.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Wilkes county endorses Cowles for Congress.

Richmond county instructs for James T. Legrand for Congress.

The vote of Cabarrus county at the primaries last week for Solicitor, stands 6 townships for Long and 5 for Mauney, and one township not instructed.

The Primaries in Concord township were held last Saturday. Sid. Alexander was recommended for Congress, Montgomery for Judge, and B F Long, of Iredell, for Solicitor.

To the Editors of the Herald:

I notice in the last issue of the Herald that the Hon. F. B. Shober and Theo. F. Kluttz are spoken of for the Senate. If I have not been misinformed with reference to the matter, it is Davie's term. Though I was too young to be taking much interest in politics, yet I remember having heard some one who was present at the convention in 1880, which was held at Foard's Mill, say that Rowan proposed to Davie if she would support Mr. Kluttz that Davie could have the next two terms, and then after that, Rowan one term and Davie one. I was informed that this was reduced to writing, and that the Hon. J. S. Henderson has the agreement. Of course, if this is not the case, and it is Rowan's term, Davie has nothing to say, and will support most cheerfully Rowan's nominee. Please publish this for the information of your people. We would be glad to hear from Mr. Henderson or some other of the Rowan delegation who was present at the convention of 1880. We want the matter settled, for Davie wishes to hold her convention after awhile, and if it is our term, of course we want to nominate a Davie man, and I, as Chairman of the Executive Committee, will call upon the townships to send delegates to the county convention, and if Davie has to nominate a Senator, we will want the sentiments of the people as to who that man shall be.

E. H. MORRIS, Ch'm Dem. Ex. Com. for Davie. Mocksville, N. C., July 10, 1886.

Through the kindness of Mr. J. J. Bruner we are enabled to copy the following from the report of the Senatorial Convention held at Foard's Mill on September 2nd, 1882, as printed in the Watchman of Sept. 7th:

"Resolved, That Davie County shall be entitled to the Senator in the year 1884, and that thereafter each county shall be entitled to the Senator alternately."

This resolution was passed unanimously. So Rowan is entitled to the Senator in 1886, Davie in 1888, Rowan in 1890, and so forth.

Jeremiah Long, of Fairfax Court House, Va., wrote recently to J. T. Hill, of Alexandria, calling his attention to the fact that in 1861, while Confederate troops were at Fairfax Court House, he (Long) mended two canteens and a candlestick for him (Hill). The bill, sixty cents, had never been paid, hence Mr. Long's letter. He said that, though interest was due on the amount, he would be satisfied with the sixty cents. Mr. Hill sent Mr. Long the sixty cents.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Carolina will meet at Charlotte, July 28-29, 1886.

DEAR SISTERS:

We have had a year of successful work. The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. It is fitting we should assemble in State Convention with thanksgiving to the All-wise Father for the unprecedented favors we have received in answer to our prayers, and for victory over our enemy. The times are propitious and we should meet to recount our successes and to plan for more earnest work in faith and hope. We therefore call the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Carolina to assemble in Fourth Annual Convention at Charlotte on the 28th and 29th of July, 1886.

It is hoped every Union will send its full delegation. Our place of meeting is delightful, and noted for the hospitality of its inhabitants. Our National Superintendent, Mrs. Sallie F. Chapin, will be present and devote her lovely skill and graces to make our Convention a success. We hope to have other speakers present also.

MEMBERSHIP.

The annual meeting shall be composed of the Executive Board, one delegate from each District, one delegate for each Auxiliary Local Union and one delegate for every twenty members thereof. Entertainment will be furnished to delegates. Reduced fare on railroads will be secured for delegates and visitors. Visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Names of delegates should be forwarded early to Mrs Dr Gibbon, President, W. C. T. U. Charlotte.

Yours for God and Home and Native Land, MARY C. WOODS, Pres't.

E. D. HUNDLEY, Cor. Sec.

N. B.—Delegates will please bring copies of minutes of the third convention.

STATE NEWS.

The Waynesville News comes out as Daily News for the summer season.

The name of Warm Springs P. O. has been changed to Hot Springs P. O.

Rev. J. T. Bagwell, of Winston, arrived in the city yesterday. He is selling cigars for a Winston firm.—[Charlotte Observer.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 12.—Today Judge Phillips sentenced Jas. Smith and Wm. Gooch to be hanged September 11th. They were convicted last June of having murdered John Cheatham, a merchant of this city.

From the Webster Herald we learn of the marriage of Dr W F Tompkins, late of Potcha Springs, Cal., to Miss Anna, second daughter of Capt F A Luck, late of Danville, Va. The groom is an esteemed and former roommate of the editor of this paper, and the sweet disposition of the happy couple has a pleasant place in our memory. May the richest of life's blessings attend them.—[Wilmington Index.]

Horrible Death.

On last Monday Mr. Clinton Dobson, who is hard of hearing, left town a-foot to go home, near Glen Alpine Station. He got on the railroad track at Captain Tate's, three miles from town and had walked about one-fourth of a mile when the evening train going West came up behind him. The engineer blew long and loud, but Mr. Dobson, failing to hear, made no effort to get off. The train ran upon him and threw him about 20 feet from the track, killing him instantly. His body was taken off the train and carried to Glen Alpine, Station, near where he lives.

Many of the citizens are reflecting upon the engineer and say that he ought to be held responsible for the death of this man. In the absence of full particulars we withhold any comment.

Since the above was set in type a coroner's inquest was held and a verdict rendered that "Clinton Dobson came to his death from criminal negligence on the part of engineer Moore." Upon the affidavit of Coroner Landon, Esq. John Tull issued a warrant for Moore, who came up from Salisbury yesterday evening and surrendered to Sheriff Lackey. Hon. Charles Price was employed for the defence.

On a hearing before Esq. John Tull the charges were not sustained and Moore was discharged.—[Morganton Star.]

IT IS NOW TIME TO SECURE BARGAINS!

GOOD TIME TO COME!

FOR SEVERAL YEARS PAST I HAVE been greatly overworked, but my business being the largest in our town and paying nicely, I was very much stimulated thereby, and managed to run all the various branches without letting any "iron burn," but I now find that my TOBACCO BUSINESS is increasing very rapidly, and the Factory calls for every moment of my time.

Therefore, notwithstanding that my mercantile business has been, and is now paying well, I have decided in justice to myself, family and friends, to just as fast as prudence will allow. This is no "dodge" or trade "catch" but is a positive

Close Out My Entire Stock of GOODS

CLOSING OUT,

And to do that best, I shall from this day put all goods very low—many at COST, and quite a lot

BELOW COST.

Shall sell for CASH or on good satisfactory NOTES, or BARTER, when it suits.

I prefer to close the whole Stock in a Lump, and will make very low figures and good easy terms to any good party wishing to merchandise. And as my trade is the largest and best in our town, and as the mercantile business is not over done here and as Salisbury is improving very fast, it does seem that this is a rare chance to step right into a good thing. Will be glad to communicate with parties who desire to take such a step. I refer to First National Bank of this place.

In the meantime shall push off all goods as fast as I can. Will sell best Calicoes at 6 cts; Full Standard Calicoes at 5 cts; Lower grades at 4 1/2. Dress Lawns 4 1/2, sold heretofore at 7. Fruit of the Loom Domestic at 8 cents; Barkers 7 cents; Wamsutta 10 cents; Pride of the West 12 cents; Plaids 7 cents; Yarns 85 cents; Coats' Thread 52 1/2 cents per doz. Good Coffee, 10 cts. per lb; light brown Sugar, 6 cents; Granulated 7 1/2. Salt in brown Sacks 67 cents; in seamless sacks 77 cents.

WHOLE STOCK OF CLOTHING

AT AND BELOW COST.

LARGE PROPORTION OF SHOES AND HATS AT COST.

—ALSO—

STOCK OF SILKS, DRESS GOODS, LACES, AND THOUS-

ANDS OF OTHER THINGS IN THE SAME WAY.

J. D. GASKILL.
