VOLUME II. A year in the Republican... existence. It would not be...

The President and wife will visit the Virginia Agricultural fair... 100 to 200 mechanics are liable to find work at Charleston...

THE BUSINESS OF LAW. Whether you have a case... POLITICAL DIPTHOUS. The Republicans in Ohio have...

Noting stands between Cleveland and the people... The supreme assembly of the Knights of Labor met last Monday...

It is the fact that the republicans nominated five millionaires as candidates for gubernatorial honors...

Tennessee plebiscite: All say that the boys and boys they paid to give notices with other children and at the end of the game Rob could manage to have all the medals in his pocket...

Mr. Moody is candidate for re-election as governor of Kansas. In a speech he lately delivered at Topeka, Kansas, he says...

Their course under Anthony was organized at Topeka, Kansas, Sept. 27. The members were A. B. Andrews, T. C. Owen, H. N. Hood, S. H. Ward, E. R. Ransom, H. H. Taylor, W. L. Anderson, A. B. Andrews, J. S. McLaughlin, P. F. Dineen, S. C. Cary and J. S. McLaughlin.

Provisional parties. With one exception all of the other republicans had no adherents within the last few years... Does the farmer get any advantage from the tariff?

It is a year in the Republican existence. It would not be as a weakling, but as a full-fledged soldier fighting his way bravely to victory.

Third Creek Items. The farmers are picking cotton and sowing wheat. Allison & Bros. have built a new cotton gin.

Mr. F. F. Eaton is building a fish pond. He is going in for carp and catfish.

Mr. A. L. Izlerly has been very sick with shingles, but is now convalescing.

Mr. L. W. Johnson and wife have moved back to the Barringer Gold Valley, but we learn that they will remain here but a short while.

South shows... for the world's good... higher power that...
