Secretary Lamar is to be married in November.

Prof. Cleveland's good health is a matter of congratulation.

Mrs. Langtry is to have a new theatre in London.

Gen. John M. Corse was last week appointed Postmaster of Boston. Mr. Corse was a Democrat and his appointment gave great satisfaction.

The public reception of Engel, the convicted Anarchist murderer, that he had become a socialist and a murderer after reading Henry George's speeches is not help the anti-Henry George candidate for mayor of New York.

Senator Pike of New Hampshire, died suddenly last Friday at the Mountain Franklin Falls, N. H., of heart disease. Acting Governor and Legislature are republican, a remarkable thing in politics, if faith will save us.

The grand Duke Chicago anarchists trial has now begun before Judge Gary. The case is conducted by Judge Grinnell. Six of them will hang and the rest get 15 years in the penitentiary. Whether any further effects will be made to save them remains to be seen.

It is to the best interest of the farmer to abolish the Homestead Law.

It is of vital importance to the mechanic and laboring man to abolish the Homestead Law.

It is a disgrace to the fair name of North Carolina to have the Homestead law, which shields the rogue, upon the Statute Book.

Honesty among bank keepers and bank cashiers seems to be a rare thing. Joseph Carter, for over [illegible] the talented town [illegible] Mass., [illegible] We learned only [illegible] the failure of Louis H. Cox & Co., of Baltimore, was due to the embezzlement of some $50,000 by their book-keeper, a Mr Murray. When the failure took place the real state of affairs [illegible] Murray. Where the [illegible]
