WE CAN MATT HOLE BAPPY.

Though we may not change the cottage For the mansion tall and grand, Or change a little grass-plot For a boundless stretch of land; Yet there's something brighter, pearer Than the wealth we'd thus command

Though we have no means to purchase Costly pictures rich and rare; Though we have no silken hangings, For the walls so cold and bare-We can bang them o'er with garlands, For the flowers bloom everywhere.

We can always make home cheerful, If the right course we begin; We can make the inmates happy And their truest blessings win; It will make the small room brighter, If we let the sunshine in.

When we gather 'round the fireside When the evening hours are long, We can blend our hearts and voices In a happy, social song; We can guide some erring brother, Lead him from the path of wrong.

We may fill our nome with music, And with sunshine brimming o'er, If against all dark intruders We will firmly shut the door-Yet shold avil shadows enter. We must love each other more,

There are treasures for the lowly, Which the grandest fail to find; There's a chain of sweet affection Binding friends of kindred mind; We may resp the choicest blessings, From the poorest lot assigned.
