SHE COULD DRIVE.

Pat Hilly was taking a ride on a beautiful summer's morning. On a beautiful summer's morning. On a beautiful summer's morning. On a beautiful summer's morning.

And she looked so shy and sweet. Her eyes so blue and true. No girl half so pretty and sweet. No girl half so pretty and sweet.

What Shall I Teach Her? At a recent social gathering, says the Charleston (S. C.) Dispatch, some one proposed the question: "What shall I teach my daughter?" The following replies were handed in:

Teach her that 100 cents make a dollar. Teach her to arrange the parlor and library. Teach her to say "No," and mean it, or "Yes," and stick to it.

Teach her how to wear a calico dress, and to wear it like a queen. Teach her how to sew on buttons, darn stockings and mend gloves.

Teach her to dress for health and comfort as well as for appearance. Teach her to cultivate flowers and to keep the kitchen garden.

Teach her to make the nicest room in the house. Teach her to have nothing to do with intemperance and dissipated young men.

Teach her that tight lacing hurts comedy as well as mischief to health. Teach her to regard the morals and habits, and not the money, in selecting her associates.

Teach her to observe the old rule: "A place for everything and everything in its place." Teach her that music, drawing and painting are real accomplishments in the home, and are not to be neglected if there be time and money for their use.

Teach her the important truth: "That the more she loves within her, the more she will get away from the parlor." Teach her that a good, steady, cheerful, going machine, stands for a better reputation than a fine, but unreliable, one.

Teach her to cultivate every opportunity for reading, and to select such books as will give her the most useful and practical information in order to make the best progress in what she will do for a living and what she will do for a living.

German Girl's. There is less difficulty in German girls of the middle class, and in English girls of the same class in England, than in the American girls. German girls, at a tender age, take their share in household work. This is not present in our girls, and it is a great loss to them. After a diligent study of the subject, after a diligent study of the subject, after a diligent study of the subject.

A Queer Husband. A young man who marries in that class knows that he may reasonably expect his bride to be a good housewife. It is in the upper middle class, for instance, a housewife who is often kept in the secret of the shop. I have wondered at the close attention to household details shown by women who might have expected to be spared such exertions. But I was assured they preferred to be thus occupied, partly in order to save their children. It seemed to me that the master and mistress in such shops were on friendly terms with their assistants, who were permitted to rest at intervals during the day in a room behind the shop.

Compelled to Make a Change. Beggar—Please help the blind—please help the blind. Why, the last time I saw you, you had a crippled leg, which you claimed you got at the battle of Gettysburg.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Swellings, Feverish Sores, Tetter, Itch, and all other eruptions, and all other eruptions, and all other eruptions.

How to Help the Poor.

It is said to have to acknowledge that the majority of the schemes for bettering the condition of the working millions are worse than useless. They sometimes do actual harm. There is a way, however, that money can be spent advantageously for the benefit of the laborer.

Rheumatism. After being troubled with it for years, in the fall of 1891 I was afflicted with it. I had tried every remedy, but I had not been cured by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

A Marriage Lottery. The Chicago marriage lottery, in its matrimonial scheme, has been introduced into Texas. Every purchaser of a ticket is supposed to be an aspirant to matrimony.

Barrows in Ireland. The daily routine of the people in the north of Ireland consists of "upland work," made with saffers, and a little black tea. But for the most part, the people are content with their simple life, and do not care for the luxuries of the south.

Worse Than Careless. Galveston, Tex., is now infested with mosquitoes, which are almost as bad as the yellow fever, and which are causing the sufferer to die in a few days. The mosquitoes are worse than the yellow fever, and which are causing the sufferer to die in a few days.

A Creaking Hinge

Is dry and turns hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges, of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pain.

A Man of Grief!

LIKE LAZARUS!
HIS RELIEF AND JOY!

The Doctor says: "When Mr. James Edwards of Senoia, Ga., began to take 'Globe's' Pleasant Blood Purifier, I saw him. He was covered, body and extremities, with a characteristic syphilitic eruption that seemed to have baffled all treatment. I saw him the second time in about ten days, when he was so changed in appearance by having the scales removed and the eruptions healed, that I hardly knew him, and in a remarkably short time he was relieved of all appearance of his disease."
