ELECTIONS YESTERDAY.

VIRGINIA
elects a majority of Democrats to the legislature, defeating Mahone. The majority is not very large but safe. Richmond is reclaimed by the democrats by 646 votes.

RHODE ISLAND
W. O. Arnold elected to Congress; this places Little Rhode again into the republican column.

NEW YORK CITY
The democratic State ticket elected by majorities ranging from 10,000 to 15,000.

NEW YORK
The democrats make a clean sweep and elect nearly every one of their candidates. Fellow's majority over McGill 20,000.

BUFFALO, N. Y.
elects a republican mayor. In Brooklyn the democrats are victorious, electing Chapin mayor by 5,000. Belden, rep., elected to Congress in the Syracuse district.

MASSACHUSETTS
The election is as yet doubtful, both parties claiming the victory. Indications point to the election of Ames, rep., by a greatly reduced majority.

MARYLAND
The democratic majorities are greatly increased, the whole democratic State ticket elected.

OHIO
The republicans gain largely and achieve a signal victory. Foraker and the whole republican State ticket elected by largely increased majorities.

GOVERNOR GORDON'S VISIT TO OHIO will teach the country the difference between Republican black-guardism and Southern patriotism.

MURAT HALSTED SAYS that if a Democratic President would be elected in 1888, all war legislation would be wiped out, confederates would be pensioned, and all slaves be paid for.

JACKSON'S SPEECH AT MACON, GA., has had the republican comments thereon. It is amusing literature. "Traitorous utterances of a Southern appointee of Cleveland."

AN HONEST CONFESION. The Greensboro North State says: "Baltimore elected Labadie, Democrat, mayor, by an increased majority. It was thought that the coalition of Republicans and reform Democrats would win."

JENNY LIND DEAD. Everyone knows Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale. Born at Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 6, 1821, she evinced a love for music in her early years.

China Grove Items. A Sunday School convention was held at Mt. Zion Church on last Saturday. We heard several good speeches. Rev. Trexler, of Concord, N. C., delivered an elegant lecture to the Sunday-school; his subject was, Benevolent elements of Sunday-schools.

Death and Destruction to Ducks. The friends of Alex. Halyburton and J. W. C. Deake, the latter once a mail agent from Salisbury to Asheville, will be delighted to read the following, which we clip from the Asheville Citizen:

A Family Blessing. Simmons Liver Regulator, the favorite home remedy, is entirely vegetable, and by the purest and best family medicine that is compounded. No error to be feared in administering; no injury from exposure after taking; no loss of time. It is the best preventive medicine and safe to take no matter what the sickness may prove to be, and in any ordinary disease will effect a speedy cure. Demand the Genuine, having the Z-stamp on wrapper.

STATE NEWS.

Gov. Fitz Hugh Lee visited the Weidon Fair. The Bingham Military School has 110 scholars.

Chestnuts are selling in Mitchell county at 50 cents per bushel. The rice crop of this State will be about 30,000 barrels this year.

Washington News: Our policemen run in nine D. D's on Saturday. Miss Mary Jones Beall, of Lenoir will teach an art school at Wilmington, N. C.

Statesville has shipped half a million pounds of dried blackberries this year. Oxford has 25 large leaf tobacco factories and one smoking and one plug tobacco factory.

Great interest is felt in Raleigh in the coming of Rev. R. G. Pearson, the earnest evangelist. Morgan, Wright & Cline, of Shelby, have commenced the erection of a new cotton factory.

The Reidsville Rifles is the name of a new military company organized in Reidsville last week. The Asheville daily Advance has made an assignment. It will hereafter be run as a republican paper by the creditors.

Smith Nixon, the tender on Denver Ferry, Catawba, Co., while drunk tried to ferry across the river, fell in and was drowned. Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt, widow of the late millionaire, has secured rooms at Battery Park Hotel, Asheville, and will spend several months there.

Tarboro opened up a $60,000 hotel last Friday with an elegant banquet and reception. The Winston Italian band furnished the music. Raleigh Correspondent: Mormon elders have again appeared in the extreme western counties, near the Tennessee line. They are hard at work making converts.

The re-union of Confederate Veterans at Lenoir was attended by 5,000 persons. Some 500 Veterans were in line. Addresses were made by Senator Ransom and others, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by those who participated.

The Smithfield Herald says that an old man, aged sixty, obtained license to marry a lady aged fifty, and asked the register of deeds to keep "maum" for fear the old folks at home might kick up a fuss. Old folks! do tell!

The steam plug tobacco factory of Sampson, Richardson & Co., at Reidsville, was burned Monday morning. Over one hundred thousand pounds of manufactured tobacco was consumed and 20,000 pounds of leaf. Loss estimated at $70,000; insurance on factory and stock $64,800. The packing house of E. M. Reid was also burnt, loss $1,500.

WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 28.—In the Superior Court to-day Judge Gilmer sentenced W. S. Hay to imprisonment in the county jail for twelve months for shooting W. A. Whitaker last May, and sentenced W. A. Whitaker to pay a fine of one thousand dollars for assaulting Hay with a cane a few weeks previous to the shooting.

The Cabarrus county Superior court is in session at Concord this week, Judge Clarke presiding. One of the most interesting cases tried was the scrimmage that occurred sometime since between Col. Paul B. Means and Mr. John B. Sherrill, editor of the Concord Times, upon the occasion when Col. Means invaded Mr. Sherrill's office with a cowhide, and attempted to whip the editor. Judge Clark fined Colonel Means $100 and costs. Geo. W. Patterson, who followed Col. Means to the office, was fined $25 and costs Ephraim Means, colored, who was also interested in the business, was let off with the costs.

Yesterday morning Messrs John Langley, Alex. Halyburton, and J. W. C. Deake, left this city and walked, about ten miles up the river to surprise and capture a full swarm of ducks they had been informed made a regular habit at that locality. They reached the place about daylight, and took position with all the precision of outposts of an army. Soon they were gratified by the appearance of a whole army of the enemy, quietly depositing themselves upon the bosom of the beautiful waters of the French Broad. No sooner had they "disappeared" in range of the masked batteries on shore than every gun was turned loose, with terrible effect. This was the fun. Now for business. No sooner had the gunners plunged into the river to gather in the game than a neighboring farmer appeared on the banks of the Racing River, with a double barreled gun in hand, and convinced them that they had killed about a dozen of his domestic fowls. "It is needless to stretch this story further," the farmer aforesaid "persuaded" the party to pay for those ducks, and then—he quietly carried them home.
