A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition. — Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills.

Since that time I have never been without them, and remove the horrible dis-assat digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine. — Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders.

I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headaches, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health. —

Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible dispression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills, in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction. — Otto Montgomery, Oskosh, Wis.

PROHIBITION ITEMS.

The following is the heading of the leading article in the Voice on the Atlanta election, and will show what the Pros think of that election:

Another prohibition fight lost by the negro vote—The forces of ignorance prevail in Atlanta—Turning of the tide—The Harangues of a miserable mountebank Seal the fate of the city—Other influences—The man who fought the Prohibition battle now talk of compromising on restrictive measures—What Grady says.

Among the things which "Grady says" the following is very much to the point:

"Prohibition was not beaten" on its merits. The law was too extreme, it being impossible to get even medicinal or sacramental wine without violating it. Its administration has been often unwise. The discharge of every anti-Prohibition policeman in a batch, the arrest and searching of two popular young gentlemen on the streets, and similar instances of unnecessary aggression and espionage gave point to the cry of personal liberty."

The Voice makes Stanford's wealth a reproach to him by spelling his name as follows:

"Senator Leland Stanford—The chief monopolist, wine-maker and saloon owner of California."

Here is the sort of thing that helps Prohibition more than any thing else:

SAVANNAH, Mo., Nov. 25.—Dr.
John A. Brooks, Missouri's Prohibition leader, was hurried in effigy at Hermon last week for making a speech there in the Local Option campaign.

And this letter sent to a Methodist pastor:

"RIPLEY, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1887.
DEAR SIR:—You are warned not to preach any thing against whiskey selling and about Hell in your sermons, if you do, your concited head will come off. We don't believe in hell nor do we want you to talk about it in your preaching in this town, and in our church. Let Whiskey Selling and Hell alone and we will stand by you. Be warned in time or you will hear from us again in another way."
—X. Y. Z.

The Democratic Party has a Stop to Land Grabbing.

An article in the New York Herald with the above caption says:

"The crassest thing that can be said of the Republican party is that for years it has allowed the people's property to be stolen in the most shameful fashion. Foreigners, at this moment, own a tract in this country equal to between two and three times the whole extent of Ireland. This was accomplished without the regime of Republicanism."

The Democrats in the late Congress passed a law prohibiting any alien from becoming owner of any of the public lands.

The railroad corporations have been stealing lands and keeping them from the public. The forthcoming report of Secretary Lamar will show that the Interior Department has recovered 20,000,000 acres of land wrongfully claimed and determined from the public. This is more land than there is in the entire State of South Carolina.

The Tariff.

Mr. Mills, of Texas, who will, it is said, be Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, has prepared a tariff bill which leaves duties on liquors where they are, and divides all other articles into five classes which are to pay 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent., or to be on the free list. The bill lowers the tax on most articles considerably. In our opinion such a bill cannot pass.
The friends of every article affected will fight against the bill. If he will leave all out but the parts in which he says that "manufacturers of wool, woolen cloths, including blankets, knit goods, ready-made clothing, and carpets of all kinds, shall pay 30 per cent., and unman-ufactured wool shall be on the free list," in our judgment it will pass and give great satisfaction.

Money's Power.

Omaha World.
"It's one thousand dollars right in your pocket," whispered defendant's lawyer to the juror, "if you can bring about a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree." Such proved to be the verdict, and the lawyer thanked the juror warmly as he paid him the money. "Yes," said the juror, "it was tough work, but I got there after awhile. All the rest went for acquittal."

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.

Which Shows the Fertile Imaginations of a Correspondent.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 26.—An extraordinary occurrence is reported from Summerton, Clarendon county. A colored girl, seventeen years of age, who had been ill several days, died last Wednesday.
The body was properly prepared and dressed for burial, and placed in a coffin, the darkies of the neighborhood, holding their customary noisy "wake" over the corpse all through Wednesday night. The funeral services were held in the colored church Thursday afternoon, and the body was to be interred in a graveyard about two miles away.
When the cortege had reached a point within 500 yards of the cemetery, the pall bearers were startled by a crying noise somewhat resembling the mewling of a cat, apparently emanating from the coffin. The procession was halted, and after considerable discussion it was resolved that the coffin should be opened. Upon opening the lid it was found, to the great consternation of the funeral party, that the woman was alive but unconscious, and that a new born babe shared with her the narrow bed. Several of the pall bearers and mourners were terror stricken and fled.

Those who remained, however, ministered to the wants of the dead woman and her infant, and in a short time both were carried to a neighboring house where they received kindly and necessary attention. At last accounts the mother was doing well, there being every indication of her complete recovery, whilst the infant is hearty and robust and is thriving as well as any pickaninny born under ordinary conditions and circumstances.

Murder at Lexington, Va.

A special from Lexington, Va., says that Prof. W. J. Wey, a member of the Board of the Virginia Military Institute, was found on the afternoon of the 27th in a sink-hole on the outskirts of the city, in a dying condition, and before medical assistance could be procured he was dead. His skull had been crushed in with a rock and his face was so badly mutilated that he was only identified by his military uniform. Two colored women have been arrested on suspicion, and there is strong evidence against one of them, as a breastpin found near the murdered man has been identified as belonging to her, and she was seen with him the night before.
We had been drinking for some time past.

The Hawk and the Doves.

Chicago Tribune.
Once upon a time a Hungry Hawk went among some Doves on a Foraging Expedition. He did not ask them to make him their King, for he was a Wise old Hawk with a Bald Head and had read Esop and Joseph Halliuton, besides several other authors. He only asked that he might organize an Anti-Poverty Society. The Doves listened en-glerly. They were much moved by his Arguments, and they joined his Society in Great Numbers. He is now a Large Fat Hawk and the Doves are getting leaner Every Day.

DRUMMER'S TAX.

In the United States Circuit Court at Raleigh both Judge Bond and Judge Seymour were of opinion that the State law imposing a tax on drummers is unconstitutional.
The State has appealed, and the case goes to the Supreme Court at Washington.

State Auditor Roberts has made public the abstracts of real estate and personal property in the State as listed this year for taxation.
The increase in total value over last year is stated to be seven and a half millions of dollars. The greatest increase in any county is in Buncombe, $1,000,000 in the county and $600,000 in the town of Asheville. In Wake county the gain is 320,000 and in Durham $600,000. In some few counties there is a decrease. In Mecklenburg the decrease is $300,000 and in New Hanover $100,000.

When the county Board of Assessors met in Buncombe county they cut down the Asheville Assessments 25 per cent. If it had not been for this the increase in value in Asheville would have been $1,600,- 000. And it has all been done by energy, thrift and co-operation.

The Rev. H. O. Pentecost has been advocating from his pulpit George's doctrine, and finally denounced the execution of the Anarchists. A row having been raised about this, a vote was taken in the Belleville Congregational Church, to see if he should be retained as pastor. He was retained by 129 votes to 84.

How the Twelve Died.

St. Matthew is supposed to have suffered martyrdom, or was slain with the sword at the City of Ethiopia, in Egypt.

St. Luke was hanged upon an olive tree in Greece.

St. John was put into a caldron of boiling oil at Rome and escaped death. He afterwards died a natural death at Ephesus, in Asia.

St. James the Great was beheaded at Jerusalem.

St. James the Less was thrown from a pinnacle or a wing of the temple, and then beaten to death with a fuller's club.

St. Philip was hanged up against a pillar at Hierapolis, a city of Phrygia.

St. Bartholomew was flayed alive by the command of a barbarous king.

St. Andrew was bound to a cross, whence he preached unto the people until he expired.

St. Thomas was run through the body with a lance, at Coromandel, in the East Indies.

St. John was shot to death with arrows.

St. Simeon Zealot was crucified in Persia.

St. Matthias was first stoned and then beheaded.

St. Barnabas was stoned to death at Salamis.

St. Paul was beheaded at Rome by the tyrant Nero.—Evangelist.

Onions as a Cure for Typhoid Fever.

Mr. John R. Cox, a citizen of Baltimore, publishes the following communication: "Sometime since a gentleman informed me that he knew of several persons who had been cured of typhoid fever by the application of mashed raw onions to the feet. Two patients were so ill that they were not expected to live over a few hours. Six large onions were pounded to pulp and applied to the feet of the patients.
They were relieved in a short time and got well. The second case was a few weeks later and the result equally satisfactory. The first opportunity I had I tried it on a colored boy during one of my visits to the house of reformation for colored children. He was very ill with typhoid fever. I named the matter to Gen. Horn, who immediately ordered the application. In a few hours he was asleep, rested well and recovered."

The Mexican policeman puts in twelve hours of hard work every day for the average wages of $6 a month. In addition to his other duties, he is obliged to carry a long ladder, which he uses in cleaning, filling, lighting and afterwards extinguishing all the street lamps on his beat.

A San Francisco Justice of the Peace formulated an oath for a Chinese witness like the following:
"I swear by the Chinese gods, the foreigners' god, the God of heaven and earth, that if I am a liar in this case my head will be cut off the same as this chicken's head is cut off, and that I will be drowned in the ocean and never get back to China," and while repeating the oath the Chinaman held a cleaver in his hand, with which he severed a chicken's head from the body when he had finished the words.

It is only about 256 years ago that the first Thanksgiving Day was observed in this country. Old Massasoit and his 90 braves sat down to dinner with the long-faced Puritans.
The Indians brought deer from the woods, and the palefaces supplied fish, clams and corn. Ten years later, when the last batch of bread in the colony was in Governor Bradford's oven and starvation was staring our New England ancestors in the face, a good ship from Ireland appeared with provisions, and the day appointed for fasting was changed into a day of thank-giving.

There are some pretty love charms in Capri. To win a girl's heart the lover must steal a hair from her head and tie it to one of his own.
So long as the knot holds firm love 's returned. This resembles the charm used on the sacred hill of Monte Vergine, near Naples. There betrothed pilgrims fasten broom twigs together with a strip of rag,

NOVEMBER 26th.—Stephen Bailey, arrested for murdering his wife, cut his own throat when arrested, and died in Berkeley county jail in South Carolina, yesterday. Before his death he confessed that he had murdered three wives.

The mercury fell to 39 degrees below zero at Waterloo, Iowa, last Monday.

Don't go West, young man.
Stay at home and help to build up the South. It needs the labor of your hand and brain.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Henry George's paper, the Standard, today hints that the George party will have no presidential ticket in the field next year, but will make a struggle to elect some Congressmen in the hope of securing a balance of power in the House by the aid of those interested in tax reforms.

John Sherman said, in a speech in the Senate a few years ago, that "anything is fair to defeat the Democrats." And now the old hypocrite is mouthing about wanting to see fair elections in the South! He would, if he could, steal every Southern electoral vote in 1888, just as he did that of Louisiana in 1876.

The commissioner of labor statistics for North Carolina says that there are 80 cotton factories in the State representing invested capital to the amount of $4,000. The total number of spindles is 200,- 000, and they consume annually 30,000,000 pounds of cotton. The aggregate of the cotton crop of our State is about 400,000 bales. So it appears that one-fifth of our cotton crop is demanded by our own factories.

At the close of the last fiscal year there 406,007 pensioners on the pension roll of the government.
During the first four months of the present fiscal year, the increase of pensioners has been 10,641, being the largest increase for a like period for many years. The increase is 6,873 more than during the like four months of last year. It certainly doesn't look as if pensions were hindered under the present administration of the department.

Mr. Barnum has written an Article on "The Church and the Circuses," in which he says that the reason why there is little antagonism between the two now is that they are both better than they used to be. The church has gained in liberality and the circus in morality.
Strange to say, Mr. Barnum rather condemns Miss Emma Abbott's recent outburst in a church when a minister attacked the stage, although he was the hero of a somewhat similar exploit years ago.

Let The Others Go.

A man while fishing suddenly fell into the water. A fellow fisherman, of benevolent aspect, promptly hauled him out, laid him on his back, and then began to scratch his head in a puzzled way.

"What's the matter?" asked the bystanders; "why don't you revive him?"

"There are sixteen rules to revive drowning persons," said the benevolent man, "and I know 'em all, but I can't call to mind which comes first."

"At this point the drowned man opened his eyes and said faintly:

"Is there anything about giving brandy in one of the rules?"

"Yes."

"Then never mind the other fifteen."
