

Spencer Social News and Events of Interest

New York potatoes at Blalock's, prime tubers, for a mealy diet, just received.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Boone spent Sunday at Meigsburg, with relatives.

Baldwin pippins and other delicious fall apples at W. P. Young's.

Give the Crescent your job work. Prices same as in Salisbury.

Fresh Cocoanuts at Rowan Grocery Co., for dessert, etc.

Mr. J. O. B. Gillispie, of Charlotte, was busy in Spencer among the druggists Friday last.

E. S. Burgess does an outfitting business in stoves, hardware, plumbing, and deserves home patronage.

Y. M. C. A. membership is steadily increasing, and the beds are all being used daily.

Rowan Grocery Co. is always up-to-date with family supplies, at lowest market prices.

Advertise in the Crescent, and retain and increase the cream of Spencer patronage.

Spencer Drug Co. keep a choice line of cigars selected by a connoisseur of good tobacco.

Miss Mattie Jenkins enjoyed a delightful visit, Sunday last, with friends in Burlington.

Mrs. S. S. Moore left Monday, for a visit to her relatives in Richmond, Va. She will be absent about ten days.

Mrs. George Freeland, with her little daughter, Julia, will spend a week or two with Mr. Freeland's mother, in Hillsboro.

Mrs. S. F. Harris left Monday, with her mother, Mrs. Irvin, for the latter's home in Danville, Va. Mrs. Harris will be absent about two weeks.

J. P. Crowell carries groceries, dry goods, notions, and fresh table supplies, and gives first-rate service.

Mrs. W. T. Blalock, of E. Spencer, returned Wednesday last, from Franklin, Va., after a pleasant week with her mother, Mrs. Thomas.

Reid G. W. Connell's new ad and test the delicious coffee he advertises. One cup will make your hair curl.

Mr. Fisher, deliveryman for A. J. Gemayel, has been sick with grippe symptoms since Friday last, and temporarily absent from the store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harrison made a pleasant visit to Mill Bridge last Sunday afternoon of the week, returning home Sunday night.

Spencer Mercantile Co. stocks include almost everything you need, for domestic wear, use, or consumption.

Mr. J. T. Robinson, formerly master mechanic at Spencer shops, was a pleasant visitor in Spencer, Monday, meeting many old friends and acquaintances.

Rev. W. S. Wilhelm, of Cool Spring, spent several days with his brother, Dr. H. F. Wilhelm, and visited friends here, also, leaving on Monday last, for his father's home, in Franklin.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers, etc., this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Full report should be sent the Crescent before Saturday.

Spencer Clothing and Shoe Co. have opened out a fine line of men's shoes, of the "Just Right" brand. None better for wear and comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Litch and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell returned from Washington, D. C., last night, after a week's sojourn, and an enjoyable trip and visit.

We made our Chesterfield bow Sunday last, to one of our most popular beauties, whose costume, hat and accompaniments were exquisite. See where our favorite color, too.

Mr. and Mrs. George West, who recently left Spencer for Charlotte, will leave Columbia, S. C., their residence, Saturday morning, for the frisky coast. They succeeded in bagging nine o'possums with the same gun, and one o'possum with some teeth. So the season is on for good.

Messrs. Seal Perry, John Perkinson and Esquire McWhann, of Lake, left town, on Saturday last, armed, equipped, to knock and other phantoms, to hunt the six opossum and the frisky o'possum. They succeeded in bagging nine o'possums with the same gun, and one o'possum with some teeth. So the season is on for good.

Order of Railway Conductors, Spencer Lodge, Div. 221, will hold its annual meeting for the election of officers, in Masonic Hall, Nov. 15, at 2 p. m. A full attendance of members is especially urged. Visiting brothers are cordially invited, and will be welcome. By order of S. A. Tolbert, Chief Conductor.

Salisbury Social News
and Interesting Events

H. T. Smithdeal has opened a handsome store on Fifth St., adjoining the hardware store of E. S. Burgess, where he has put in a fresh stock of dry goods, shoes, notions and groceries. Mr. Smithdeal is well known here, and we wish him the success he deserves.

Mr. J. C. Goodnight, who came here about two months ago, from Pennsylvania, and was until recently employed in the Spencer shops as a machinist, is one of many of the name, in Pa., Va., and N. C. It is proposed to hold a family reunion at the church near China Grove, on Thanksgiving Day.

Misses Maggie Page and Ora Hunter, attending the convention of the Rebekah Order of Odd Fellows at High Point, Saturday, remained over, in that delightful and quiet social town, to spend the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Andrews. They were delighted with their visit, and appreciative of the hospitable treatment they received.

Mr. B. F. Stevenson, general secretary of the Spencer Y. M. C. A., leaves tonight for Atlanta, in attendance on the conference of Southern Railway Y. M. C. A. Secretaries. The sessions will be held Nov. 12 and 13, and matters of importance to the various associations on the system will be discussed, doubtless with profit to everyone taking a part therein.

Mr. T. F. Hudson made a telling speech before Bethel Church congregation, Sunday last, of behalf of payment of church dues, etc. The response was generous. Mr. Hudson presented the pastor, Rev. W. P. Tucker, with a handsome overcoat in behalf of the members of Mt. Taber M. E. Church, of which Mr. Hudson has long been an honored member.

Mr. Howard B. Sterrett, of Lynchburg, Va., a citizen of enterprise and worth, spent the day in town yesterday.

W. B. Summersett carries a full stock of elegant suits and elaborate single pieces, in furniture, etc.

Mr. W. F. Harwood, of Lynchburg, Va., was a guest in Salisbury yesterday, and reviled in our genial weather and climate.

Belk-Harry Co. have everything in fabrics and designs, for ladies wear, to delight the eye and gratify true taste.

Mrs. Richard Henderson left on Monday last, for Newcomer, where she will for some time be the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. J. Brunson.

Reid's Department store merits a visit. The fall goods are superb, and the Crescent ad will give you a suggestion.

Miss Maggie Hooper and Miss May Ramsaur, of China Grove, have assumed charge of Owen's school, as principal and assistant, respectively.

Mr. Sam W. Harry was one of the deacons installed Sunday last, at First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Harry is a decided acquisition to the vestry.

The Chating Dish Club is a startling innovation in Salisbury. We shall now have daily experiments made on the male members of the household, in gastronomic horrors and culinary phenomena.

Hon. A. H. Price has been appointed by Judge Pritchard, special master to hear and report the facts in the Whitney Company cause; and will give the first hearing some time this month, in New York City.

The Mountain Home Club is splendidly represented by Salisbury members: Col. John S. Henderson, Mayor A. H. Boyden, Hon. Theo. F. Kluttz, Messrs. L. H. Clement, James H. Ramsay, T. B. Brown, J. F. McCubbins and others.

The Observer consists of 10 to 12 pages daily and 20 to 32 pages Sunday. It handles more news matter, local, State, National and Foreign, than any other North Carolina newspaper.

The Sunday Observer is unexcelled as a news medium, and is also filled with excellent matter of a miscellaneous nature.

The Semi-Weekly Observer is issued Tuesdays and Fridays, at $1 per year, is the largest paper for the money in this section. It consists of 8 to 10 pages, and prints all the news of the week—local, State, National and Foreign.

Address THE OBSERVER CO., Charlotte, N. C.

Salisbury Choral Union

The first concert given by this unique organization will be performed in the auditorium of Salisbury Graded School, Thursday, 12th inst., at 8 p. m. The programme covers several courses; and artistic rendering, both in instrumental and vocal numbers is assured. Prof. Nelson V. Taylor, director; Mrs. Julia Couper, pianist. Admission, 25c.

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER
The Largest and Best Newspaper
In North Carolina
Every Day in the Year, $8.00 A Year

THE SUNDAY OBSERVER
is unexcelled as a news medium, and is also filled with excellent matter of a miscellaneous nature.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY OBSERVER
is issued Tuesdays and Fridays, at $1 per year, is the largest paper for the money in this section. It consists of 8 to 10 pages, and prints all the news of the week—local, State, National and Foreign.

Address THE OBSERVER CO., Charlotte, N. C.

Salisbury Choral Union

The first concert given by this unique organization will be performed in the auditorium of Salisbury Graded School, Thursday, 12th inst., at 8 p. m. The programme covers several courses; and artistic rendering, both in instrumental and vocal numbers is assured. Prof. Nelson V. Taylor, director; Mrs. Julia Couper, pianist. Admission, 25c.

Salisbury Social News
and Interesting Events

Mr. Burton Craig was a visitor in Raleigh Friday last, on business.

Miss Beulah Kern was the guest of friends at Pinehurst, latter part of last week.

Mrs. Theo. F. Kluttz entertained Mr. Julian Tallafiero, of New York, ... Saturday last.

Mr. F. D. Ross, of Charlotte, spent Monday in Salisbury, on business.

Mr. T. E. Burwell, of Tarboro, spent Monday among the business fraternity and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mitchell, of Winston-Salem, were guests of friends in Salisbury, Monday last.

Mr. D. M. Clarkson, of Atlanta, Ga., was a visitor among the business men of Salisbury, Monday.

Mr. D. S. Vinson, of Charlotte, spent a profitable business day in town on Monday last.

Mr. F. V. Barrier was the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. S. Sapp, near Concord, this week.

N. P. Jacoby carries a stylish assortment of gentlemen's clothing, and everything in addition to make an elegant outfit. See Crescent ad.

Mr. B. McKenzie, of Greensboro, was a visitor in town, Monday, and thought his town a neck ahead of Salisbury. That was reminiscent.

A. W. Winecoff's stock of ladies' cloaks and rain-coats deserves special attention. Very low prices, beautiful selections.

Mr. Howard B. Sterrett, of Lynchburg, Va., a citizen of enterprise and worth, spent the day in town yesterday.

W. B. Summersett carries a full stock of elegant suits and elaborate single pieces, in furniture, etc.

Mr. W. F. Harwood, of Lynchburg, Va., was a guest in Salisbury yesterday, and reviled in our genial weather and climate.

Belk-Harry Co. have everything in fabrics and designs, for ladies wear, to delight the eye and gratify true taste.

Mrs. Richard Henderson left on Monday last, for Newcomer, where she will for some time be the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. J. Brunson.

Reid's Department store merits a visit. The fall goods are superb, and the Crescent ad will give you a suggestion.

Miss Maggie Hooper and Miss May Ramsaur, of China Grove, have assumed charge of Owen's school, as principal and assistant, respectively.

Mr. Sam W. Harry was one of the deacons installed Sunday last, at First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Harry is a decided acquisition to the vestry.

The Chating Dish Club is a startling innovation in Salisbury. We shall now have daily experiments made on the male members of the household, in gastronomic horrors and culinary phenomena.

Hon. A. H. Price has been appointed by Judge Pritchard, special master to hear and report the facts in the Whitney Company cause; and will give the first hearing some time this month, in New York City.

The Mountain Home Club is splendidly represented by Salisbury members: Col. John S. Henderson, Mayor A. H. Boyden, Hon. Theo. F. Kluttz, Messrs. L. H. Clement, James H. Ramsay, T. B. Brown, J. F. McCubbins and others.

The Observer consists of 10 to 12 pages daily and 20 to 32 pages Sunday. It handles more news matter, local, State, National and Foreign, than any other North Carolina newspaper.

The Sunday Observer is unexcelled as a news medium, and is also filled with excellent matter of a miscellaneous nature.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY OBSERVER
is issued Tuesdays and Fridays, at $1 per year, is the largest paper for the money in this section. It consists of 8 to 10 pages, and prints all the news of the week—local, State, National and Foreign.

Address THE OBSERVER CO., Charlotte, N. C.

Salisbury Choral Union

The first concert given by this unique organization will be performed in the auditorium of Salisbury Graded School, Thursday, 12th inst., at 8 p. m. The programme covers several courses; and artistic rendering, both in instrumental and vocal numbers is assured. Prof. Nelson V. Taylor, director; Mrs. Julia Couper, pianist. Admission, 25c.

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER
The Largest and Best Newspaper
In North Carolina
Every Day in the Year, $8.00 A Year

THE SUNDAY OBSERVER
is unexcelled as a news medium, and is also filled with excellent matter of a miscellaneous nature.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY OBSERVER
is issued Tuesdays and Fridays, at $1 per year, is the largest paper for the money in this section. It consists of 8 to 10 pages, and prints all the news of the week—local, State, National and Foreign.

D. C. EAGLE

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, Coffees, Teas, Sugars, Etc. Poultry and Produce

Prompt Delivery

Phone 41-L Spencer, N. C.

Ladies Who Understand The 'Art of Dressing'

Are Daily Visitors At The Model Establishment Where There Is To Be Found

The choicest selections in latest patterns and colors of dress goods in silk and cloth fabrics.

CLOAKS IN NEW AND ELEGANT STYLES
Shoes of perfect mold, for ladies, misses and children
Men's shoes in the vogue, of best material
Traveling suit cases in all sizes, at different prices
Beautiful designs and finish, in ribbons

Laces and Embroideries in bewildering variety and exquisite patterns
Notions and novelties
And experienced salesmen who will strive to suit you

A. W. WINECOFF
Salisbury, N. C.

We Lead Others Follow

The NEW DAYLIGHT STORE

We carry the MICHAELS, STERN & CO'S. GUARANTEED CLOTHING. Suit, if not satisfactory, replaced with a new one.

We handle the CRAWFORD SHOE—which never fails to prove satisfactory in every detail—in Tan, Gun Metal, Patent Leather, in latest style toe and last.

We invite you to inspect our stock, and to give us a trial. Every customer treated like. One price to all.

We carry SWEET, ORR & CO. Union-Made Overalls.
Remember THE NEW DAYLIGHT STORE of

N. P. JACOBY, Salisbury
115 N. Main St.

REID'S

The Place to Get Your GROCERIES

Tailor Made Suits
Are the Newest Styles,
Made From the Best Materials, By High-Class Workmen

Staple and Fancy Groceries Carried

Cigars, Tobaccos and Crockery
Country Produce Bought and Sold.

S. A. BLALOCK
FIFTH ST., SPENCER, N. C.

BELK-HARRY CO'S.

A number of NEW COAT SUITS at popular prices. Made of Hard Finished Serge, in Plain and Fancy Weaves; Semi-Fitted Coat; Satin Lined, in Garnet, Blue and Black.

Price 12.50, 15.00 and 18.50
$22.50 Broadcloth Suits, made of All-Wool Clifton Broadcloth, Satin Lined Coat; Garnet, Navy, Black and Brown.

Price 18.50
SPECIAL BARGAINS IN LADIES CLOAKS AT $5.00, $7.50 & $10.00

Millinery
A Big Stock of the Very Latest there is in MILLINERY, and at Popular Prices.

BELK-HARRY CO.
Salisbury - - - N. C.

THE TAILOR

MAKES THE MAN

Or Nine-Tenths of Him OUTSIDE

Dress Well And You Do Well

We invite you to visit our store. We will be delighted to show you, whether you buy or not. Be at home with us. You are always welcome. Our goods are as good as the BEST; our prices are as low as the lowest.

YOURS TO SERVE,
Spencer Clothing & Shoe Company

The Place To Buy

DRY GOODS
FURNISHINGS
HATS AND CAPS
NOTIONS
GROCERIES

and everything in the way of General Merchandise
EASY TO FIND
PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES
GOODS THE BEST

A stock of clothing closing out. This is your chance

A. J. Gemayel, 'SPENCER, N. C.

The New STORE
Opened With The Return Of GOOD TIMES FOR ALL.
Asks Spencer Patronage
Buy Your DRY GOODS, SHOES, NOTIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES From
H. T. SMITHDEAL
Fifth Street Next To Burgess'

The Right Way
To cure Coughs, Colds and Diseases of the Throat is to take

Worthen's Horehound, Honey and Tar Syrup
In Time. PRICE 50 CENTS.

SPENCER DRUG CO.

AT "THE THORNTON"
Large, pleasant rooms, wide, cool corridors; broad galleries, front and side; hot and cold water; bath rooms and lavatories; smoking room; all conveniences; well supplied table; accommodations at reasonable rates.
MRS. C. M. THORNTON, Prop.

FOR SALE—Fine farm of 331 acres, two hours ride on C. & O. from Richmond, Va. In heart of silk-leaf tobacco district. Well timbered and watered. Good neighborhood. Gold producing. Just the home site for a good farmer. Address the Crescent office.

REID'S
Salisbury