Those who want the paper and cannot spare the money, can payfor it in coun ry produce at market prices.

TERMS INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

AGENTS wanted in every County the State to extend the circulation of the THE LIVING PRESENT.

TOHN R. JOHNSON, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER, AT HIS OLD STAND,

Where he has been for the last 24 years. Isstill prepared to make and mend, and sid to understandings lend, and never was better prepared.

Z. CROWDER,

MARBLE AND GRANITE MONUMENTS. Tomb and Head Stones, &c., Would respectfully call the attention of those who patronize him, to furnish the desired work, in as good style and finish as any executed in the south, and at as lew a rate as the times justify. Call on or address him-care J. S. Jones, Henderson, or Br. Geo. Field Warrenton.

> DR. LAWRENCE'S CELEBRATED . Woman's Friend

A safe and reliable remedy for All Disease's Peculiar to Females,

Leuchorrhea, or Whites; Prolapsus Uteri, Fulling of the Womb; Irregular, Painful, or Suppressed Menstruction; Pain in the Back; DEDICATED TO THE LADIES OF AMERICA. For whose benefit it was designed, and whose happiness it will promote, by

TO PHYSICIANS:

The articles of which the Woman's Friend is compounded, are onblished around each out upon the Sound. Uterine Tonis and Alterative yet discover

It is a valuable and reliable agent in all deache, Spinal Irretations, &c.

J. H. BAKER & CO., NORFOLK VA.

Price $1,00 per Bottle. no-12-tf.

Help Those Who Need It,

TPHE Confectionary business, formerly conducted by N. S. Meseley, is now being carried on-by his Securities A new and varied stock, just received, and will be kept up.

HYMANS & DANCY, GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Please help us out.

NO. 42 WIDE WATER STREET,

NORFOLK, VA.

DANCY, HYMAN & CO. GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

NO. 24 EXCHANGE PLACE,

NEW YORK.

Particular attention given to the SALE of COTTON, GRAIN, NAVAL STORES, and other Southern Produce, and Purchase No-1-12m.

O. PERKINSON. M. LOWENBACH,

COMMISSION MERCHANT.

No. 54 South Howard Street, and 288 West Pratt Street,

> BALTIMORE, REFERS TO

Baltimore, Md. D. MILLER & Co., STELLMAN, HINEICES & Co., Baltimore, PENNIMAN BROS., HE LER & BRO., Woodstock, Va. WITZ & BRO., Staunton, Va. A. B. IRIOK, President Eirst Nat. Bank, Harrisonburg, Va.

Important Notice.

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, MORALITY, POLITICS AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

WARRENTON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1869

plainly. No amplification, no graces wait.

fact man, of whom I will say no more here than that the gray which thickly here the fact man, of whom I will say no more here than that the gray which thickly here the fact man, of whom I will say no more here. The fact man is the fact man and the fact man is the fact man and the fac studs my hair is not a mark of age, but to detach her mind from thoughts of hurt you. Let us descend. of disappointment and grief.

business as a residence in town. My them most—let me say it at once—for trance; but, to the last, before we had strument and caressing it. I trembled house with me. It has fair grounds minds of the wisest and best in the gaze rested upon that star. about it and some noble trees, and olden times, and even how has not | By the time we joined mymother the brightest stars in that region began The outlook from the roof is very fine. be, by the decrees of knowledge. She ter. "Only a passing faintnes," she nated eyes, the Crown came out.

six foot achromatic telescope of Praun. childish superstitions. a land telescope, was unequalled by had often benevolently done this. ten miles, off. But it was in astro- of the season chirped on every side. and of "Milly" (as I fondly alled the spent hours that spun by like minutes, est moments. of General Merchandise. Advances made hight have I watched in the morning was chilled with the night air. Then on consignments in hand, and on Bill of star, and made up for loss of sleep by said I, with a light laugh, and a Claude jokes about where I had been the "Are you in earnest, Albert?" said night before. I never let out the se- Milly, more seriously than I expected. WHOLESALE LIQUOR AND GENERAL my most intimate acquaintances; for one of the first magnitude. No second-to pronounce me "moon struck." in my history-I had been engaged light up with a look of decision, as she had bought for her. This effectually to Milly Estwick, the only daughter exclaimed: "There, that's our star!" diverted her thoughts or seemel to of a neighbor of ours. Erom child. Her small white hand indicated the do so-from the unpleasant subject. hood we had known and loved each glittering Crown. other. Ours was the first love, which We were so used to pointing out my cheek almost touched hers, and sometimes is the true love, the love stars to each other, that I knew in- we turned the pages, of the book to- viewed by the naked eye-a diamond that outlasts all. She was a handsome stantly which she meant. girl, sweetly disposed, and, in quiet, "I see it, dear. The one with the One was headed "Lines to a Star." going on the white was distinctly vis-A LL persons indebted to the subscriber to wood, or otherwise, will please make some arrangements about paying him. My creditors are pressing me, and smiled. But I pretended not to understand her. Presently I found I seized it as she thrust it through

How long I sat at this scruting, I cannot tell. The voice of sister Hetty haps a blue. "Tis only of a second ther on," said I, and I thumed a dozen pages impatiently. Milly locked up and smiled. But I pretended not to understand her. Presently I found I seized it as she thrust it through I seized i ion I greatly valued, did not hesitate of my life, I will speak briefly and ure. Womanlike, she preferred to remember ever seeing that star before. of her and her namesake up in the once.

desire the world's sympathy. It re- countless eyes above us witnessed the the star?" lieves me to unbosom myself to the sweet registry of our mutual vows. "Perhaps it's a new star," said to solve that star-problem. widest audience that will give me a Many a summer evening, after our hearing.

Many a summer evening, after our hearing.

Milly, still gazing at it intently.

Milly, still gazing at it intently.

"Let me shut the window for you," betrothal, would she sit with me for "Impossible," I laughingly replied.

"We can't have new stars made for "Oh, no, Albert! Deave it open. Deity had made to me a special reve- side by side, very close, in our easy star." lation. This is my candid statement, chairs, I could turn the instrument, as I look back to the mysterious events | with the merest flinger-touch, to any across the dreary interval of two and quarter of the skies. For both of us pleasant jest, when I marked a deepen- I knew that that made them unhappy. the United States, do hereby direct special Across For THE NORTH CAROLINA the pleasant earth, where she had so Her eyes were still fixed, apt upon chel's catalogue, its pages open at I live where I was born, in a hal many devoted friends, whose love and the soft, white star. I was bliged to the Corona constellation. The lantern, lowed old house, about twenty miles tenderness were but the reflex of her take her gently by the arms, and move newly filled and freshly trimmed, stood mother and two sisters occupy this the same reason that swayed the passed through the roof, her backward with impatience as I strained my gaze commands a distant view of the river. been banished, and perhaps never will and sisters in the parlor, she was bet- to appear. Presently, under my faci-J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D., Chemist. You can see for miles in every direct believed the stars had some influence said. In a little while she recovered gemming the blue with its brilliant ber usual spirites and I have been said. tion. At night, owing to the high on mortal affairs. She thought they her usual spirits; and I accompanied points; and, set in the midst of them. altilude and the purity of the air, such might be the homes of our future lives. her home to her father's house, which the soft, white star. The moment I with myriads of golden fires, over- although I thought it absurd, I did disprove it as how could I have done? Northern Crown, for I felt there were such star on the list!

had strayed across the Atlantic after and I were up in the capela. My a life of unknown vicissitudes, and mother and sisters had been with us Organs, and in Hysteria. Nervous, Head- got into an auctionship in the city, the greater part of the evening, but where my father chanced to see it, had withdrawn to the parlor, on some and bought it to look at remote objects plausible pretext or other, but really, home, and up to the roof, witl a lanwith, principally at sails far up and i dare say, to leave Milly and me to- tern and Herchel's catalogue i hand, down the river. In performance, for gether. Since we were engaged, they to solve the riddle of the sta .- But

> Names of schooners, sloops, and bar- A south wind brought to us the odor some rift to open up through which I ges, could easily be made out, eight to of blossoms. The first wood-crickets might have glimpses of the Crown nomical observations that I, as boy There was no moon; but the light of unknown,) I took in my telescope and and man, tested is remarkable powers a multitude of stars, on the steel-blue went to bed. But long I la awake, most thoroughly, and derived the ground of sky, made outlines of objects pondering perplexedly, sadly over the greatest pleasure from its use. The near me quite visible. I could see, or strange incident of the evening. possession of this glass made of me thought I could, the violet of Milly's Next day, my thoughts so ran on an amateur astronomer. Other peo- sweet eyes; the deep chestnut of her the star and my betrothe for the ple a hobby in chess, or billiards, or hair; the little dimples in her cheeks. two came into my head together, as if Shakespeare, or a hot-house. My She was paler than usual that night. they were inseperable-that I made amusement, on returning from the I knew, by her little nervous thrills several mistakes in the ledger. May dull mechanics of book-keeping every that she suffered from some internal 12, 1866, is scored with more penknife night to my country home, was to pair. But in vain I asked her to join scratches in my accounts than any bring out the battered brass and leath. my mother and sisters below. She other whole month of that rear. er tube as soon as dark set in, and said she was very comfortable there, con the heavens. I rebuilt the cupola and would stay a while longer. We omical observatory, by heightening and chatting a good deal about our-so lost was I in the ecstatic contem- I folded her shawl more closely plation of celestial wonders. - Many a about her, for I somehow fancied she naps in the ears. Occasionally I have Melnotte-ish air, "Come now, Milly, been found nodding on my high stool tell me what star shall be our home, in the office, and then there were sly when love itself becomes immortal."

cret of my observatory but to a few of "Of course, darling. Only let it be there was a general disposition, I soon class for you and me in cars, hotels, or eccentric;" and one, whose good opin- now?"

few moments. Her gaze suddenly thing I've been very busy to-day.

simple, home-loving tastes, much re- soft white light, changing a little as I She paused, as if to read them. sembled me. We should have married look at it to a faint yellow, and per-anxious to wed at once, and be off stars in the vincinity. "This is very all about I know not, at this time. on a journey for her health and pleas- strange, Milly," said I, "but I don't My thoughts, all the while were only see you very much. Come over at 'Tis a fixed star, you see, by its sharp, sky. of writing that I possess, can move Much of our courtship was carried flickering light; not a planet or a tailasks why I come before the world heaven that moved me, first to the and Herchell's catalogue, till I thought and sisters were waiting for me. with my sad story, I answer that I point of proposition; and the eternal, I had both by heart, that I can't name I was less reluctant to leave her in the supernatural explanation which for trancient meteors, or look through us expressly, you know. Yet it may Again the skyward glance, as she some excellent people-most of them the telescope at objects which I would be new in one sense," I added, more spoke! ladies-who personally knew of the select, the moons of Jupiter, Saturn's seriously, "that is, a variable star, occurrences here set down, attach ring and satellites, binary stars, nebu- re-appearing after years of obscuration. God bless von." I kissed her hand. the public to the above card, promising to them. I hold them to be coinci- læ, and the like. The glass was I will look at the catalogue when we and hurried away, just as the twilight dences only. But upon me they have mounted on an ingenious frame, of go down-stairs. Meanwhile we call it began to gloom softly. had an effect as controlling as if the my own contrivance, and while we sat new, and we'll christen it Milly,' your

Linked to a Star.

> "Our star, Albert." it was heaven above and heaven below. ing pallor, like a faint auroral cloud, We shunned that subject of all others. that from and after this date no rehouse in the city—a plain, matter-of- made her head ache to think of the an instant. The phantom rose be- the observatory. I carefully wiped such laborers, workmen and mechan-hofer's make—an old instrument which | On the night of May 11, 1864, Milly glanced up at the sky, but said 10th- Milly bad discovered a new star.

I gave her the parting kiss at her father's door-how sweet it comes back to my memory !- and bistened clouds had gathered for the night, and any instrument I have ever seen. The night was mild and beautiful, after waiting fully three hours for and snail-like the cars creet up the for Milly and myself, but I laughed great composure. The negro knew of our house into a sort of an astron- bad been roving idly among the stars, Hudson shore !- at last I was at home outright as I thought of the poor child's there was an end of the matter, so, and widening it so as to allow the free selves, though there was one topic always called on Milly. That even- lions of miles away, being any earth- thus addressed the rabbitt: swing of my long telescope, and put-ting on a light movable roof, which could be slid off and back again by the That was my darling's heart affection. where she often sat, looking right be- Milly all the more. "What is the all l" pull of a cerd. The sides were a mass Neither of us dared to talk of it. We tween two lilac trees, heavy with pink- darling doing now, I wwonder?" of windows, so contrived that I could lower them at pleasure into the roof symptoms which had shown would ran to the window to gree her. Ah! veins as I thought. "She is at this beneath me, out of the way. In this disappear in good time. That malady bow pale, but how beautiful! Her moment looking at our star." airy loft, long after the other members was the spectre, as from the grave, eyes had the introverted look of mediof my family had gone to bed have I that rose between us often in our gay- tation. They did not seem to see me, terious and unpleasant fancy, I adbut some point in space just short of dressed anvself to the scientific exami-

"You are not well, dear," said she,

The very words I would have spoken to her! but I dared not utier them. "Something has troubled you to-day, Albert. Our star, perhaps," she said, smiling, at the same time looking over the lilac tops to the sky, where Carona would be in an hour.

I made a poor attempt to laugh. "Not much time to think about stars discovered, to make fun of my inno- stars. There are Aldebaran, Regulus, in town," said I. "The ledge is my cent nocturnal pursuits. Several of Arcturns, Capella, Denebola, Lyra, only atlas there. One star more or my dearest friends called me "highly and plenty more of them. Which, less, where there are millions, is nothing." Which, less, where there are millions, is nothing. Which, less, where there are millions, is nothing. ing to me, you know; but the nistake Milly glanced about the heavens a of a cent in balancing-that's every

For two years previous to May, became fixed on the beautiful constel- Then, to change the subject, I land-1866-memorable year and month in lation Corona. Her face seemed to ed her a new volume of poetry, that I I leaned on the window-sill, so that pelled to go to the rear, without some respiritual organization so often found I looked at the star attentively, takwhat I wanted, and read the poem to the opening in the roof, tore away the its of industry, provides for them bet-P. W. GREEN. in American girls. Manlike, I was ing its bearings from other well-known her in a low monotone. What it was envelope, and read:

The sun was then setting, and Milly. the reader's compassion, if this una- on in the open air, beneath the pavil- less comet. How does it happen, then, always thoughtful of others, said I dorned narrative fails to. If any one ion of stars. It was the poetry of after all my studying of the heavens must go home to supper, for mother than usual, for I burned with a desire

"Then, good-night good-night, Milly,

Supper was dispatched mechanicaland sisters. They knew that I was fore, was wont to occupy, I spread out Herto the northeastern sky. One by one not look at that constelation. She upon me like the gleam of a meteor.

ever child brought to font.

Let me be frank. For the first time in my life a feeling of superstitions awe crept over me. Was there more in the old astrology than credulity and unscientific thought to keep ascendant long. I recalled all I knew of stars suddenly appearing, of variable stars, in Ophiuchus, in Scorpio, in Cassiopeia, Hercules, and other constellaobservers might have made it the me stew him." same night, for aught we knew. Ac- The thought of the savory stew cidentally only had determined Milly's | made the negro forget himself, and in nation of the star, so far as I, a mere amateur, was capable of such a task. By this time the night was quite dark, and I now discovered that the star was not so brilliant as it had been the night before. From a full second magnitude, it had dropped at least half-way to a third. My experience in studying stars enabled me to detect this to a certainty. It was strange, but, after all, in accordance with the phenomena of recorded variables. Their brilliancy culminates and wanes in many cases with surprising rapidimum : it was now on the decline. The to be eaten, and the other is beaten to flicker into a vellowish and bluish tint grow. was noticeable, as on the night of the 11th. Some stupendous chemical ac- lawver to be qualified for some petty tion going on. Possibly, the burning office. The lawyer said to him. "Hold out of the star! Who knows?

I leveled my telescope at this wonderful object. Like all other fixed stars seen through clear glasses, it became apparently smaller than when gether, glancing at the principal poems. point only. But the color coming and How long I sat at this scrutiny, I ther on," said I, and I thumed a dozen cannot tell. The voice of sister Hetty Royal of Denmark. This will leave

Affectionately yours,

[Continued.]

WASHINGTON, May 211-The President has issued the following: By the President of the United States

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas the act of Congress approved June 25, 1868, constituted on and after that date eight hours a day's work for all laborors; workmen, and mechanics employed by or on behalf of the government of the United States ly, I chatted at random with mother inconsistent therewith; now, there-

I was about to respond with some sad about Milly's declining health, and I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of I am, and have been for a long time, head book-keeper in a great dry-goods tronomy as a science. She said it Star and telescope were fergotten in aside, I excused myself and ran up paid by the government by the day to.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington collection of claims of every description, up the river. Trains run to and from own soft and loving nature. The her to the trap-door, whente a safe by its side, shedding a clear light upon this 19th day of May, in the year of throughout the State of North Carolina. the city many times a day, so that my home is quite as convenient to low somewhat to her religious sensibilities. But she admired obeyed me silently, like one in a resting on the drawn tube of the inany of the above places.

Incomplete the religious sensibilities and sixty-nine, and of the independence of the United States the and sixty-nine and six nited States the 93d. U. S. GRANT.

By the President. HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

A few days since, a man well known in New York society-not young, and who could not dance-was sitting at are hereby authorized Special Agents for a party, near a young lady, and watch. the Lycisc Present. an expanse of dark-blue sky, fretted This notion, so poetical and beautiful, was but a stone's throw from u. As could identify it beyond a doubt, I lug the mazes of the "German." He we want into the open air. I rejoiced turned to Herchel, as to a book of fate. turned to her, knowing her well, and hangs us, as I have never seen save not try to laugh it out of her. Nor to to see that a fleecy cloud coverd the Great Heavens! There was no said, "I wish you would let me put my arm around your waist." Of course bottle, and it is believed to be the best Among my father's effects was a No! I level her all the more for her mysterious reasons why we should The import of the mysterious reasons why we should The import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons why we should be import of the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons why we should be imported by the mysterious reasons which is not a state of the mysterious reasons where the mysterious reasons who we should be imported by the mysterious reasons where the mysterious reasons reasons where the mysterious reasons reasons reasons reasons and the mysterious reasons said be, "you know I can't dance, but Truly, it was no star, as she had young men have their arms about the said-ours by right of finding. We girls' waists, and why should not I with Two and Four seat Buggy and wagen, were entitled to name it. The star have the same privilege, though I sit was Milly, as regularly christened as still?" That man's head is level. I thinksso.

A Bird in the Hand.

A colored man, to whom meat was a rare blessing, one day, found in his imposture? But I did not allow this trap a fine rabit. He took him out alive, held him under his arm, patted, him, and began to speculate on his I guarantee entire satisfaction, having qualtities.

"Oh! how bery fat! De fattest I ever did see! Let us see how me tions. I remembered the theories that | cook him. Me roast him, No; he explained the prodigy, and gradually so very fat, he lose all de fat. Me fry became calmer. We had made a new him. Ah! he so bery fat he fry himdiscovery surely; but dozens of other | self! Golly! how fat he be! Den selection of that particular star. Its spreading out the feast to the imagina-light, rather softer and purer than that tion, his arm relaxed, when off hopped HARDWARE. CUTLERY, At last—how slow time dragged, had guided her choice. I felt proud distance, eyed his late owner with Saddlery Hardware and again. On my way to the bouse I simplicity. The idea of a star, bil- summoning up all his philosophy, he No 4 Iron Front, Sycamore St.

How many people thar iz whose souls lay in them, like the pith of a

"I am afraid you will come to want," said an old lady to her daughter. "I have come to want already," was the reply, "I want a nice young man." The question why printers do not succeed as well as brewers is thus answered: Because printers work for the head, and brewers for the stomach—and where twenty men have JEWELRY STORE. stomachs, but one has brains.

What is the difference between a

A man once went to an eccentric DIAMONDS, FINE GOLD JEWELRY.

up your hand. I'll swear you, but all creation couldn't qualify you." Good ADVICE-Reader, did von ever enjoy the eestatie bliss of courting? If you didn't, then get a little gal-an-try. The Princiss Louise, daughter of Queen Victoria, is to be married on

A man who gives his children habter than by giving them a fortune.

the Queen only one unmarried daughsquare one month. square six months. One square one year,

Special notices, under a special head will be charged one dollar per square fo

Funeral and obituary notices will be erted at fifty cents per square. The simple announcement of a death marriage will not be charged.

WARMINSTER

The imported Stallion, War-minster, will make his first wester South for 1869, at P. R. Davis', War and Henderson, North Carolina. Terms $50 for thorough bred Mares and $25 for Warminster is si'ed by Newminster so popular in England, and his first dam is Black Bess by Ratcatcher, and second dam Polydora by Priam &c., &c., &., see Bruce's Studd Book for 1868. The liberality of his importer, R. W. Cameron Esq., of New York, in presenting this fine offer to the South, should be appreciated. Mares from a distance shall he well attended to and charges cheap. For particulars inquire of PETER R. DAVIS, and repealed all acts or parts of acts GENERAL COLLECTION AGENCY, FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

April 2-Ing. Warrenton, N. C.

Special Newspaper Advertising

WM. A. HEARNE & CO.

PRESS, AND GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE

Carolina Press, in the Commercial cities of Wilmington, Newbern, Norfolk, Peters-burg, Richmond, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, and attend to the Refer specially, to Geo. V. Strong, Rsq.

Goldsboro'; Maj. J. A. Rugelhard, Editor Wilmington Journal; Hon, Plate Durham, Raleigh; Hon. Geo. Howard, Tarboro; and Gen. M. W. Ransom, Weldon, N. C. Refer generally, to the Conductors of the State Press.

Messrs. Wm. A. Hearne & Co., as above,

NOTICE:

TPUE Subsember announces to the public that he has for hire, either for hauling or conveyance of passengers.

He will furnish fire wood of all descriptions at shortest notice and at reason-The patronage of the community is respectfully solicited.

ness, which I am offering at low rates, for Cash. or Country produce at market price. had 13 years experience in the business. RICHARD ROWLETT.

DLUMMER, YOUNG & CO.

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN FCREIGN AND AMERICAN CARRIAGE MATERIALS, PETERSBURG, VA.

Agents for sale of FAIRBANK'S SCALES, Leather and Rubber Belting, Mill Stones, Bolting Cloths, CIRCULAR SAWS, AND Emery & Son's Cotton Gins.

L'STABLISHED 1831 A FIRST CLASS

York, at a wedding, the bride must have eight bridesmaids and a hundred-the largest and finest stock of Goods in his dollar poodle besides the one she mar- line and at accommodating prices. Con-

WATCHES, LEVERS.

SILVER WARE. Constantly receiving New and Desirable Goods as they come out. Hair Jewelry made to order, CLOCKS and FINE WATCHES Repairranted to give satisfaction. J. M. FREEMAN. the 27th of July next, to the Prince No. 29 Main and Talbot Streets, NORFOLK, VA.,

ed by good and skillful workmen and war-

R. J. H. COOK. HAS RETURNED TO Warrenton, and respectfully offers his services to the public.