Strangers Now.

Years of checkered life together, Days of fair and stormy weather, Hours of toil and weary pain, Moments of eternal gain-All are gone-we know not how, And have left us strangers now !

Words that flow to lighten care, Thoughts which others could not share, Hopes too bright for mortal eyes, Prayers for wisdom from the skies-All have ceased-we know not how, And have left us strangers now!

Will it evermore be thus? Shall the past be lost to us? Can the souls, united here, Never once again be near? Must we to the sentence bow-"Strangers ever, strangers now?"

Thorns amid the roses press; Earth is but a wilderness Flitting o'er a fallen race. Love can find no resting place; Where his flowers immortal grow, Shall we strangers be as now?

Rough Story. During the time of a freshet on the Wabash, where the flat country on both sides of the river was faundated by the rising water, it became necessary for those in the way to "escape to the mountain."—the mounds that were probably made by the Indians for that purpose. A party of fugitives on their way to safety, overtook a man in a covered wagon with a span of horses, standing still in the road, the water nearly up to the hubs of his wheels and fast rising. one hand and a whip in the other, on the whip. They stopped a moment to listen, attracted by the man's to hear him read: "The wicked shall be turned into hell!"-(cut)-giving "whoso believeth not shall be damned!"-(cut)-"how can ye escape the damnation! of hell!"-(cut)and many more words of like character, yelling the emphasized words at the top of his lungs. Wondering at his conduct, the natives asked what it | Care Agent Petersburg Railroad, Peters-

Here he consulted his book-leaving to give emphasis to his hopelessness of making them stir a peg.

During the attack on Fort Douelson, a Southern Hardshell exorter We don and Acquia Creek, was holding forth in exalted strains declaring repeatedly that the Lord fought on the side of the south, and Jehovah was encamped round about the Confederare army, saying that it was impossible for the invaiding Yankee to conquer them. Just at the P F. LONG, close of one of these sentences a man dashed up to the church on horseback, and yelled out:

"The Yankees have captured Fort Donelson and are coming up the river !"

"Then, my brethren, save yourselves, for the Lord has got licked !"

"Is my face dirty?" asked a young lady from the backwoods, while seated, with her aunt, at the dinner table on a steamboat running from Cairo to Hew Orleans. "Dirty !" No. Why do you ask?" "Because that insultbeside my plate. I've thrown three under the table and yet every time he comes around he puts another one beforc me."

A parson was picturing to an old sinner on his death-bed the glories that awaited him if he would repent. He that he should soon be an angel,

"Don't talk that way, please, parson," said the dying man; "if there being an angel sitting on a damp cloud picking a harp by moonlight."

"Trust to Providence for help!" was the exclamation of a husband, on seeing his wife attempt to roll a barrel of flour upstairs. "Trust to Provi-dence, eh?" was her retort; "do you

L DESIRE to call the attention of every

I man and woman in Warren County to an article, which I am selling, and for which I am exclusive agent, for this County. I refer to THE SALEM SHOE.

Messrs. Vogler & Co . Their line of goods embrace as follows. Mens high cut, pegged Balmerals,

Stout pegged Brogans, manufactured in Salem, this State, by

Balmorals. Im'tn. Goat. Morocco Sew'd. Boots, Misses peg'd. Kip and Morocco Boots, Boys

Balmorals. They manufacture also inferior goods; which I have on hand—but it is more particularly those above mentioned to which I would call the attention of the public, As almost every one knows, the Eastern Shoe with which this market has been supplied from time immemorial, is often entirely worthless. Being made entire by machinery, and largely composed of the scraps and scrapings from the better class of work which seldom reaches us, as its prices would approximate nearly our own shoemakers charges. The truth of this statement will be recognized by every one of our experience in the purchase of shoes. The North Carolina Shoe which I offer proposes to remedy the universal complaint urged against "Store Shoes," by furnishing to the purchaser, the full value of his money—or if the articles in the remainder of the articles in t pair with the stamp on, is guaranteed to render satisfaction on fair trial. The dificulty with which our State Manufacturies have contended, in the lack of style and appearance, is overcome by Messrs. Vogler & Co., whose work is as neat in finish as any of its class made in such, to have the same refunded; as every

New England.

I would particularly call the attention of the ladies' to the Morrocco Sewed Boots, which offers every advantage presented by the justly celebrated Miles' Philadelphia Shoe, which I am offering at the law price of $3,25 cash, or ten per cent added when Being agent for the factory, I am enabled to offer extra inducements to parties buying by the dozen, and will make it tly to the advantage of such, to give me a call. In prices, the North Carolina Shoe is on a par with the same grade of Eastern work—and in some instances lower. This is no humbug notice but a plain matter of fact statement, which it will pay the buyer to heed. Samples shown with pleasure J. M. WADDILL,
