The entertainment given by Mr. S. Ginsburg, the polite and gentlemanly german, complimentary to his many young lady and gentleman friends of Hyde county, came off at the Tooly House on Tuesday December 17th. The house of reception was opened at 7 o'clock p. m. at which time the young ladies accompanied by their beaux, entered the reception room which was specially prepared by taking away a partiand at an early hour notice was given that the court house had been brushed and dusted that music would be furnished and all who liked could engage in a dance. The crowd dithe rest remaining in the reception room. After about an hour all repaired to the reception room, and then a tap of the bell, thence the word supper from Mr. Ginsburg, and the summons was obeyed, not a rush, no confusion or disorder but a well planned movement, and men stood around the long table
