H. A. LATHAM, Editor and Owner, Washington, N. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1890.

Dr. B. L. Weston, of Hyde.

Two years ago Mr. Henry Selby, as good, true and brave a Confederate Soldier as ever belonged to Stonewall Jackson's corps, was taken sick with the dropsy, and has been as great a sufferer as I ever saw. Sometimes being swollen twice or even three times as large as his usual size. He is a poor man with a large helpless family, all his children being girls, except his last one, which is a little boy, only 7 years of age. Mr. Selby was not only a very good Confederate Soldier, but he is a strictly honest, upright man, and as good a farmer as lives in the county of Hyde. He had tried medical skill and every thing else he could think of, but all seemed to do him no good. His star of hope was about to end, when he thought that Dr. Weston, could do him some good, at least could relieve him of his great suffering; so he sent for him, and as promptly as possible the doctor went to see him which was five or six months ago, and from that day to two or three weeks ago, he has attended him as earnestly and as promptly as it was possible for man to do, and has taken as deep an interest in his case as if he were his brother. Mr. Selby began to improve from the very first, under his treatment, and has continued to improve until the present, and now he is able to work in his field and attend to his business generally, and will soon be as well and strong a man as he ever was in his life. Mr. Selby felt so gratified to Dr. Weston for his great kindness that he wanted to pay him at least a part. So he asked the doctor what was his bill, but to his great astonishment Dr. Weston told him not one cent, for you, he said, placed your life for four long years upon the altar of your country, and suffered all that humanity possibly could suffer for a cause that you and I and every true Southern man or woman believed to be just and for that same cause I suffered with you, and I am happy to say to you today that it is the greatest pleasure of my life, and ever shall be, to do any and everything I possibly can do for my brother Confederate Soldiers. Mr. editor, such noble act of kindness and love should ever be cherished as a precious jewel, and though Dr. Weston, like all of us, will soon have to go from time to eternity, he has erected a monument to his memory that will live as long as true courage is appreciated or genuine patriotism finds a resting place in the bosoms of Southern chivalry. Ah! more for such true and noble acts are recorded in the book of eternal life by the hand of Him who knoweth and doeth all things well, and whose blessings are worth more than all the honors of earth.

Hastin Dots.

Kind Providence has again smiled upon us and blessed the farmers and laborers thus far with the seasons, and never in the history of this place was the prospect for an abundant harvest more promising than at present, and as a result of it all classes and occupations have the lights of encouragement to shine making them very hopeful and the smile of a cheerful happy contentment is reflected from one to another. In all the various precincts rapid progress has kept pace with the very favorable seasons, judging from the general push and thrift of business. It can reasonably be expected that the financial condition will be much improved by the close of another year. All ready the signs of the times are better.

The Albemarle & Pamlico railroad has made its way in and through our fertile country, opening up a section of country that has been for all kinds and for fertility is surpassed by none in this State, whose terminus is now a fixed fact only two and one-half miles distant from Hastin. It has already benefited our people in the way of giving employment to many of them in a time of their greatest need, besides giving a push and impetus to all our labor. Shipments have already been made from this place over said road with satisfactory results, and the like will probably continue.

Miss Lucie E. Reddick's school at this place closed on the 25th of May. This was her first attempt and will carry with her her love and confidence. Only a few days ago it was announced that Miss Willie Rountree's school at Pantego would close on the 25th of May, and that there would be an entertainment at its close that night and so confident were our people that a good concert would be given for them that a large majority of them as the shades of twilight were approaching left their quiet homes and proceeded to the Academy at Pantego where we found that other places as well as ours had heard of Miss Willie's reputation and had turned out in large numbers to see for themselves the merits of the teacher who had prepared each one to perform their part on this occasion, which was indicative of the thorough instruction they had received at her hands, and fully sustained the high reputation she has so nobly won among her patrons, and made it a pleasant evening for us all. After the exercises were over Dr. Bullock on behalf of the children presented to Miss Willie a valuable present as a token of their love and esteem for their teacher, and she departed for home feeling fully paid.

The Press Convention.

The good people of Durham, are making great preparation for the entertainment of the Press Convention, which meets there 23d of July. We hope that every editor in the State will attend and study the many industries of this pushy little city. From that excellent paper the Daily Globe we clip the following item:

Here is part of what the editors may expect:

A public reception, at which the address of the welcome, the oration by the association, orator, etc., will be delivered.

A drive around the city to visit the various industrial establishments, etc.

A drive to the Bennet place, the scene of Johnson's surrender to Sherman, and a lunch on the grounds.

A grand banquet, at which, in addition to a feast of good things for the inner man, there will be a feast of reason and a flow of soul.

Now, what Durham wants, is to have the privilege of extending her hospitality to every North Carolina editor. Let all come.

FOR THE BLOOD. Weakness, Malaria, Indigestion and Biliousness take BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It cures quickly. For sale by all dealers in medicine. Get the genuine.

MOSE FOR CONGRESS.

Mr. Editor:—I noticed a few weeks ago the name of Mr. E. A. Mose, of Greenville, placed among the list of aspirants for Congress in this District. Whether Mr. Mose is or is not an aspirant for Congressional honors, it is not my province to say, but knowing that gentleman as I do, from his earliest manhood to the present, I do not hesitate to say that of all those men whom I can be found more worthy of interest or more competent to fill the position than he Mr. Mose came into political life soon after reconstruction days, when quite a young man, when there was no probability of the immediate success of the cause he espoused, and though twice over-whelmed by negro votes and carpet-bag fraud, he negated at the call of his people entered the field under the democratic standard and was one of the first legislators sent to represent Pitt county under the new Democracy. Since then he has represented that county both in the Lower House and the Senate for several successive terms, and recently he has been elected Senator had he not withdrawn of his own will from the contest. He is now Superior Court Clerk of Pitt county, a good paying office, which he is by no means anxious to resign even for the honor of being a Congressman, and would only do so if at all, as a matter of duty to his people. Mr. Mose has always been a farmer and lawyer by calling. He is a member of the Farmers Alliance and prominent both in this county and the State. His experience in political life fits him well for Congressional work; he is bold and fearless in defending right and exposing wrong wherever found; thinks calmly and deeply on great questions, and has the courage of his convictions. Being a farmer and laboring man he has in all his public acts looked to the welfare of that class. A strong democrat, he has never bowed his back to the party lash, though it has at times been raised over him. His unflinching integrity has made him the favorite of the masses and the dread of the oligarchy. As a debater Mr. Mose is the signal of the best in close study of the political questions of the day making him always ready and accurate. Above all Mr. Mose is a gentleman of the highest type, and a Christian, and comes before the people through sixteen years of service with a record un-furnished, and a name undimmed even by the death of suspicion. As I said in the outset I am not the one to say that he is a candidate for the nomination yet, but being true to the best interests of his country he could not refuse, and the First District must needs go very cautiously should she pass him by. If the farmers must have a candidate there would be no experiment in trying him for he has been tried.

FOR THE GAZETTE.

Texas Sitings.

The majority of North Carolinians who leave their native State for Texas possessed with that knowledge acquired from the perusal of the newspapers came prepared to find that class denominated "Cowboys" and "Greasers" in the ascendancy, also to encounter lynching "bees" and lawlessness, but they find upon their arrival (traced, none) can be found more worthy of interest or more competent to fill the position than he Mr. Mose came into political life soon after reconstruction days, when quite a young man, when there was no probability of the immediate success of the cause he espoused, and though twice over-whelmed by negro votes and carpet-bag fraud, he negated at the call of his people entered the field under the democratic standard and was one of the first legislators sent to represent Pitt county under the new Democracy. THE BATH BUDGET.

We have painted Bath and now call it a town.

Mr. Joe Taylor representing S. K. Fowle & Son, of your city, was in town last week.

Mrs. W. R. Tetterton, Misses Bertha and Lizzie Ormond was in town last week.

The Bath Manufacturing Company is putting in dry kilns.

Crops are looking fine. Hon. J. S. Marsh is billing corn.

Some of our young folks, when they are corresponding with their sweet hearts close by saying: "God be with you till we meet again." This is a good sentiment indeed.

Our town dray is always busy, and is always on hand.

It is rumored that the Roper Company will put a boat on the river to run in connection with the railroad, also a road from Pantego to this place. Let it come, let anything come that will improve our town.

Be careful boys, don't let the tide rise to surround you when almost nothing personal.

How about the young man that went nearly blind last week?

More love letters passing around. Girls keep them close.

Balm o' Gilead.

The warm weather has improved the crops in this vicinity.

Glad to see Mr. R. M. Gaskill in the store of Mr. G. A. Spencer again. He has been quite sick for a week.

We learn that Mr. A. Coffee, of Swan Quarter, is to take charge of the store of Spencer Bros. at Blounts Creek, while Mr. G. A. Spencer is at Ocracoke. Coffee has already made many friends in this vicinity.

Rev. J. B. Respass preached at James Chapel on Sunday last.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen of Hunters Bridge, attended church at James-Church on Sunday last. Come again, we are all glad to welcome visitors in our midst.

Yeatesville Yellings.

The delegates have just returned from the District conference held at Williamston. They speak in the highest terms of the hospitality of the people in that place, and well they might for they can't be beaten in North Carolina.

Crops are fine in all this section. Seasons are good and the farmers are encouraged.

Mrs. Dr. Plum Nicholson is very sick, but is thought to be better. Hope she will soon recover.

Rev. Mr. Price preached an excellent discourse on the creation last Sunday. It was grand.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. The offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. 4times
