Washington, Beaufort County, N. C., Wednesday Afternoon, May 4, 1898.

Established 1894

Our Aim To Suit All.

When any lady or gentleman who buy their Clothing or Dress Fabrics from us they can safely believe themselves dressed as fashion leaders are.

We make it our business to have the new things first.

Our men's clothing fairly bristle with all those little wrinkles that so appeal to the young man's heart and fancy.

The business man, or the man with quiet tastes can be equally well suited.

Our Dress Goods Department, with its rich and choice array of of the many articles so dear to the feminine heart, appeals directly to the good taste as well of every lady who inspects it.

Our prices appeal as strongly to the purse as our goods do to the taste.

FRED. V. ROWE,

To Demand the Consuls Release.

By Telegraph to The Messenger.

Kingstown, Jamaica May 4.—The British warship Alert returned from Santiago de Cuba last night after only a few hours stay there. The Cruiser brought dispatches which are considered too important to send by cable. The report that the British Consul had been imprisoned for firing into the Spanish mob which attacked the Consulate was confirmed. The Alert after receiving instructions from the British Admiralty, returned to Santiago de Cuba with orders it is said, to demand the Consuls immediate release at the cannons mouth if necessary.

THEY ARE HERE.

We have received the line of "Harrisburg" Oxfords and Strap Sandals, and we think it would pay every lady in town to see them. For quality of stock superior workmanship and durability, combined with beauty seldom found in goods under $2.50 or $3.00, they have no equal.

Our specialties are $1.00 and $2.25 and you can only equal them elsewhere by paying from 25c to 50c more money. Be sure and see them before you buy. We can also fill contracts on Straw Hats.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbor recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale at Tayloe's Pharmacy.
