Mrs. A. D. Betts and daughters Misses Maggie and Nellie left yesterday for Leecheville where they will make their future home. Capt. A. D. Betts moved to Washington from Deleware some years ago, and operated a mill on Goose Creek Island, and immediately identified himself with the goo-people of the State. Although a Republican, he has always voted the Democratic State ticket and identified himself with the best element of our people. About two months ago he entered the employ of Mr.
W. H. Wilkinson, of Leecheville and took charge of his mill.
The departure of Capt. Betts, and his interesting family is universally regretted.

Chief of Police James R. Grist returned from Kinston Wednesday with John Rolerson charged with larceny and embezzlement in custody. The facts in the case are as follows: Rolerson came to this city with the Circus last year, abandoned the Circus, and secured a position on the farm of Hon. C. F.
Warren. Recently he came to town and represented to Mr.
Warren that his Superintendent desired funds to settle with his hands, Mr. Warren entrusted Rolerson with the amount and he appropriated it to his own use. The Police having learned he was in Kinston, a warrant was issued, and Wednesday he was brought back to this city, arraigned before this court, plead guilty and sentenced by Judge Brown to the penitentiary for one year.
