The Evening Messenger

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Local and Otherwise.

Hon. B. B. Aycock spent the night here.

Mrs. Olivia Carmalt is visiting relatives at Grimesland.

Cotton, strict middling, 4 1/2; middling 1/2, Corn, 38 to 40, Eggs 12 cents

The handsome residence of Mr. J. F. Buckman on Second street is about completed.

Miss Annie O'Neal returned from Chocowinity yesterday, where she is teaching, to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Dr. P. A. Nicholson, who has been on an extended visit to Littleton, Airle and Halifax, returned home last evening.

Mr. W. J. Crumpler has returned from Chattanooga, where he attended the National Convention of the Christian Church

Rev. M. Pittman will preach his last sermon as pastor of the Christian church tomorrow evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy at the residence of Mrs. R. T. Hodges, on Market street, next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A Convention of the White People of North Carolina has been called to meet in Goldsboro on the 28th. It is hoped that Beaufort and Hyde counties will send large delegations to this convention.

Our people have a treat in store for them for next Tuesday Night. Hon. Claude Kitchen, of Halifax county, than whom there is no more eloquent and effective campaigner in North Carolina will speak at the Court House Tuesday night, Oct. 25th. Ladies expected to be present.

The Washington Light Infantry was out in dress parade yesterday afternoon, the occasion being their annual inspection by the Inspector General. We hear their average was ninety per cent, the best record of any company to pass inspection so far. This is a creditable showing for which we offer congratulations.

Yesterday morning a jolly crowd of our townsmen were taken to Grimesland by Capt. Rowe on his fine little gas boat Mystery, his amiable and fascinating daughter accompanying him. The trip and the barbecue was highly enjoyed by all, and Capt. Rowe came in for much praise for his careful attention to the comfort of the party.

Today is the last day the registration book will be open and the registrars will sit until 9 p. m. Unless you register today you can not vote. What are you doing reader to make certain the victory for the white man's government? Have you urged and tendered the opportunity to all the laborers in your employ to register? Have you spoken to your indifferent neighbor? Are you standing by your race and section?

A telegram has just been received in this city announcing the death of Mrs. Florence Webb (nee Perkins) at her home in Troy, Ala., yesterday. Mrs. Webb was the daughter of the late Mr. Julius Perkins, of Pae-tolu, and sister of the late Mrs. C. W. Tayloe. After the death of her parents she became an inmate of the home of her sister Mrs. Tayloe, and numbered her friends by the score. A few years ago she married Mr. Harry Webb and moved to Troy, Ala., where they lived happily until death claimed her for its own. With her many friends in this city the Gazette Messenger extends its sympathy to the bereaved husband and relatives in their great sorrow, with the hope they may all meet again.
