The Halcyon Club gave a delightful german at the Armory hall last Wednesday evening. Quite a number of our young people were present. The evening will be long remembered as one of the most pleasant of the season.

Col. J. B. Grimes, of Grimesland, made one of the best Democratic speeches of the campaign at Buck's school house, Chocowinity, last Wednesday evening. There were at least three hundred present. The speech has been highly complimented by were those who so fortunate as to be present.

Died in this town Tuesday afternoon Bryan Wayne. Mr. Wayne we think was born in Chocowinity, was about 55 years of age, and married the oldest daughter of the late W. H. Buck. Some two years ago he, with his family moved to this city. The first of this year he rented the Hill farm two miles below town and moved his family to that place, but on account of bad health returned to this city a few months ago, where he lingered until Tuesday. He was a good man, faithful husband and devoted father. His remains were taken to Chocowinity for interment. We extend sympathy.

The Roanoke Union of the Tar River Association will begin its sessions in the Baptist church here this evening at 7:30 and will continue through Sunday.
