SERIOUSLY.

Are you in need of a suit of clothes? Do you intend buying a suit or overcoat? Yes, to both these questions, then why don't you buy now. I have sold hundreds of suits and overcoats this season, consequently have a number of broken lots—suits—one two and three of a kind. These I have put the knife into, up to the hilt. Have put prices down almost half. Come and examine

NOTICE!

We have heard it remarked that the closing out of L. W. Abe's stock of goods at cost was the same old Jew story, (i. e.) pretending to sell at cost, and getting same old prices or even more. Now we wish to say Mess. Coplin & Suskin's gave us the cost mark, and told us to sell all goods at cost, and all shop-worn stuff at less; if necessary. This we are doing to a letter without limit or reserve. A visit to the store will convince you.

The sale of seats for "Captain Dick" tonight is very large. The state of the weather will not interfere with the performance taking place. A large number of seats have also been engaged for tomorrow night, which will absolutely necessitate those being purchased for tonight being used as other parties may already have some seats for tomorrow. The school children will have their inning tomorrow night as it will be their special night. Trinity School has engaged a block of more than fifty seats.

Died, Jan. 12th 7:30 A. M., at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Thos. Wilson, corner of 3rd and Bonner streets, Mrs. Sarah S. Brinson in the 79th year of her age. This aged lady was born in New Berne, but for years has lived in Pamlico Co. A few weeks ago she came to visit her daughter and seemed in her usual health until a week ago when she was taken violently sick with Pneumonia. For years Mrs. Brinson has been a consistent member of the Methodist church. She was a bright pleasant woman of great strength of character and lovable qualities. Her great sufferings were endured without a murmur. Prayer and praise fell from her lips until the last, when she died with a good hope of eternal rest. Her body was taken to New Berne for interment. Our sympathies to the afflicted family.
