NOTICE.

Beginning on February 1st, 1899, we will begin to operate a business strictly upon a cash basis. For years past we have incorporated the credit system, but upon a careful study and reflection think our interest demands a cash plan, and we have resolved to inaugurate such a system beginning on the above date. Goods will be sold at the closest figures, and we believe our patrons will take advantage of the small margin in profit. We earnestly solicit all those we have favored in the past and are now doing, to call on or before the above date (Feb. 1, '99), and liquidate their indebtedness. We are ever ready to fill your orders and trust this notice will be taken in the right spirit and that all will act accordingly.

Yours for success,

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

'KING' COTTON SEED.

In order to encourage the cotton planters and to help them grow better cotton and cheaper cotton, I have arranged to have some of the best farms in the South furnish me a limited quantity of the "King" cotton seed.

This cotton is two weeks earlier than the cotton usually grown in Eastern Carolina and is a finer yielder.

I have investigated the different cottons pretty thoroughly and I fully believe the "King" variety is best for our section, and I confidently recommend my friends to use it. It has been proven a success right here in Eastern Carolina and testimonials can be gotten by the thousand. As much as 41lb of lint has been ginned from 100lbs seed cotton.

The usual price of these seed is one dollar to ten dollars per bushel, but I can furnish them at 40c per bushel (while they last) This price is at my store in New Berne and buyers must furnish their own sack and cartage, or else pay me cost for them.

The cotton grows equally well planted late or early and is specially recommender to plant after spring truck.

For sale also at my branch store at Washington, N. C., at 45c per bushel.

J. E. LATHAM, New Bern, N. C.

Farmers in this section will address on call on A. B. Smith, Washington N. C.
