Sampson Follows Higginson's Example.

Washington, March 13.—Secretary Long has received a letter from Rear Admiral Sampson, in which the Admiral after referring to the allegations that the list of the officers recommended for promotion, for gallantry off Santiago had failed of confirmation because it included his name, asked the Secretary to immediately re-appoint these officers omitting his own name.

The text of the letter is as follows: "U. S. Flagship New York, First Rate.

Havana, Cuba, March 9, '99.

"Sir: I respectfully ask your attention to the facts contained in this letter and that it may be officially filed as part of my record in the United States Navy.

"When the late war was threatening, I was placed in command of the North Atlantic fleet, and after the declaration of war, was appointed by the President a Rear Admiral and confirmed in my command.

This duty and responsibility came to me entirely unsought, nor had I any especial wish for it, though recognizing the great honor then conferred upon me.

"My sole aim was to achieve success; to blockade Cuba, destroy Cervera's fleet and to maintain an efficient war fleet.

"It is not necessary to dwell upon the incidents of the war, which are all now well known. Based upon these incidents certain officers, distinguished for faithful service, were named by me, in the exercise of my natural duty as commander-in-chief, for promotion or such other reward as you, sir, might deem desirable.

"Those names you have been pleased to nominate to the United States Senate for promotion, and you have done me the honor to add my name to that list of officers.

"It now appears that the Senate, though well disposed to most of the names on that list has, for reasons not necessary to be here discussed, objected to my promotion, and has similarly failed to confirm the deserving officers about whose merits there has been no doubt or discussion.

"Hitherto, Mr. President, undisturbed by any eager desire for advancement, or any other form of reward for doing my duty I have not especially concerned myself with matters outside of that duty. I have felt that I have done my duty in the conduct of the West Indian naval campaign to the utmost extent of my ability as thoroughly as I was able, and if no reward should come, I could be satisfied with the consciousness of having done my best. I did not, however, anticipate that dissatisfaction with any act or acts of mine would cause the Senate to withhold from other officers a promotion which they have well deserved, and which has been promptly granted in similar circumstances to others.

"I therefore respectfully suggest, Mr. President, that your appointment of these officers about whom there is no discussion, should at once be renewed, in order that they may thus secure their promotion under the Personnel Bill to which they are entitled, and without creating confusion.

"Very respectfully,
(Signed) W. T. SAMPSON
"To the President of the United States of America.

"Through the Secretary of the Navy."

George W. Waitt of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Spring = Neckwear.

IMPERIAL SCARFS.

They are well named. In size they are "great" and they will tie once, twice or thrice over, and produce a new effect every time you tie it, vary the formation by a kink here, a wrinkle there to every whim of your taste. The silks just to hand are the richest in material and pattern that we have yet secured. The designs are striking and exclusive and include some very bold and striking figures.

KNOTTED SCARFS.

Don't hesitate to wear a scarf ready-tied if you do not want to bother with tying one yourself. Art often excels in this respect. The highest skill in Neckwear business is exercised in making up scarfs in natural or graceful knots. Nothing handsomer can be imagined than the new Sailor Knots and Spring Puffs just to hand. They combine the dainty and the opulent in form and the richest lot of silks we have ever shown.
