DEATH OF MR. W. H. MUNN
 Another Confederate soldier has passed over the river and is resting under the shade of the trees. Mr. W. H. Munn an esteemed citizen of this county passed away Wednesday morning. He was a good citizen, and will be missed by his family. He was the father of Mr. Roger Munn. The RECORD offers its sympathy to the family, and will be pleased to publish a suitable sketch when furnished by those who knew Mr. Munn and can therefore pay a just tribute to his memory.

BROKEN CABLE

It is quite "provokin" to have a cable broken which gives service to a large number of telephones subscribers, but such is the case here. A tree was cut, and fell on a splendid cable of the telephone Company's breaking it, and aside from the inconvenience, means quite a sum for repairs. This tree was on Main street Warrenton, and we presume was cut by order of the town, and accidently fell on cable.

MISS ALLEN TO SING

In addition to the attraction that Mrs. Renshaw's Reading will be on Friday night, February 9th, the "Red Roses" have secured the presence of the charming Miss Louise Allen, of Richmond, who with her beautiful Soprano voice will delight all who are present. Our own Warrenton singer —Mr. John Harriss will also add to the pleasure of the occasion.

THESE ARE

HOGS—NOT PIGS

Mr. Jack Haithecock, of Six Pound, was in town Wednesday and told us that he had killed a couple of "pigs". These pigs were sixteen months old. One was a full blood Berkshire, the other a full blood Duroc Jersey. They were a part of a lot of eight, six being killed before Christmas. The Berkshire weighed 420 pounds, the Duroc 475. He called them "pigs".

OUR TOBACCO MARKET

Our tobacco Market has had several good breaks recently—excellent breaks considering the conditions of the roads. Prices have been very satisfactory. Warrenton offers every inducement for those who have tobacco to sell.

MARRAGE

In the Warren Circuit parsonage last Sunday at 1 o'clock, Mr. Howard Stevenson, of Norlina, and Miss Martha Loyd, of Warren Plains, were happily married, Rev. R. H. Broom officiating. A few personal friends witnessed the ceremony.

COBWEB PARTY

A "Cobweb" party will be given under the auspices of the "Red Roses" in the old Armory (Friday night) to girls and boys of the "teen" age. There will be games of various kinds and much pleasure is anticipated. Admission 25 cents per couple.

MAUD POWELL—VIOLINIST

Maud Powell, America's greatest violinist, and one of the greatest in the world, will appear in Raleigh, Tuesday evening of February 5th. She comes under the auspices of the Raleigh public school teachers.—Adv't.

SILVER TEA

The Silver Tea under the auspices of the "White Roses," held at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Tarwater, last night (Wednesday night) was quite a success, and the evening was much enjoyed.

ARCOLA ITEMS

Hurrah for the Record and its worthy Editor! May the greatest success be your. We shall try to give you our best support in reporting the latest news from our little village. The sale at Mr. R. L. Capps' store was well attended Friday and Saturday. Splendid bargains were offered, especially in dry goods and clothing. Mrs. Mary King is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Tharrington, for a few days. Mr. Richard Hunter visited relatives at Brinkleyville since our last writing. Mrs. Linda Arrington visited in the home of Mr. Tom Tharrington Sunday afternoon. Miss Ethel King visited the Misses Alston Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Davis are very proud of the new baby boy who arrived Saturday to brighten their happy home. Misses Hattie and Maude King were the guest of Misses Thelma and Arline Alston Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Capps have our sincere sympathy while they are in quarantine because of measles. We hope they all will get along nicely. Little Rebecca Davis is visiting her little cousins at Dalkeith, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunter. Mr. Walter Ball, of Embro, and Mrs.

Ella Mabry and Mr. Perkins, of Holister, were recent visitors at Mr. Dick Conns. The Young People's Missionary Society will meet just after Sunday school the first Sunday afternoon. We hope to have every member present as business of importance will be decided upon. A cordial invitation is extended to all at all times to any who would like to attend. Water is slowly rising in some of the wells. Some have the pleasure of hauling water yet.
