MARMADUKE ITEMS

We are informed that G. Vernon Duke has recovered sufficiently to return to Spencer where he will resume his work on the Railroad.

Mrs. Mary C. Davis will celebrate her 79th birthday, Feb. 5th, with a wild turkey and other appetizing delicacies.

Mrs. Alice King and Mrs. Laura Duke Gill are spending several days at their father's home here. Saturday night their husbands, Messrs. Russell King and Earnest Gill visited them. The incessant downpour of rain prevented their return Monday morning.

Mrs. T. W. Davis, Mrs. M. C. Duke, Misses Sally Powell and Ruby Clark spent an afternoon with Mrs. Jim Cheek in her new home last week.

Mr. Stanley Powell, wife and two little daughters spent Sunday afternoon with his parents here.

Rev. Mr. Plybon expects to fill his regular appointment here Sunday at 11 A. M.

We are glad to see Mr. M. T. Duke out again after suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Our roads have been cut up so awfully by the continuous hauling of lumber all the fall and winter that they are almost impassable in some places.

Mr. Chas. A. Haitcock and family spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lola Bennett near Warrenton.

We extend congratulations to the many readers of the Warren Record on having this delightful source of news in their homes twice a week now.

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

TAKE Cardui The Woman's Tonic

Cardui helps women in time of greatest need, because it contains ingredients which act specifically, yet gently, on the weakened womanly organs. So, if you feel discouraged, blue, out-of-sorts, unable to do your household work, on account of your condition, stop worrying and give Cardui a trial. It has helped thousands of women,—why not you? Try Cardui. E-71

Yes, Gentlemen-All, Clean—CLEAN CLEAR Through!

You have to go some to keep up a reputation as a Southern gentleman—a SOVEREIGN—King of Them All. Yes, sir! I bet I get more attention than any youngster on earth!

The folks in the factory are always at me to keep clean and sweet and pure.

"You come from the finest Southern stock of Virginia and the Carolinas," they say. "You are made of the best tobacco in the world. You are clothed in a fine, clean, white suit of genuine imported paper. Keep clean; keep clean; keep clean clear through."

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood! You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

So a clean, sweet, wholesome cigarette makes heaps of friends down South." And you, friend, I would like to know you too! So here's another big thing to think about—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
