STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA—County of Warren, Jan., 1917. I, R. T. Watson, Cashier of the above-named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. T. WATSON, Cashier.
 Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 9 day of January, 1917.
 W. N. BOYD,
 Notary Public.
 Correct—Attest: W. B. Boyd, E. S. Allen, Tasker Polk, Directors.

Just think this over a minute.—How many friends have you? Not the fellows who borrow from you—I mean the chaps who will fight for you! Fellows who believe in you—who stick by you through thick and thin. You can count them on one hand, can't you? But listen to this.—I have several million down South here.

I've played fair. I've never lied to my friends, nor cheated them, nor double-crossed them, nor held out on them.

They know me by my right name—SOVEREIGN. A true gentleman of the South, born and bred of the real Southern stock. I mingle the blood of Virginia and Carolina—the best in the world—the choicest, sweetest, ripest, smoothest tobacco you ever smoked.

You Folks of the South KNOW Good blood!
You Folks of the South KNOW Good tobacco!

I have friends down South, and I keep them—because quality does tell. And it means a whole lot when I say:

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
