DR. TAYLOR'S OLD TIMES IN WARREN

Stirring Poem and An Article On Making Sunshine Have Lessons For Us All.

Let me live, Oh Mighty Master,
Such a life as man should know,
Tasting triumph and disaster,
Joy—and not too much of woe;
Let me run the gamut over,
Let me fight and love and laugh,
And when I'm beneath the clover
Let this be my epitaph:

Here lies one who took his chances
In the busy world of men,
Battled luck and circumstances,
Fought and fell, and fought again,
Won sometimes, but did not crowing,
Lost sometimes, but didn't wail,
Took his beating, but kept going,
Never let his courage fail.

He was fallible and human,
Therefore loved and understood
Both his fellowmen and women,
Whether good—or not so good;
Knew his spirit undiminished,
Never lay down on a friend,
Played the game till it was finished,
Lived a sportsman to the end."

—Unknown.

Make Sunshine

They that bring sunshine into the lives of others, shall live in the sunshine themselves; therefore, resolve, each day I will do at least one kind deed.

They who think of making sunshine for themselves, and are not careful to make sunshine for others will have but little sunshine in this life.

Selfishness is the sure way to unhappiness. Many are unconsciously selfish; it is therefore important that each one should carefully examine himself with reference to this matter, and put out of his life every selfish thought, motive, word, and deed. The best way to accomplish this is by going at least one kind, unselfish deed every day. In this way the unselfish habit will be formed, you will make sunshine for others, and live every day in the sunshine yourself.

The following clipped from "Youth's Kind Words" illustrates the fact that it is not only important to make sunshine for human beings; but for the lower animals are also dependent on us for their sunshine, as, if we make it for them, we will also get the benefit of it.

The Motive.

"I never saw anything so heartless in my life," was the indignant exclamation. "The poor old horse was so lame and starved that it was scarcely able to stand—and he was making it go along with him."

A quiet voice took up the unfinished tale.

"Yes. But if you noticed, he was leading it along very slowly and easily, and resting it often. I happen to learn that he had just bought it from a cruel owner, and was taking it home to feed and doctor and rest up. It was not really old—only ill-used. Wait a few weeks, and you will not know that beast. It's the old man's speciality—renovating run-down horses, and then putting them into good hands. Oh, yes—he makes his living that way; but it seems to me he is earning the 'blessed are the merciful' crown at the same time."

It was not a pleasant or edifying sight—that pitiable animal and its new owner—until the motive came out. It is easy to condemn unlearned the one who looks in the wrong. It is not easy to forgive one's self and regain one's self respect when we find that behind the thing we frowned upon was a beautiful motive—a pure, high, noble motive that the angels might smile upon with approval.

After some such mistake as this we can be more readily say, with Dickens, that "in our judgements, as in our doings, we must bear and forbear." If we are not careful to do this, we are in danger of disregarding and disobeying the other, more solemn and stern mandate, from a higher authority still: "Judge not."

A PRIZE FOR THE BEST ARTICLE

Charlotte Man Offers Fifty Dollar Bond As Prize for Best Paper on Conservation.

The following letter from the State Food Administrator to County Food Administrator W. G. Rogers is of interest. It is urged by Mr. Rogers that Warren boys and girls compete for this prize. If you do not win, you are strengthened by your endeavor, but why now win and be strengthened in mind and helped financially. Try it!

November 12th, 1917.

To all County Food Administrators: Gentlemen:—

Mr. J. B. Ivey of Charlotte State Merchants Representative in co-operation with the Food Administration, has offered a prize of $50 Liberty Loan to the North Carolinian who submits to him by December 1st the best article on Food Conservation. This article must be limited to one foolscap page of typewritten matter.

I am calling your attention to this patriotic offer by Mr. Ivey because it may be used in your county to stimulate interest in and extend the knowledge of Food Conservation work among your people.

As you no doubt learned during the food pledge campaign, lack of knowledge is the greatest obstacle and handicap which we have in our work. Every means possible should and must be used to bring our people to an intelligent and sympathetic understanding of the war situation and to a realization of their individual responsibility in the war emergency.

Mr. Ivey's offer should be a most effective means in helping accomplish these results. It may be that some one in your county will win the bond.

Get your people interested in it and start everyone talking and writing.

Very truly yours,
HENRY A. PAGE,
Food Administrator.

ENTERTAINMENT AT NORLINA 20

Tuesday Evening, November 20, Program of Uncommon Excellence at Norlina.

The next Lyceum Entertainment at the Norlina School Auditorium is the Winona Entertainers, Tuesday evening, November 20th, at eight o'clock.

The entertainment is given by a company of three talented people with a program of uncommon excellence, consisting of readings, vocal solos and duets, impersonations in make-up that is finished with a bright little sketch. The program is of unusual versatility and strength. The Winona Entertainers are:

Miss Josephine Greilick, reader, musical monologist, singer and accompanist, possesses a charming personality and a keen knowledge of the requirements of lyceum work. She will commend herself to any audience.

Mr. Burrows Caldwell, a young man of more than ordinary talent in the line of impersonations; he is also a musical monologist, and in make-up character impersonations Mr. Elias Day, his teacher, considers him one of the most talented young men on the platform.

Miss Elisabeth Chaney, the violinist has had successful experience in lyceum work. She is a charming and pretty girl who has made a reputation for real ability on her chosen instrument.

Your pleasure in the entertainment will be enhanced by the electric lights recently installed in the school auditorium.

NOW—NEADS DR. MILES INSTEAD OF MR. MORTON MILES.

The friends of Dr. Morton C. Miles are congratulating him upon a successful examination before the State Pharmaceutical Board at Raleigh and his friends are also glad that he will continue to stick to homefolks. He is working with the Burwell Drug Co.

Mr. F. B. Newell, Government Demonstration agent, has handed us for publication the fortunate and progressive men who are to have the orchards to be set out this month under Mr. Newell direction.

All variety of fruit trees will be in evidence in these orchards, and they will be an added advantage to any property in the County. The list follows:

Dr. T. B. Williams, Ridgeway; R. M. White, Norlina; R. E. Davis, Creek; Sam Davis, Creek; James A. Ridout, Manson; W. E. Twitty, Warrenton; J. D. Palmer, Warrenton; Andrew Wilker, Warren Plains; Henry Thompson, Macon; E. P. Pitts, Macon; John D. Newell, Warrenton; F. B. Newell, Sr., Warrenton; J. B. Davis, Alston; W. T. Paschall, Wise; W. B. These orchards are to be "set out" this month, and as they develop will be pruned, sprayed and worked under the control of the Government through Mr. F. B. Newell, Warren's agent. Mr. Newell though having several other orchards to supervise in Warren promises to make these as well as the others under his care, ideal orchards.

With its advance in hog raising, the importation of pure blood cattle, with its increase in orchards and its progress in diversification Warren is developing rapidly as one of the best of the Old North State's counties.

EMMANUEL CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING

Morning Prayer at 11 a. m. and Evening Prayer at 7:30; Armenia and Syrian Relief.

In the morning the collection will be devoted to the Armenian and Syrian Relief Fund.

It is now or never! There are over two million destitute survivors and orphans and it will require thirty million dollars to tide them through this coming winter.

Are we doing what we can to help them? Can we save our souls as Christians if we neglect them. "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Come to Church forgetting on this occasion all business propositions and local church needs, and give as the Lord hath prospered you. Make checks payable to Cleveland H. Dodge, Treasurer, 1 Madison Avenue, New York.

E. W. BAXTER, Rector.

TWILIGHT THOUGHTS

(By Mrs. B. P. Terrell)

Shadows fast are falling,
Darkness covers all;
Our loved ones gather 'round us
In sitting room and hall.

We talk of war and Kaiser,
Of President and peace;
And of our boys far, far from home,
Wishing for their quick release.

We discuss high cost of living,
The pangs it brings to the poor;
Each one reasons and wonders,
Why trouble comes to his door.

Our Lord has a hand in the battle,
He'll win for the one in the right;
He'll help our boys in the struggle,
The future will be happy and bright.

Then when our boys again are home,
And each mother's heart is glad;
We all should bow our heads in praise,
And forget we ever were sad.

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, RIDGEWAY, SUNDAY.

On Sunday 18th, evening prayer at 3 p. m. The collection will go to help the Armenian and Syrian Relief.

WAR Y. M. C. A. FORECAST FOR CO.

Town Business Committee Raise About $400.00 In Wednesday Morning Canvas.

Messrs. John Graham, H. A. Mosley, J. G. Ellis and C. R. Rodwell composing the Business Men's Canvassing Committee for the War Y. M. C. A. Fund in Warrenton, raised over four hundred dollars in their canvass Wednesday morning.

The Town committee will not report until Friday night at 8:00 o'clock in the Court House, but indications received from members of the committee in different sections of Warrenton forecast about two hundred dollars from this source.

It is confidently expected that the neighboring towns and country will do equally as well, and there is every reason to believe that Warren will well subscribe her share.

Reports shows that the schools of the county have readily seized upon the 10c for each pupil plan and indications point that the fund will be materially strengthened from this source.

Reports of the county have not begun to come in as yet, but it is believed that the committee through the county will be actively engaged in this great work today and tomorrow and that the total for old Warren will reflect credit upon the patriotism of its citizens.

LET'S NOT STOP BUILDING ROADS

Government Urges Good Road Building as a Wartime Economy at War Convention

At the War Convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America at Atlantic City the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It is essential that all the transportation facilities of the nation should be brought to the highest state of efficiency in order that foodstuffs may be moved most economically from the farm to the market, that manufactured products be moved at the lowest cost from the factory to the consumer, and,

Whereas, The Public Highways offer a good prompt and economical means to supplement transportation by rail and water, therefore

Be it Resolved, That the prompt improvement of public highways is important and should be forwarded in every proper way.—Willys-Overland Starter.

PLOUGH DEEP

(By Jack W. Allen)

Plough deep to find the gold, my friends,
Plough deep to find the gold;
Your farms have treasures rich and sure,
Unmeasured and untold

Clothe with green old Carolina's hills,
Her broad fields sow with grain,
Nor search the Sacramento's rills
For California gain.

Our lands overflow with corn and bread
With treasures all untold,
Would we but give the ploughshare speed
And depth to find the gold.

Earth is grateful to her sons,
For all their care and toil
Nothing yields such large returns
As drained and deepened soil

Science, lend thy kindly aid,
Her riches to unfold
Moved by plough or move by spade
Stir deep to find the gold.

Dig deep to find the gold, my friends,
Dig deep to find the gold
Your farms have treasures rich and sure,
Unmeasured and untold.
