NORTH CAROLINA "OVER THE TOP" IN WAR SAVINGS STAMPS JUNE 28

President Wilson Proclaims June 28 National War Savings Day.—Governor Bickett Designates June 23-28 War Savings Week.—Every Person Will Be Asked to Pledge.

W. S. S. TAKE THE BOYS "OVER THE TOP"

The next big campaign that must be put over with the same success that met the recent Red Cross and Liberty Loan drives is the War Savings Campaign. This must be done, President Wilson says, on or before Friday, June 28. He has proclaimed that day National War Savings Day and has called on every man, woman and child to subscribe all that in his honest opinion he will be able to pay during the remainder of the year to the War Savings Campaign.

When Mr. Vanderlip and his associates decided over a month ago that the War Savings Campaign should be made to go "over the top" now, instead of taking a year and a month to do it, they sought a plan by which this could be done. The State of Nebraska furnished the plan, for this state had already subscribed several millions dollars over its quota and had raised over 50 per cent of its sales.

Mr. Vanderlip at once set about to know how Nebraska did it. He called into conference Mr. Ward M. Burgess, State Director of War Savings for Nebraska, and Mr. Kiddow, Mr. Burgess's right-hand man. Together they studied the plan in the light of a national plan, and with the experience of the two men who had worked it to a successful issue, they obviated mistakes and such features as to make it even more thorough and practicable for other States. Consequently, not only North Carolina but other states of the Union have been asked to adopt this plan and put over the War Savings Campaign June 28.

When Col. F. H. Fries, War Savings Director of North Carolina, was called to New York several weeks ago, with other state directors, to have this plan put before them, he was asked if North Carolina could do it. "Sure," said Colonel Fries, "what Nebraska can do, North Carolina can do. We'll put it over if it takes all the bunting and the flags and the drums in the whole South to do it."

With this conviction and determination, Colonel Fries came back and set about to perfecting the plans to make them most suitable to North Carolina conditions. These plans have been presented through conferences held at convenient places in the state to the county chairmen and other War Savings Workers. Every county chairman has in his hands a detailed copy of the plans, and he has been advised to follow the instructions step by step as given him to avoid confusion and to do the work with the greatest possible ease and efficiency.

Only one important change in the national plan did Colonel Fries think best to make for North Carolina. That was to make the campaign last a week instead of a day. Therefore, the week beginning June 23 continuing through June 28 has been designated as North Carolina War Savings Week. The Governor of North Carolina has issued a proclamation calling for every citizen of the state to observe this week as War Savings Week by subscribing at this time all that he will be able to buy during the remainder of the year.

The week begins on Sunday, June 23, with a state-wide appeal for War Savings in the churches and Sunday Schools. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, a house-to-house canvass will be made in every township in the state to secure War Savings pledges. Every taxpayer or householder will make his pledge or give his excuse for not doing so. A record of every person's pledge will be taken and kept. On Friday, June 28, the drive will culminate in a War Savings rally held at every school house in the state. The State Director has called on every person in the school district to attend this meeting either to celebrate the occasion of the township's subscribing its quota or if that be not the case, to finish raising its quota. In other words, there is but one thing for any township to do on that day, and that is to subscribe its quota to the War Savings Campaign. Likewise, there is but one thing for every person to do, and that is to do his duty to the War Savings Campaign, which is his utmost. The Government expects no less of every man, woman and child in the state on this occasion.

A YOUNG BRITON'S PRAYER

The following poem delivered in Chicago the other day show how war in spite of all of its horrors breeds a spirit of self-sacrifice and unselfishness. We find this young Briton in a time when he seriously needed help calling on God to help his comrades:

Nor for death's quick release,
Nor even for the tardy feet
Of stretcher-bearers' bring aid.

He prayed;
Cast helpless on the bloody sod;
"Don't trouble now, O God, for me
But keep the boys. Go forward with them, God!
O speed thro' Camerons to victory!"
The kilts flashed on: "Well played,"
he sighed, "Well played."
Just so he prayed.

W.S.S.—
Notice To All Red Cross Members
All Red Cross members whose membership expires in June are asked to remit membership fee to Mrs. John G. Ellis, Sec'y Warren Chapter, at once.

He prayed;
Not that the pain should cease,
Nor yet for water in the parching heat,

BATTLE GROUND A SLAUGHTER-HOUSE

GERMANS LAUNCH ANOTHER HEAVY MASS ATTACK

Allied Guns Do Terrible Execution; Lines Hold At Ends, But Germans Make Small Gains in Center; Fiercing Fighting Yet

London, June 10—"Throughout the night and morning the battle raged along the new front of attack with unabated fury," says the Reuter correspondent at French headquarters whose dispatch was filed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. "On the wings the enemy was still held on practically the same line, in spite of his persistent and reckless attempts to advance."

Gen. Pershing's Report.

Washington, June 10—Gen. Pershing's communique today reports the repulse of heavy enemy attacks in the vicinity of Bouresches, with severe enemy losses. There was lively artillery fighting in the Chateau-Thierry and Picardy regions.

The communique, dated June 9, follows: "Section A—Northwest of Chateau-Thierry the enemy made a fresh attack during the night on our position in the vicinity of Bouresches. The attack which was preceded by artillery preparations and accompanied by heavy machine gun fire, broke down with severe losses to the assailants. In this region and in Picardy there was lively artillery fighting."

"On the Marne sector the day was marked by decreased artillery activity."

Marshal Haig's Statement.

London, June 10—"Beyond artillery activity on both sides in the different sectors," says Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters in France tonight, "there is nothing to report from the British front."

The Germans in the center of their new attack on the front between Montdidier and Noyon have gained additional ground against the French, but on both the right and left wings they are being held. In violent successive attacks Monday, they captured the villages of Mery, Belloy and St. Maure, and also pressed forward and gained a footing in the village of Marquellise, the last name place representing the deepest point of penetration since the offensive began—between 5 and 6 miles.

W.S.S.—
"Support the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States," is a phrase that silences partisan critics. It is appearing regularly in the press of the county as the period of election approaches.

JUNE 23-28 ACTIVE W. S. S. CAMPAIGN

TWELVE TOWNSHIPS EACH TO BE ORGANIZED SOON

Township Chairmen Looking After Details To Make May 23 to 28 A Result Producing War Savings Period

Uncle Sam has two financial legs upon which to march to Berlin. One is the Liberty Loan; the other is the War Savings plan; the leg which is inclined to drag a bit.

To help Uncle Sam's war anatomy, the State is to make June 23-28 a War Savings period. Every individual of any means whatsoever is to be asked to do his all to strengthen the Giant of Finance, which is the backbone of patriotism.

The County organization for this drive has been perfected by Chairman Graham, and the township chairmen are to organize their working committees from June 10-15th. In order to assure success in this campaign, each township chairman is to keep in close touch with his patriot co-workers and the township chairmen in touch with the situation over the County.

As first step in this work, every taxpayer in Warren has been listed; their taxable property given the township chairmen. Everyone will be asked to pledge as much as possible—"come across" with as noble a spirit as our boys "went across."

After completion of the organization in each township by local chairman who appoints canvassers, the workers of the entire county are to press to here for a conference on June 22nd. On Sunday following, War Savings sermons will be preached all over the State. Then on Tuesday, June 25th, starts the house to house canvass to secure pledges.

In this War Savings plan, school house meetings are to be held, attended by everyone of each community wherein speaking appointments are made. Every means is to be employed by the best speaking talent of the County and of two speakers of State note, by the newspapers and by the patriotic people generally to arouse our people to their opportunity to invest and of their duty to save.

As first step in this plan was the postmaster's conference held June 3rd; the second was the township chairmen's meeting held Saturday. The following gentlemen have been selected to actively urge this work:

- Fishing Creek.....Matthew Duke
- Fork.....R. E. Williams
- Judkins.....Walter Vaughan
- Sandy Creek.....R. J. Stewart
- Shocco.....J. William Limer
- Nutbush.....Jake Kimball
- Smith Creek.....T. Alex Baxter
