Nuptial music was furnished by Miss Sarah Robinson who sang, love you truly," Miss Sarah Fitts, of ennessee, accompanying her.

To the strains of Mendelsohns wed ding march played by Mrs. J. H. May feld, grandmother of the bride, the bridal party entered the parlor led by the bridesmaids, Miss Nannie Robinson, wearing white net over pink and satin and carrying sweet-peas, and Miss Louise Land, of New York, in shell pink beaded georgette and chiffon, carrying sweet-peas.

Next came the matron of honor, Mrs. S. P. Read, gowned in electric blue beaded georgette over pink satin carrying sweet-peas. She was followed by the groom and best man, Mr. Horace Robinson. As they took thei places the maid of honor, Miss Pannie Robinson, sister of the bride came in vearing white net over blue satin, carrying a handsome bouquet of La-France roses.

Sweet little Lalla Fitts Palmer was ring bearer and after her came the lovely bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Ceorge Robinson, who gave her away. She was exquisitely gowned in white crepe-de-chine over white satin with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower boquet of white sweet-peas and valley lillies. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to Norlina where

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer took No. 4 for Washington, D. C., amidst showers of rice and many good wishes.

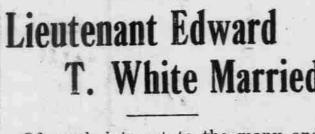

The presents were many, both useful and handsome, attesting the popularity of the happy young couple.

Corn Crop Needs Attention Says Newell

The cotton crop looks fine to date. The tobacco crop looks well with the exception that the stand is not as good as it should be. The corn crop does not look good.

Farmers, work your corn and replant-corn will make allr ight up to July 12th for I have tried it. I want to impress upon every farmer in Warren county the necessity of planting corn and working it intensively during 1918. The farmer who fails to
