IF

(By Ruyard: Kipling)

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken,
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And —which is more— you'll be a Man my son!

THE GUNS SILENCED

After four years and three months of destruction, the stride of Mars has halted. The Imperial German is no more—militarism is routed. In its stead, if we read indications correctly, has come a new government, the answer to the voice of democracy.

The glad tidings of victory send a thrill to every nerve and sinew. Eternal justice has made known its voice, and the sons of a free world can rejoice that the spirit of Right has emerged triumphant.

The days of the past four years have been crowded with sorrow and destruction, but today we begin to rebuild, we catch the vision of everlasting peace based upon a brotherhood of man, we breathe the spirit of the reconstruction, we start upon the paths of pleasant peace again.

We may rejoice that the policy of our leaders has guided us straight and we should give thanks to God who has given us the Victory and entrusted to us the new order of things.

THE ANSWER TO CHEER

The days will be long to many men in service now—the fire to keep physically fit, to be ready for the Hun, dies with peace. War becomes guard duty, no pulsing, vibrant, interesting game. There will be long hours in camp, and out before the boys come home.

The seven organizations of cheer of the United War Work campaign have a larger work to do. They must dispel the gloom and keep clean the men who are now waiting to demobilize. Their sphere of service is more important today than it was a month ago.

The idea of the seven relief organizations united under the War Work campaign head is to carry cheer, comfort insofar as possible, and home to the men Out There.

Home influence must not hang alone upon the doors of the cottage, but must exert its control when the boy is face to face with temptation and evil, far from loved ones. Here is where the Christian Chain of Cheer puts the arm of loved ones around the shoulders of the one most dear to some American mother, and leads the feet in another direction.

The United War Work's seven agencies function beautifully in their aims for the best influence of home wherever the flag flies. The sphere they fill is essential; the need for the support of the public urgent.

Let the dollars create smiles, comfort and home influence for Sammy from cantonment to front line trench. Bid the gold go when approached during week November 11-18th.

ALL IN THE STATE OF MIND

(By Walter D. Wintle)

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't,
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch, you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out of the world we find
Success begins with a fellow's will,
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise,
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins,
Is the man who thinks he can.

—W.S.S.—

Peace or war, that United War Fund drive must go over the top in style next week.

FOUND BOOKS DEEP DOWN IN DUG-OUTS

American Library Association Books Sure Reach Soldiers, Says Raymond Fosdick

"I found the books of the American Library Association everywhere in France," says Raymond Fosdick, chairman of the National Commission on Training Camp Activities, who has just returned from an extended trip overseas, during which he conducted a thorough investigation of the work being done by the various war work agencies.

"I found them in dugouts thirty or forty feet below ground, in cow-barns where shrapnel had blown parts of the roof away, as well as in the substantial huts and tents far back from the firing line.

"I have found them in hospitals and dressing stations; in scattered villages in the training area where our men are billeted and even in the remote parts of France where the forestry units are carrying out their lonely, but efficient and essential work. Your books are in continual demand from the time the soldiers arrive in camp in America until they come back home after service over there."

The A. L. A. library service has grown tremendously within the past few months and millions of books have been distributed wherever soldiers and sailors are quartered, on sea or land.

"NEED ONLY CREED" SAYS GIPSY SMITH

"Need is the only creed over there," declared Gipsy Smith, the famous evangelist, speaking to enormous audiences in southeastern cities, where mass meetings have been held in the interest of the United War Work campaign to open on November 11.

FLORIDA NEWSPAPERS PLEDGE ASSISTANCE

Representatives of Florida daily and weekly newspapers in attendance at a luncheon held in connection with a conference of United War Work campaign workers, pledged themselves to concentrate behind the big drive to open on November 11.

Their action puts the full strength of the Florida newspaper fraternity in the field and in every section of the state the public will be informed through the columns of the press just what the aims and objects of the seven great war work agencies are in this coming campaign to raise $170,500,000.

SOUTHEAST HEROES IN FRANCE GET SUPPLIES AT LESS THAN WHOLESALE PRICES OVER HERE

RED TRIANGLE SHOULDERS EXPENSE OF TRANSPORTATION FROM MANUFACTURERS TO CANTEENS IN FRANCE—SYSTEM REDUCED TO FINAL BASIS AND RESULTS NOW ARE VERY GRATIFYING.

The Americans overseas with Pershing have facilities for combatting the high cost of living that are absolutely beyond the reach of civilians on this side of the Atlantic. Even their small luxuries, such as tobacco, biscuits, cakes and similar articles, are obtainable at prices that are considerably lower than those charged by retailers in American cities.

This is made possible because the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. has taken over all post exchanges in France at the direct request of General Pershing, so that the Red Triangle is now conducting the greatest business enterprise in the world.

Tobacco and other "supplementary" supplies are distributed to the boys in khaki at exactly wholesale prices. The "Y" makes not a penny of profit and even shoulders the financial loss entailed by footing the bills for transportation from the manufacturer to the canteens at the front.

The American troopers can buy Fatima cigarettes for 60 centimes, or about 8 cents; Camels, 35 centimes, or about 6 cents; Sweet Caporals, 20 centimes, or about 3 cents; Lucky Strikes, 30 centimes, or about 5 cents; Marads, 65 centimes or about 11 cents; Bull Durham, 25 centimes, or about 4 cents; Prince Albert, 40 centimes, or about 7 cents; Velvet, 30 centimes, or about 5 cents; Star Chewing, 35 centimes, or about 6 cents.

Capt. George M. Lynch, former assistant commandant at the Florida Military College, Gainesville, Fla., but now in the Red Triangle Service, has made several trips overseas and has investigated thoroughly the conditions existing in the post exchanges under Y. M. C. A. management. He declares that while some difficulty was experienced at first, prices have been stabilized and the boys are getting their supplies at cost.
