Warrenton, N. Carolina, April 14th, 1919.

Editor Warren Record

My dear sir: At the request of the new Director of War Savings Division I have consented to continue as Director for Warren county, and through your excellent paper I count on your patriotic assistance so generously rendered during the past year. The War is on, but Government expenses on account of our boys continue. Thrift and habits of economy and savings are indispensable. I earnestly request all my assistants in every line to reenlist for 1919 and to make as good a record as we did last year. For our encouragement I append an abridged statement of our last year's work:

Amt. allotted to North Carolina, $48,666,380—$20 per capita; Sales of North Carolina, $21,085,388—per capita sales $8.66. Standing of State in the Union in sales 18th; per capital sales in Union, $32nd.

North Carolina lead all of the Southern States except Tennessee and Texas.

Warren County's allotment, 445,800; pledges secured, $300,000—68.28 per cent.; sales, $225,770—50.65 per cent. Per capita wealth, $347.57; per capita invest W. S. S., 10.12 per cent. Per cent. per capita to wealth, 2.91 per cent. Standing in State sales, 48th; standing in per capita wealth, 43rd.

LUTHERAN DRIVE A SUCCESS Big Fund Raised

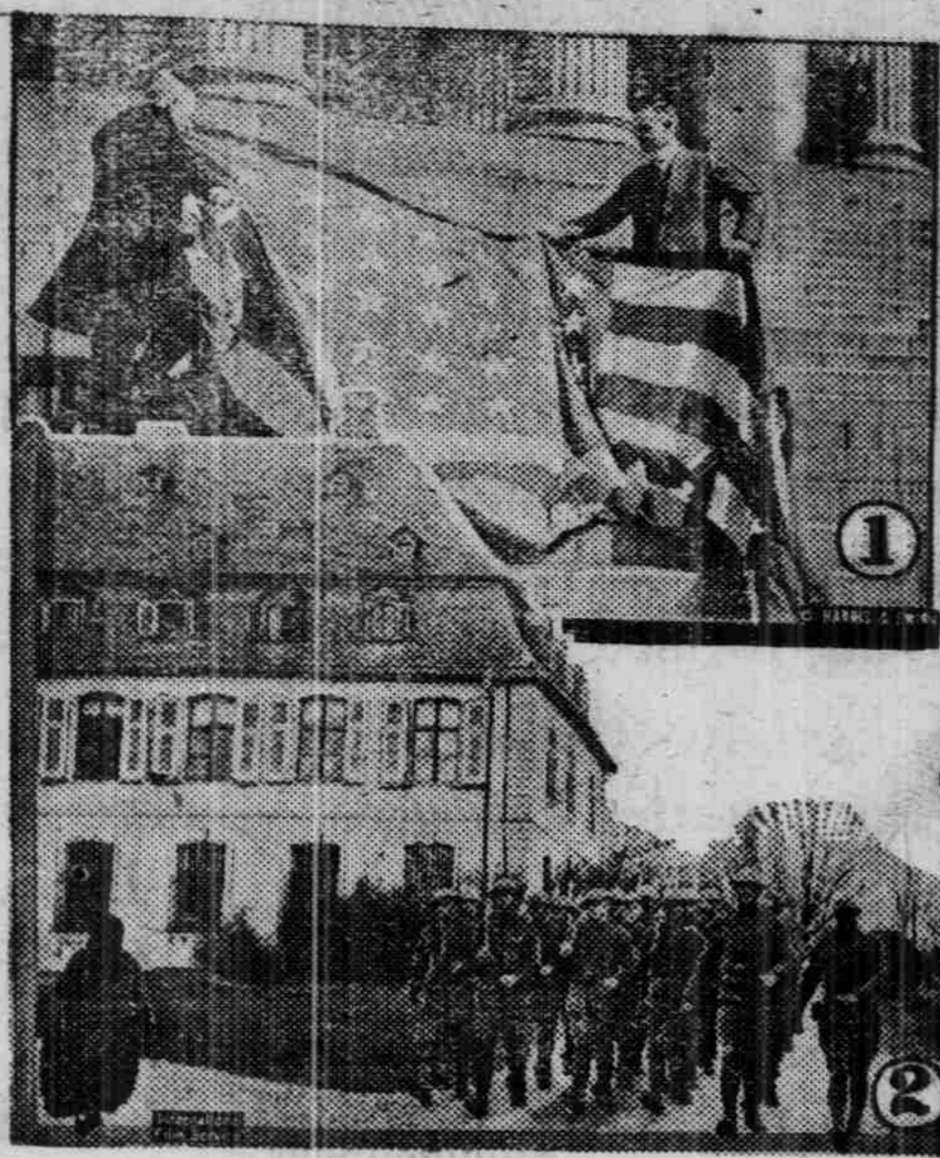

Reports received at headquarters in Chicago indicate success of the campaign for Three Million Dollars in Liberty Bonds by Lutherans of the Missouri Synod of the United States. This sum is to be the foundation for a permanent Endowment Fund to care for incapacitated pastors, professors and teachers or widows and orphans.

The actual drive for bonds took place Sunday, March 30th, 1919, from 2 to 6 p. m. Fifty-thousand workers throughout the United States were actively engaged. First reports show an average contribution per congregation of more than $2000.00.

It is peculiarly fitting that Liberty Bonds bought to help our soldiers and sailors in the war should now—the war being over—be devoted to help keep veterans of the Cross free from want.

The purpose and plan of the campaign have received the warm commendation of the Government. St. Paul's Lutheran church, at Ridgeway, has completed organization for the campaign. Mr. E. S. Hecht, of Norlina, is campaign manager.

Early reports indicate that the congregation's quota of $750.00 will be liberally oversubscribed.

WILLIS FAULK ALSTON

Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alston, of this city, now with the Medical Department of the 322nd Infantry in France.

20 Due de la Buffa, Nice, France, March 7th, 1919.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Alston:

I am sure you will be astonished to hear from a stranger, but while your dear son Willis Faulk was on a visit to Nice we made his acquaintance and we had the honor to entertain him at our flat; in fact we became so friendly that unlike most of the American soldiers, he felt pleasure in coming to spend nearly every evening with us, and we were always delighted to have him, as we found him such a bright, intelligent young man. My wife and I have become very fond of him, especially as he is such a splendid example of the U. S. A. youth, and I am convinced he will make his way in the world and you need have no fear for his future.

We had some trips together and I am sure he will tell you all about our trip to Monte Carlo and the Italian border as also our visit to Monaco which was a wonderful experience for him.

We shall be in correspondence so that if I can do anything in my power for you or yours you may command it and depend that it shall be done.

My correspondence is so large you must excuse a short note and scribble, but I wanted to let you know he was well and full of spirits (not whiskey) and like a boy let out of school.

My (American) wife and I (an Englishman) hope to come across him again, but naturally his only desire is to see Old Liberty first and meet you all again in good health.

I hope for your sake this will soon be. I'm sure when that happy day arrives you will kill the fatted calf in his honor. You must be proud to have such a brave, intelligible, reliable good son.

With kindest regard Ever yours faithfully HENRY IW. RAPHAEL.

No Chance Now for Huns

On the first of March the Central Empires had only 1,125,000 soldiers in the field, while the United States and Allies together had 16,700,000. The figures are given out by Gen. March.

Ruling County Health Officer

On Complaint, Pig Pens Within 300 Feet of Dwelling Are Subject To Immediate Removal

In view of complaints being made to me in such frequency about pig-pens maintained near dwellings, I have made the following ruling, which is published herewith so as to give ample warning to all concerned. This ruling will be followed impartially, and those maintaining pig-pens are advised herewith to conduct their pens accordingly:

Ruling.—When complaint is brought, the Health Officer will rule that all pig pens maintained, on owners premises or otherwise, within a distance of 300 feet from inhabited dwellings, are dangerous to health.....

Pig pens are unhealthy because they are filthy and cannot be kept clean; they breed numberless flies, and flies distribute all sorts of disease. Even from a cleanly point of view, no one wants a fly using his begrimed feet to walk on your bread as you put it to your mouth.

In this connection I will state that the average stable is not kept as it should be. It is possible to keep a stable quite sanitary, and this should be done. Flies breed largely in stables, but this can be prevented by promptly removing the manure, and a liberal distribution of Borax made on it.

C. H. PEETE, M. D., Health Officer.

Pulse of City Politics Show Interest

The approaching political campaign has not assumed the proportions of a tempest in a teapot and indications are that no gale is upon the horizon. This paper, however, in an effort to give the voters of this city the general trend of political happenings, has compiled the following information from general sources:

There are two candidates in the field for Mayor, the present incumbent, Mr. John B. Palmer, and the former mayor, Mr. John W. Allen. The issues of the race have not been portrayed. Mayor Palmer is asking support on the record of the past two years. Mr. Allen is appealing to his friends for approval on general lines.

The present Board of Commissioners J. G. Ellis, C. R. Rodwell, W. G. Rogers, H. A. Mosley, Frank Seris, V. F. Ward, and W. H. Burroughs are in line for re-election, with the exception of Mr. Burroughs, who is disqualified because he is not living within the corporate limits. The members of the Board interviewed, with one exception, expressed themselves in favor of the Hotel, street extension work and the proposed school building. The exception would not express himself.

Monday, April 21st, looms large here. Colored people from all sections of Warren are expected to be in attendance upon the welcome home celebration to the returned colored soldiers and to review the parade of the soldiers and members of lodges and fraternal orders.

The committee has been at work for sometime perfecting plans for the celebration and it seems to have done their duty well. The parade will be followed by a big dinner served the colored soldiers practically three hundred of whom will be present. The entire day is to be given over to a whole hearted celebration conducted in genuine sincerity of welcome.

Lieut. B. W. Harris, Warren's only colored lieutenant and mentioned for distinguished conduct over seas, will be in charge of the parade composed of the soldiers, school children, firemen, fraternal orders and other organizations which will start at 10 o'clock from the colored Graded School building and proceed up Franklin into Front Street, thence down to Ridgeway, thence to Main and to Warrenton Depot, thence down Main to the Court House.
