

A Colyum Of Thoughts From Here There, Yonder

(By W. BRODIE JONES)

The people of Warren who are in sympathy with the movement to erect a suitable memorial to the men of the World war should use their influence for this timely expression of patriotic pride.

It cannot be doubted that all citizens of this county desire to commemorate in a serviceable manner the sacrifice and spirit which animated the men who went from old Warren in the days of '17 and '18.

This expression must take county-wide form and elicit county-wide enthusiasm and support to guarantee creditable appreciation. It is not the work of three or more committees, but the expression of county-wide sentiment which is needed.

As a citizen of the county endorse the movement. Don't hesitate to let your influence be felt in such a matter of laudable purpose.

It is to be hoped that the Board of Town commissioners will give careful, thoughtful and earnest consideration at their next meeting to the need for street improvement here.

The citizens of the town are anxious and willing to vote a bond issue if this need be to make the principle side streets here bitulithic and to place concrete curbing gutter on all streets in town.

The business interests of Warrenton will receive benefit from this progressive step and all citizens of the town will derive pleasure from the needed improvements.

Warrenton can afford better streets and we should have better streets!

The cotton drive needs the support of the citizens of Warren. A good price for cotton is a matter which affects us all. Join.

Of all bad things by which mankind are cursed Their own bad tempers are surely the worst.

The truth that yesterday was mine is larger truth today; Its face has aspect more divine, its kinship fuller sway. For truth must grow as ages roll, And God looms large upon the soul.

A Short Story

George tried to stop a Ford, the sinner! The folks had sausages for dinner. Farm Life.

She Didn't Know Cold "Ooo, goodness! My hands are literally frozen in these thin kid gloves, driving all the way from the station without my muff!" exclaimed the college girl. "Humph!" grunted her gnarly father. "I guess you never dug fodder out from th' snow, barehanded, and scattered it around for the cows!"—Farm Life.

Go to the Head of the Class

A Sunday school teacher asked the scholars with what weapon Samson killed so many Philistines. All hesitated, when the teacher to elucidate their minds, pointed to her jaw and said, "What's this?"

A light broke triumphantly upon one of the scholars, who exclaimed, "I know, the jaw-bones of an ass." Selected.

Where Ignorance Was Bliss

A farmer saw a boy plucking apples from one of his best apple trees. He tried to catch him, says the Weekly Telegraph, but the boy was too quick for him, and so the farmer changed his tactics. "Come here, my little son," he said in a soft voice with a counterfeited friendliness, "come here to me a minute! I want to tell you something." "Not likely!" replied the boy. "Little ones like me don't need to know everything."—Youth's Companion.

Wise To Have Mothers' Day April 1st; Mothers To Attend School

COUNTY TO SEND DELEGATES TO GREENSBORO

Ladies Urged To Attend Conference and Aid In Every Possible Manner In Improving Educational Advantages.

The work in Home Demonstrations has been moving along without anything of startling moment. Interesting meetings have been held at Warrenton on Monday night at eight p. m. and Wednesday at two-thirty. On Thursday there was a well attended meeting at Wise. Wise is planning a Mother's Day for April first. The mothers are to come to school with the children in the morning each adding to her children's lunch only sufficient for her needs. The morning hours are to be devoted to class work, the mothers attending, thus getting some idea of the work that is being done.

At noon if it is pleasant and warm lunch will be eaten out of doors, this to be followed by a general program in the assembly hall, where talks are to be given by county and home demonstration agents, Supt. of Schools and others. This meeting is very much in line with work done in the west and if well attended serves to connect the lives of the parents more vitally with the work of the school. In this way they may become conscious of the needs of the school and be more willing to take an active part in realizing the highest aims of good education.

Program For Week

The program for this week reads very much the same as last week: Monday at eight p. m., Business Women Class, Warrenton; Tuesday, Axtell.

Wednesday, two-thirty, Warrenton High School Class; Thursday, 2:00, Wise; Friday, 3:00, at Warren Plains. I should like also to say a word in regard to the meetings to be held in Greensboro the first week in April. I have been asked to send in a list of names from the women most actively connected with the home demonstration work in the county, and my plea is that these women will bend all their efforts to planing to attend these meetings. In conferences such as these we learn not only our weak points, but our strong ones and by comparing our achievements with those of others, we learn our true place in the world and get the inspiration to overcome our weaknesses and do at least as well if not better than the best. Surely there is no more womanly work than that of raising the educational standards of the community and the state.

Facts About Sweet Potato

This is the first of a series of articles on sweet potatoes prepared for the Record by the Division of Horticulture, Agricultural Extension Service at Raleigh. Other articles will deal with bedding, planting, cultivating, harvesting, storage and marketing of this important North Carolina crop.

1 Varies and Seed Treatment

For main crops and storage, Porto Rico, Nancy Hall and Nerton (Dooley) Yam are recommended. These varieties are moistfleshed, of excellent quality and yield well.

For early crop, the Triumph is a medium-moist, good yielding variety of fair quality. Where a dry type of sweet potato is preferred, the Big Stem Jersey is recommended.

Field selected seed from highest yielding hills that are disease-free, give the best results. Reject and destroy all potatoes bearing rotten spots of any kind. Cut and bruised potatoes should not be bedded. Cut off the ends of apparently sound potatoes, occasionally, to make sure that the inside is not blackened with disease.

Seed Treatment

The sound disease-free potatoes should be disinfected by either one or two methods.

With corrosive sublimate: Dissolve one ounce of corrosive sublimate in warm water, then add eight gallons of water. Immerse the seed potatoes in this solution for 10 minutes, spread on a dry and bed. After treating 10 bushels in 50 gallons of disinfectant, one-half ounce of corrosive sublimate should be added and the water brought up to 50 gallons. Use this solution in wooden vessels only. Corrosive sublimate is poisonous; keep it out of reach of livestock.

With formaldehyde: Immerse potatoes for 5 minutes in a solution of formaldehyde, one pint (commercial 40 per cent, in 30 gallons of water. Dry and bed.

CHAPLIN FINDS REAL TASK IN HANDLING CANINE ACTORS

Most producers think that they have their hands full when they undertake to handle a cast of twenty human beings, but Charlie Chaplin learned that such a job is a mere bag of shelled peanuts compared with the task of putting twenty stray canines through their paces. However, he succeeded in this achievement with unique success, as anyone will testify after witnessing a showing of his latest film comedy, "A Dog's Life," which comes to the Warrenton Opera House Friday and Saturday, March 27-28th. This is the first picture Charlie has turned out under his new $1,000,000 contract with the First National Exhibitors' Circuit.

Sky Aglow From Aurora Borealis

Quite an unusual phenomena attracted the attention of those of our people who had not retired very early last night. The Northern skies were aglow with a most wonderful and awe-inspiring sight—the glowing, dancing, flashing Aurora Borealis, or "Northern Lights." Dispatches in the Morning Newspapers inform us that this condition was general throughout the Northern and North-eastern part of the United States, extending as far South as Georgia, where it as distinctly seen. Great waves of flashing light, like the rays from a searchlight brightened the sky, while other parts of the Northern sky were dyed a deep reddish tinge.

As we said, it was an awe inspiring sight, and forcefully reminded us that "The Heavens declare the glory of God, and the Firmament showeth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge." Last night unmistakably showed us that Knowledge and power are God's, and that man is indeed a dependant creature.

The telegraph and telephone and cable lines were put out of commission for a few minutes during the intensity of the display.

Ignorance is not innocence, but sin.—Browning.

Let us then be what we are, and speak what we think, and in all things keep ourselves loyal to truth, and sacred professions of friendship.—Longfellow.

Men are more like than unlike one another: let us make them know one another better, that they may be all humbled and strengthened with a sense of their fraternity.—W. D. Howells.

EXEC. COM. MET SAT'DAY

Discussion Over Date For Election of Precinct Committee Men, Saturday

LAW NAMES PRIMARY AS SELECTION TIME IN CO.

General Ruling By State Chairman Warren Does Not Apply To This County; Views of Associate Editor H. F. Jones.

The County Democratic Executive Committee met Saturday for the purpose of officially confirming the dates set by the State Committee for Precinct meetings and County Convention. The Precinct meetings were set for Saturday, March 27th, at 12 o'clock; and the date for the County Convention for Saturday April 3rd at 12 o'clock.

The question of the proper date for electing Precinct Committeemen was raised by Mr. Hawkins, a member of the Committee for Nutbush township. Mr. Hawkins took the ground that the Committeemen should be elected on Saturday, March 27, and based that opinion upon the Ruling made by the State Committee. As a matter of fact, this ruling of the State Committee has much latitude, allowing three methods of electing Committeemen.

Unfortunately for Mr. Hawkins' contention, the LAW fixes the date for Warren county to elect its Precinct Committeemen, and very justly fixes that date as that of the Legalized primary. We say "justly" because this is the only method which allows every voter to have a voice in the selection of the men who are to represent the Party in the township, and give official expression to the Party's wishes. The old plan of Precinct election permits a few active men to control, to manipulate, to "fix things," and we are glad for that day to pass in Warren.

Mr. Hawkins' motion, made as an amendment to Mr. Williams' motion was discussed by Messrs. Hawkins, Williams, and Chairman Gardner, the latter pulling out a telegram from Chairman Warren, saying that March 27th was the date for electing Precinct Committeemen. But Chairman Warren didn't know, and Mr. Hawkins insisted that no law had been passed since the present primary law was enacted giving the County the privilege of electing Precinct Committeemen at the legalized primary—which was true. But the old law is law until it is repealed, and it is the old law which governs law-abiding folks until it is repealed. The Committee followed the law on the statute books and voted to fix Saturday June 5th, as the date for electing Precinct Committeemen—Mr. Hawkins' motion receiving his own vote only.

MARINE'S FAMILY KEEPS BEEF OVER 100 YEARS

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 22.—A piece of beef cooked in 1805 is still being carefully preserved in a little silver pitcher by Edward B. Manwaring of this city. This is not being kept in anticipation of a further increase in the cost of beef, but is a genuine heirloom.

Sergeant Joseph Hobbins of the British Royal Marines saved this piece, which he was eating when assaulted with an axe by a cook on a French vessel which had been captured by Lord Nelson at Trafalgar. The cook missed his aim but the sergeant got the beef.

Sergeant Hobbins was the great-great-grandfather of Lieut. Colonel Edward B. Manwaring of the U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. Manwaring of this city. This officer is said to be the only member of the United States Marine Corps who is a direct descendant of a former Royal Marine of Great Britain.
