

A Colyum Of Thoughts From Here There, Yonder

(By W. BRODIE JONES)

That Man is the master of his fate and the captain of his soul is a truth that all should grasp.

It is not the hand of Circumstance nor the presence of Luck which unfolds the possibilities of Life. It is rather the inner and vital conception placed upon the world of action and the capacity with which one recognizes its tasks and accepts its opportunities. Life is fundamentally a responsibility whether you wish to accept the status quo or no.

How you accepted its advantages or deride its favors is daily determining your destiny.

Look well to your life and attune your inner spirit to the highest and best. You alone are responsible for the only two things eternally worth while—your Character and your Destiny.

The reason for a shortage of news print probably is that they can get more for it by putting it in shoes.

The Melrose Messenger says that an oil company is going to drill 35,000 feet. Why didn't the editor say that they were going to hell and be done with it?—Clovis Jones.

"I say, old man, you've never returned that umbrella I lent you last week."

"Hang it all, old man be reasonable it's been raining ever since."—Houston Post.

Let's start a barefoot club. We do not see how such a club could advance the price of shoes. If no one in America will wear a shoe until September we guarantee that ladies' pumps with no more leather in them than there is paper in a postage stamp will not sell for $20 and up—Mitchell (Ind) Tribune.

An old time country gentleman had sued the city man in a magistrate court of his county and won. The city man, being highly indignant, stated "that he would take it to the Superior Court."

The old countryman says, "I'll be there."

"And if I lose there," continued the man from the city, "I take it to the Supreme Court."

"I'll be there" says the farmer.

"And if I lose there I'll take it to H—l," roared the city man.

The old farmer rared back on his haunches and said: "My lawyer will be there."

Their Good-Night Message.

One of our local citizens tells this story, and he says it happened at a very prominent home: "It occurred in the evening. I and several others were calling. As we chatted in the parlor we heard the patter of little feet at the head of the stairs above. The mother of this particular home raised her hand for silence. 'Hush! The children are going to deliver their good night message,' she said softly. 'It always gives me a feeling of reverence to hear them. They are so much nearer the Creator than we are, and they speak the love that is in their hearts never so fully as when the dark has come. Listen! Then there was a moment of tense silence. Then, 'Mamma, came the message from above, 'Willie found a bedbug!' "—Elmore (Minn.) Eye.

Moonshine Whiskey Captured Here

A colored man named Powell brought two gallons of moonshine here Saturday in his buggy. The finger of suspicion pointed him out and Chief E. L. Green located the booze and confiscated the property. The case was tried before Mayor Gibbs and the owner of the buggy and mule placed under a one hundred dollar bond.

A SEMI-WEEKLY NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF WARRENTON AND WARREN COUNTY

TICKET SALE UNDER WAY

Guarantors Hold Live Meeting
In Record Office Tuesday
Morning At Ten O'clock

MR. W. N. BOYD ELECTED
PRESIDENT OF GUARANTORS

Town Divided Into East And West Sections With McGuire
Captain of East and W. Brodie
Jones, West.

The community chautauqua guarantors were present this morning for a live conference in the office of the Warren Record. W. Brodie Jones called the meeting to order and asked for nominations for president. M. W. N. Boyd was nominated and elected.

Mr. Boyd called upon Mr. M. C. McGuire, chm. icket committee, to outline ticket campaign. Following an informal conference it was decided to divide the town into East and West sections. W. Brodie Jones was named Captain of the West division with the following assistants Misses Edith Burwell, Mrs. M. C. McGuire, Miss Mamie Williams, Mrs. J. E. Rooker and W. N. Boyd; M. C. McGuire was named captain of East division with Mrs. W. D. Rodgers, Jr., Misses Alice Rooker, Hilah Tarwater and Cate Monroe Gardner as assistants. Norlina and Warren Plains was assigned Misses Norma and Hattie Connell; the Turnpike to Messrs. John Daniel and King Pinnell; Macon to Mr. C. B. Overby.

It was decided that the price of the season tickets would be two-fifty, war tax included. Junior tickets would not be placed upon sale until the day before the chautauqua. A saving of four dollars is made by all who buy season tickets if they are to attend all attractions, and if they are to attend only four it is advantageous to buy a ticket. The guarantors are benefitted only by the sale of season tickets. Single admissions all go to the chautauqua.

The town was well circularized this morning by Hugh Holt, C. R. Rodwell, Jr., James Polk and Armstead Boyd and it is to be expected that the ticket committee in their drive commencing Wednesday will find the public anxious to buy tickets and attend the community attraction under the big brown tent at the academy grounds, June 12-16th. The Community Chautauqua looks Bigger and Better every day. Committees in charge of the advertising and sale of tickets are getting active and all indications point to a big success.

The Chautauqua begins June 12th and closes five days later. It will bring a notable array of musical artists, lecturers and entertainers here and the man who holds a season ticket is bound to get his money's worth—if he doesn't then he is looking for something that is better than the best.

One the season ticket plan each program can be heard for a few cents a number. In fact, the price is so low that no one need be excluded. The season tickets admit to all sessions—there are no extras of any sort.

DEMONSTRATION WORK ENDORSED

I wonder how many women tax payers there are in Warren County, and I wonder if it would not be the part of justice to give them a voice in determining whether or not our Home Demonstration Agent should be retained! I wonder also if all of the women whose husbands are taxpayers did not contribute their full share in acquiring that property! Who does that property really belong to anyway?

I also wonder how it is that some men who are so loud in their denunciation of our home demonstration work came to be such good judges of house work. Really how much do they know about it, and how do they know whether the work has been of benefit to the women thus far reached or not? It seems to me that these men are a little "out of their place." And I wonder if the wives of these men do not belong to that large class of women whose work is so hard that they are always too tired to go anywhere or be interested in anything. And whose fault is that—the men's or the women's, or the demonstrators? Miss Schiffer visited many such homes realizing that this was the only way to reach these women, and I am very sure that if we were given enough time and that all of them would be reached and helped in one way or another, although this is considerable of a task for one woman to do.

The work so far has been very successful in spite of the fact that some small-minded, selfish men have done all in their power to arouse prejudice and defeat its objects by their continual knocking.

It seems to me that with the co-operation of the board of education much good could be done by demonstration work in our High Schools. The time has not yet come when we can afford domestic science teachers, and until then the home demonstrator can in a measure make up for the lack and do much toward paying the way for the Home Economics Departments in our schools.

We women who believe in women, and in all that tends toward the education of our girls, are too disgusted with the petty politics of Warren County to attempt to put up much of a fight to retain our demonstration agents. But we are asking you men who are indifferent, and I believe you are in the majority, and to whom the cost of the work means almost nothing in taxes, to vote to retain our agents another year.

If some of you men are so small as to oppose us, we have made up our minds to let you do your worst and abide our time. We know that it is surely coming, and then perhaps "turn about is fair play."

A WOMAN TAX-PAYER.

The Community Chautauqua will afford a fine worth-while vacation for you right here at home amid all your daily comforts. Season tickets for yourself and family will prove to be a profitable investment. They will enjoy all of the ten great sessions and you too will be amply repaid for all the time you spend under the big brown tent.

S. M. Gardner Makes Statement To Voters

Sporters of Mr. J. A. Dowtin are stating that they have seen papers in which I asked for exemption from the Army. Every word of this is false. I volunteered twice to join the Army. The second time I was accepted. They also state that I worked with the Y. M. C. A. in France. This is also false. I was in active service in the Army. I am fighting Mr. Dowtin a fair fight. I am asking the citizens of Warren County to support me upon my record as a soldier and a citizen. I will not be forced through politics to make a false statement against Mr. Dowtin to win this fight.

SIMON M. GARDNER.

Club Asks Voters To Support Page

We desire to urge upon our fellow democrats the importance of going to the polls next Saturday, June 5th, and supporting by their votes and influence Hon. Robert N. Page for Governor.

Mr. Page's successful experience in handling matters of importance in both private and public affairs, his high character, his clear vision, and unquestioned devotion to the public good, fit him for service in this critical time. He is making his appeal direct to the voters, and not relying upon political leaders. If nominated he will be the peoples choice.

T. O. RODWELL, President,
W. G. ROGERS, Vice-Pres.,

Give Miscellaneous Shower Friday Night

Misses Lucy and Edith Burwell were hospitable hostesses at their home in south Warrenton last Friday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of the charming Miss Elizabeth Tarry, of Mecklenburg county, Va., who becomes the bride of Mr. R. B. Boyd, Jr., June 15th.

The home was tastefully decorated in pink sweet peas and roses. The shower was suspended from a chandelier to the center of which was a beautiful cluster of sweetpeas in a bride's bouquet. The gifts with their appropriate messages were read by Miss Mamie Williams, and the spirit of enjoyment was rife.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served by Misses Wil and Byrd Jones and Olivia Burwell. Those present included: Mesdames John G. Ellis, T. J. Holt, Edmund White, James Horner, of Oxford, M. C. McGuire, J. B. Boyce, Jr., Herman Rodwell, C. H. Peete; Misses Elizabeth Tarry, Mamie Williams, Rowe Jones, Elizabeth Hunter, Belle Dameron, Kate White Williams and Sarah Moore.

E. L. GREEN FOR SHERIFF

E. L. Green—a man of might,
Sure to arrest you, if you don't do right;

He treats rich and poor both alike,
When offending law or on a strike.

He's raided the county far and near,
Brought in the stills, poured out the beer.

To save corn meal for our food,
Thus helping all for common good.

As policeman he's served fine,
So now for sheriff put him in line
And it won't be long until you tell,
For sheriff he's done his duty well.

Now fellow voters on the 5th of June,
When for candidates you are in tune
Think of the policemen that has been,
And elect for sheriff—E. L. Green.

A VOTER.

MISS SCHIFFER'S WORK IS COMMENDED BY OTHERS

In the report of Miss Conelia C. Morris, district home demonstration agent for this district, we are pleased to note the following reference to Miss Josephine Schiffer who has just completed her work here:

"Miss Schiffer is working with the mothers in Warren County on foods for children for their best development. She has distributed flower seeds for the improvement of homes and schools.

"Miss Schiffer gave a splendid Demonstration in making yeast breads in Henderson during Housekeepers' week.

COUNTY HAS FREE CLINICS

Dentist Arrives To Conduct Free
Clinics In Twenty Two Points of Warren

DR. S. L. BOBBITT HAS WORK
UNDER WAY IN COUNTY

School Committeemen To Make Arrangements For Clinics At School Buildings Says Supt. J.
Edward Allen.

Dr. S. L. Bobbitt, son of Mr. S. L. Bobbitt of Sandy Creek, who has returned to his home county as a special representative of the North Carolina Board of Health, opened today at Ax-tell the first of a series of free dental clinics for the school children of Warren between the ages of six and twelve inclusive.

This is one phase of the medical inspection of school children which the Board of Health has adopted in its constructive policy of better health as the basis of better citizenship. Dr. Bobbitt will remain in Warren for two months in this work.

Supt. J. Edward Allen in an interview with this paper urged that all parents take advantage of this opportunity; that all school committeemen in every instance of the twenty-two appointments of Dr. Bobbitt make arrangements for the clinic at the school house, and that interested ladies of the community extend aid by being present upon days of the appointments to look after the children and keep records.

Any trouble with teeth by children between the ages of six and twelve inclusive will be treated by Dr. Bobbitt absolutely free of all cost. He is a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in the country, is equipped by the State Board of Health and is qualified to give the children of Warren the best service.

The appointments announced are Norlina June 1-5; Wise, June 7-10; Warren Plains, June 11-12; Macon, June 14th-18th. Other appointments will be announced later. Appointments for colored pupils between these ages will be announced upon arrival of a colored dentist who will perform the work for Warren's colored citizens.

Other diseases of school children will be treated by specialists who will visit Warren later in the summer announced Supt. J. Edward Allen.

POLITICAL ADVICE

(By Grantland Rice and J. N. Ding)

The Irate Citizen in his den
Or office, where the Push can't mix,
Complains about the brand of men
In politics.

He curses thugs out for the graft,
The saffron-backs, and none may doubt
it.

Who seeks to steer the nation's craft,
And rail about it.

And then he puts it all away,
He has a lot of work to do,
Or else a game of golf to play
Like me—or you.

But when it comes to who shall rule
His destiny, he loudly chatters,
"I haven't any time to fool
With outside matters."

The Citizen sits in his den,
Too busy, much, for outside knitting,
Until Election Day—and then
He keeps on sitting.

He has but little now to say
While counting up his coin or chickens;
But on a somewhat later day
He'll raise the dickens.

When it's too late to raise a howl,
To heaven, then, his voice is lifted;
You'll find then with the Yawp and
Yowl
How well he's gifted.

The Politician's safer plan
Has no complaint that's worth the noting;
He merely hustles for his man,
And does the voting.

So if you've anything to say
That may perhaps stop later growling,
This is the hour—and the day—
To do your howling.

"FINE FEATHERS"

You will have many a thrill when you see "Fine Feathers," that great New York play which touches upon the high cost of living and which will be presented as the big feature attraction of the Community Chautauqua. This high class production has everything in it to make it a $2.00 attraction from the best Broadway players to the special sets of scenery—yet it may be seen for 20 cents on the season ticket plan. The cast of the characters will include such well known actors as Edwin Cushman, who was for three seasons with William Faversham and played last winter in "The Better Ole"; Bernice Parker, who was last season with Alice Brady in "Forever After," and Frederick Smith, who played with Lionel Barrymore in "The Copperhead."

This big all-professional play was produced by Mr. Percival Vivian, one of the most successful directors in New York City. He recently staged that gigantic religious pageant, "The Wayfarer," with a cast of three thousand people. "Fine Feathers" ran six months straight in New York and three months in Chicago. It is the play that made New York think.
