

A Colyum Of Thoughts From Here There, Yonder

ALAS! ALACK!

The anarchist paced Fifth Avenue,
His brow was black and grim
As he thought of the wrongs that Capital
Had heaped on his and him.

He forthwith started in to make
A deadly nitro bomb,
And he fortified his courage
With a swig of monkey rum.

Alas for our poor anarchist!
His blackened soul has risen.
The explosion was quite premature
And bumped off him and his'n.
—Carolina Tar Baby.

Short—I envy a bird.
Long—Y' do?
Short—Yes, he has only one bill to take care of.—Tar Baby.

Stage-struck Maiden (after trying her voice)—Do you think I will ever be able to do anything with my voice?
State Manager—Well, it may come in handy in case of fire.—Awgwan.

She Registered Surprise
First Old Maid—The hotel clerk is so flattering.
Second Old Maid—Do tell.
F. O. M.—Think of it, he wrote suite 16 after my name on the register.—Gargoyle.

Men and Dogs
A friend may smile and bid you hail,
Yet wish you with the devil;
But when a good dog wags his tail,
You know he's on the level.
—Selected.

Footing It
Rudd—The doctor said he'd have me on my feet in a fortnight.
Greene—And did he?
Rudd—Sure, I've had to sell my automobile.—Yonkers Statesman.

The Point of View
Ruth—She told me she slapped him because he tried to kiss her goodnight.
Helen—He told me she slapped him because he didn't try.—Columbia Jester.

Dismissed
"Look here, I ask you for the last time for that five dollar bill you owe me."
"Thank heavens, that is the end of that silly question."—Lehigh Burr.
Bing—Has she many suitors?
Sting—Oh, yes, but none of them do Bing—Do what?
Sting—Suitor. —Widow.

Paying A Barber In Preaching
A bright little story at the expense of an esteemed local preacher is told in the Christian Herald. It appears that the minister dropped into the village barber shop for a shave, and after being waited upon he tendered the barber a dime as the regular price at the shop. Declining the coin, the generous barber said, "I will take it in preaching, sir."
With some dignity the minister rejoined, "My friend, I haven't a ten-cent sermon." "That is alright, sir," retorted the barber in good humor,
"then I will come twice.

She—What makes that red spot on your nose?
He—Glasses.
She—Glasses of what?—Squib.

Short Course At Raleigh For Club

The state boys club short course is to be held at West Raleigh, August 30 to September 4. Only club members fourteen years or older may attend the week's sessions which include daily instruction with time out for sightseeing, games, singing and moving pictures.

This year the announcement says that boys are expected to bring along a pair of overalls as instruction will be given in farm mechanics including gas engines, tractors, lighting plants, water works, farm machinery and labor saving devices.
Each morning is given over to class work and the afternoon to recreation and a general good time under the supervision of club leaders.

Boys expecting to attend may secure more information about the club short course from their county farm agent or by writing to the Tar Heel

Government Dispatches Field Clerk to Aid Local Men In Distribution of Victory Medals In North Carolina

The distribution of Victory Medals which has been going on for the last two months at the Recruiting District Headquarters at Greensboro, N. C., is now well under way and information received from the Recruiting Officer, Capt. Walter R. Cox, states that a thousand medals have now been distributed in this State. The applications came in slowly at first but after the first medals began to arrive the interest of the ex-soldiers was aroused and now everyone wants one.

Three Army Field Clerks are stationed at these Headquarters to take in applications which have increased to such a number that four more have been asked for from Washington and are now on their way to help the overworked force. Applications have been handled at the rate of seventy-five a day and with the increased force they expect to turn out two hundred or more every day.

Every soldier who served during the emergency: April 6, 1917 to November 11, 1918, will receive a medal and if he went overseas and was in any battles over there his service will be recognized by additional battle clasps attached to the ribbon of the medal. As much as fourteen clasps have been received by one soldier and in North Carolina, which is the home of the 30th Division, many of the boys who saw service in the Great Conflict have received five and six battle clasps.

There is no red tape attached to the application for the Victory Medal, and soldier simply sends in his discharge to the Greensboro Station and a form is sent him for signature, when this is done his application is then sent to the Supply Officer at Philadelphia for the issue of the medal, the whole procedure taking from seven to fifteen days. The dischargers are well taken care of in the office and are promptly returned to their owners as soon as the application has been approved and forwarded.

With this addition to the office force it is expected that within the next two months every soldier who answered the call of his country will be the proud possessor of one of these beautiful medals.

W. R. COX,
Capt. C. A. C.
Recruiting Officer.

No Right Ones Left

Little Molly, says the Forecast, was crying bitterly. "What's the matter dear?" asked her mother.
"Boohoo! My new shoes hurt me!" sniffed the child, rubbing her eyes.
"Well, no wonder! You've got them on the wrong feet!" But Molly wept and would not be comforted. "I haven't any other feet," she sobbed.

THE ARDENT WOOERS

There are 32 Legislatures in which the Republican party is in power. There are 16 in which the Democratic party is in power. Twenty-nine Republican Legislatures have ratified the Federal Suffrage Amendment. Six Democratic Legislatures have ratified. It is the 36th state that counts. The party that will have the final claim on the woman vote in November is the party that brings in the 36th state and thus makes ratification operative in the other 35.

THE CASE FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

"Woman suffrage is vital to the right solution of the great problems which we must settle and settle immediately. We shall need women in our vision of affairs as we never have needed them before; the sympathy, the insight and clear moral instinct of the women of the world. We shall need their moral sense, their sense of right and fine and worthy in our system of life as well as to discover just what it is that ought to be purified and reformed. Without their counselings we shall be only half wise."—Woodrow Wilson.

EVERYTHING TO GAIN BY WOMAN SUFFRAGE

MEN LOSE NOTHING—they keep their votes.
THE HOME WILL GAIN A VOTE in addition to the one it had before.
THE WIFE WILL GAIN more interests in common with her husband.
THE MOTHER WILL GAIN the power to reduce the high cost of living, to get better schools and recreation places for her children and decent working conditions for her older sons and daughters.
THE CHILDREN WILL GAIN double protection when the father and mother both can vote.
THE FARMER WILL GAIN because farm women will vote for farm interests.
THE STATE WILL GAIN because it will have the service of experts in housekeeping.
GOVERNMENT WILL GAIN because it can use the intelligence of ALL THE PEOPLE instead of only one-half.

WHAT THE ANTIS DON'T TELL YOU

Anti-suffragists tell you that between 1916 and 1918 the Socialist vote increased 22 per cent. So it did, but what the antis don't tell you is that the increase came in the year 1916-1917, when women were not voting.
The Socialist state vote for governor in 1918 was 28,623 less than the city vote alone for mayor in 1917.
City vote:
1918, for governor..... 83,578
1917, for mayor..... 145,828
1918, for governor..... 86,427
A decrease of 58,901 in the city Socialist vote in the year women voted.
If you are going to disfranchise any body for being a Socialist, disfranchise the men. They contribute the bulk of Socialist votes.

Married In Richmond

It is of interest to Warren friends to know that Miss Estelle Williams, daughter of Mr. R. E. Williams of Fork, and niece of Mrs. Laura Daniel, of this place, and who has been with the Bank of Warren here for some time, was married in Richmond Tuesday to Mr. I. P. Lipscomb. The best wishes of a host of friends accompanied her through her married life.

Tom—No. Bedroom farce.—Judge.

NINETEENTH AMENDMENT

LEGISLATURE URGED TO PASS AMENDMENT

It Is No New Thing, Says Equal Suffrage Association; Same Tests Apply Women That Apply To Men.

The following article is published by special request of Mr. G. N. Neil: The method of amending the Constitution of the United States was provided when the Constitution was written. It was thoroughly discussed and approved by the thirteen original states; North Carolina not only acquiescing, but insisting upon the justness of the procedure.

Legislatures of North Carolina and the other twelve States ratified the Federal Constitution With This Provision. The Constitution has been amended by this method 18 times. North Carolina has ratified each of the 18 amendments. Why object Now to the same method?

The 19th Amendment does not infringe upon States' Rights. It does nothing but eliminate the word Male from the Constitution, thus removing discrimination against women. If that is an infringement upon States' Rights, they are already infringed upon.

The Federal Constitution Now Forbids any State to deprive a male citizen of his vote if he can meet the legal requirements of the State. North Carolina Cannot Refuse to let any Male citizen of the United States vote in North Carolina if he meets the State's legal requirements, no matter what his nationality or how undesirable he may seem. The State however, has the right to decide upon its own requirements.

The 19th Amendment Does Not Alter this, it only prohibits discrimination against women citizens. All qualifications that now apply to Men Voters will Apply Equally to Women Voters.

Women who Cannot qualify under State laws will Not Vote any more than can men who cannot qualify. EQUAL SUFFRAGE ASSN. N. C.

The Program Out For Farm Convention

National and State Leaders to Speak Many Exhibits and Demonstrations

The complete program for the North Carolina Farmers' and Farm Women's Convention to be held at West Raleigh August 24-26, contains names of speakers with national and state reputations.

J. R. Howard, President of the National Federation of Farm Bureaus, is to explain the purposes and achievements of the farm bureau movement, while the organization of home bureau is to be covered by Dr. Ruby Green Smith, state leader of home bureaus in New York.

"What is the outlook for the American Farmer" is the subject of an address by H. W. Collingwood, editor of the Rural New Yorker. The question of cotton marketing is to be stressed by D. S. Murph of the Bureau of Markets, Washington, D. C., who will explain the plans now being used in several states for handling cotton.

Other speakers included in list are Governor T. W. Bickett, Secretary of Agriculture Edwin T. Meredith, Dr. B. W. Kilgore, President W. C. Riddick of the State College, Major W. A. Graham, Dan T. Gray, C. B. Williams, C. V. Piper, Catherine Mulligan, Franklin Sherman, J. H. McClain and Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon.

Many subjects are to be covered by the talks and demonstrations, special attention being given to marketing, country life problems and cooperative marketing.

"If you don't come to Raleigh to the Farmers' and Farm Women's convention you are going to regret it as long as you live—at least if you find out what you missed," says Clarence Poe, President of the Farmers' Convention. "Come to stay three whole days," he adds.

She—Did the doctor treat you?
Ho—No; he charged me five dollars.—Jester.

CHURCH HILL IS ALL RIGHT

WRITER SPEAKS WELL OF THAT COMMUNITY

Has A Fine Sunday School. The Church Typifies The Good Old Religion of Our Father and Mother's Childhood.

It is almost always true that when we are looking for a location for a permanent home we try and find a community in which churches and schools are convenient and where there is present evidence of the spirit of progress. I am sure that there is no place where this is more true than in the county of Warren if one is to judge the entire county by the section around Church Hill.

It has been my pleasure to visit in the vicinity of Church Hill several times within the past two years but I do not believe that I had fully realized until my recent visit there, the wonderful talent representative of the place. The fact is I had scarcely stopped to consider some of the principal evidences of the presence of so many good people.

Why to think of a real graded Sunday school far out in the country with an enrollment of a hundred and fifty and every one apparently full of interest would sound almost out of the question, but this is what we find there. And I must say that the good people whom I have met there during my few visits are thoroughly awake to the issues of progress both from an industrial and religious standpoint.

I have observed in my rambles, and I had about decided, that we had all departed from the good old ways of our fathers, but my visit on last Sunday to Church Hill in Warren County, served to show me that I had only been blind to the facts. 'Tis true that in many cases, especially in the towns and larger cities, there has been somewhat of a turning away from the old way, still I am glad that there is yet present in the rural sections of the county evidence of the good old religion that our forefathers enjoyed.

If we are to merit the favor of the Great Jehovah I feel that we must again take up the christian models that our fathers used and seek salvation only in the manner in which they sought it, and then I feel that we will have found the solution to many of the perplexing problems of the present day.

Here are a few lines which I believe will serve to express in a sense my view of the matter. We must go: Back to the old country church by the roadside,
Back to the faith of our fathers again;
Back to the love and hope of the brethren,
Back to the things that will make of us MEN.

NATURALLY A NATURAL LAW

The sun had kissed the western sky
And bade the world goodnight,
While in the sky the silver moon
Hung blushing at the sight.
A youth beside a maiden walked—
(I tell no wondrous deed)
When twilight shadows kissed the shore
He followed nature's lead.
