AGREE TO CUT ACREAGE

TOBACCO GROWERS HOLD MEETING AT RALEIGH

Representative From The Carolinas, Virginia and Georgia Make Plans for Inter-State Organization.

Representatives of tobacco growers of Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia, organized the Inter-State Tobacco Growers Association, pledged themselves here yesterday to reduce the tobacco acreage by 33 1-3 per cent in 1921.

There will in time come a revolution in the process of marketing tobacco in the United States, based on the successful efforts of the fruit growers in California toward co-operative marketing, if the plans of the Inter-State Tobacco Growers' Association bear the full fruit hoped for when the representatives of the four States set their hands to organization yesterday.

The preliminary structure of the organization, based largely upon the constitution and charter of the North Carolina growers was raised yesterday, and a representative committee named to go more thoroughly into the work of organization, and empowered to enlist the services of experts who have had a hand in the effective co-operative movements in other agricultural States.

People Are Determined.

Representatives of all States attending the meeting yesterday declared that their people back at home are fixed in their determination to work out a tobacco growers' organization that will work effectively, and are desirous of a federalized organization worked out by the North Carolina growers since their initial meeting here in September.

Members of the State association are preparing to go very much further in their plans than the original program which dealt largely with the control of acreage and the control of the movement of tobacco from the farms to warehouses. It would eliminate the present system of selling tobacco to the highest bidder, and substitute therefor a scientifically devised system of marketing the crop which would ensure the grower a fair return for his investment.

County Is Unit.

Under the constitution adopted yesterday, the county will become the unit of organization, comprising all growers with in the county, and from these will be selected representative which will comprise the State association. Under the plan of federalization, embracing all tobacco growing States, each State will be entitled to representation in the national body.

Membership fees are based on the acreage of the member, the present assessment being 25 cents for each acre planted in 1920. Official representatives of the State and National departments of agriculture are allowed to be elected to membership. The usual officers are provided for with the executive committee and a governing board. Amendments to the constitution can be effected only through the two-thirds vote of the county representatives.

The North Carolina association will become a duly chartered organization, with powers to extend to any State or territory in the Union. At present it will be formed without capital stock. Other States will very likely obtain charters, and the federalized association will in turn obtain a charter, probably under the laws of North Carolina. These details will be worked out after the committee named yesterday makes its report early in January at a meeting to be called here.

The provision of the rules and by-laws adopted yesterday are briefly as follows:

Provisions of By-Laws.

- 1—Sixty per cent of all membership dues collected by counties shall be retained by the county organization.
- 2—The acreage shall be determined from year to year. The acreage for 1921 shall be reduced 33 1-3 per cent, calculated on the basis of the 1920 acreage.
- 3—Landlords are made responsible for the observance of the rules by his tenants. Infractions are to be reported to the county association.
- 4—Complaints against members are to be investigated by the county executive committee and such steps as may be necessary taken for adjustment.
- 5—The county secretary shall make a list of all tobacco growers in his county, and publish a "list of all growers who have joined the association and of those who have not affiliated with it.—News and Observer.

Popular Edgecombe Couple Married

The following account will be of interest to many Warren friends of this popular young couple. Mrs. Thorp, a niece of the owner of this paper, has been a frequent visitor in this city.

Tarboro, Nov. 7.—A beautiful wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at Temperance Hall church near Elm City, when Miss Ruth Speed Mercer became the bride of Mr. Lewis Sumner Thorp of Rocky Mount. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Read of Kinston. The wedding march was played by Professor Brawley, director of music of Peace Institute. Preceding the wedding Miss Lucile Cuthrell of Rocky Mount sang "Because" and "A Perfect Day," and Mrs. W. L. Thorp sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, Mr. Ernest Tilghman, of Suffolk, Va., and wore a traveling coat suit of brown and duvety trimmed with beaver and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lillies of the valley. Mrs. W. M. Wells, of Elm City, dame of honor, wore a costume of wisteria satin with tulle train and hat to match and carried purple chrysanthemums.

Miss Lenoir Mercer, the bride's sister and maid of honor, wore a frock of gold lace and brown velvet with train of brown tulle and carried purple chrysanthemums.

The four bridesmaids were Misses Hattie Taylor of Tarboro, Sarah Sanders of Smithfield, Nellie Graves of Carthage, and Mildred Thorp of Rocky Mount. They wore frocks of brown lace over brown satin with train of tulle and hats to match and their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums. Little Miss Margaret Tilghman and Theodore Tilghman held the ribbons and carried out the color scheme in their attractive costumes.

The best man was Mr. Adam Thorp of Philadelphia and the groomsmen were as follows: Mr. Geo. Wimberley and Mr. Isaac Thorp of Chapel Hill, Mr. D. W. Thorp, Jr., of Charleston, S. C., and Mr. Hyman Battle, of Rocky Mount, with Dr. C. T. Smith and Mr. Wm. Thorp of Rocky Mount as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Thorp left immediately for an extended Northern trip.

An informal reception was held at the bride's home after the wedding. The out of town guests were Mrs. C. A. Cook and Miss Josie Cook of Muskogee, Okla., Mr. Slaughter-Ware of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. R. B. Lewis of Raeford, Mr. Jack Thorp of Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tilghman of Suffolk, Mrs. Daniels of Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tilghman of Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Howard, Mrs. S. N. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wiggins and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McCluer motored over to attend the Thorp-Mercer wedding.

Miss Sallie Davis, of Shocco, spent a few days in Warrenton recently with her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Williams.

WILL HAVE RIGHT TO CONFER DEGREES

Greenville, November 9.—The Board of Trustees of East Carolina Teachers Training School on November 4 held an important meeting, making plans for the future of the school and looking into the specific needs of the school. In order to keep pace with the plans of the Department of Education the school will offer a four year course hereafter, in addition to the present two year course, and will have the right to grant degrees. The details of the courses are now being worked out by the committees and will be announced in the catalogue.

They are hoping that the appropriation for permanent improvements will enable them to enlarge the plant and add necessary buildings. The building has not been able to keep up with the growth of the school, and every year numbers are turned away for lack of room. It is extremely unfortunate when the shortage of teachers is so acute that a school whose sole purpose is to train teachers has not room for all who apply. A new wing has been added to East Dormitory and is ready for occupancy. The students assigned to these rooms entered at the beginning of the fall term and have been crowded in other dormitories.

A unit of the North Carolina Teachers Assembly has been organized by the faculty of the Training School with a membership of one hundred per cent.

The officers are as follows: President, R. H. Wright; Vice-President, H. E. Austin; Secretary, Miss Maria D. Graham. This unit is entitled to three delegates to the annual meeting in Asheville; Miss Graham is one of these.

A student Government organization has been formed that throws the responsibility of the discipline largely upon the students. Miss Helen Bahson, of Davie County, is president; Miss-Malissa Hicks, of Wise Warren County, is secretary.

Famous Aviators Coming Next Week

The people of Warrenton and the surrounding country are to be given an opportunity of witnessing some of the most thrilling aerial exhibitions ever seen in the state, when the Famous Flyers arrive in town for a five day stay.

Each day these Famous Flyers will give a thrilling exhibition of "Stunt Flying" over the business section, reproducing all of the stunts and maneuvers executed by our aviators overseas in the pursuit and evasion of the Hun Planes.

The flying will be done from Mr. Frank B. Newell's farm. Mr. Newell very kindly tendered the use of his big field on the Ridgeway Road to the aviators and has assisted in every possible way to make this engagement a success.

All visitors will be welcome to the aviation field and though passengers will be carried the management wish it understood that visitors will at all times be shown every courtesy whether they come to fly or to look.

THE FOURTH ROLL CALL

WORKERS BEGAN THEIR CANVASS YESTERDAY

November 11 Witnessed Launching of Fourth Red Cross Roll Call. Many Members Enrolled for 1921

Yesterday the Red Cross workers began their canvass for membership for the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call. The workers have been divided into groups and in spite of the unpleasant weather of yesterday succeeded in securing many members. You can tell those who belong by the Red Cross button that they wear. Those in charge wish all who have enrolled to wear their buttons because, first it keeps the canvassers from having to approach the same person more than once and at the same time keeps the new member from being bothered to explain that he has already joined; second, it is an advertisement for the Red Cross.

The Red Cross is caring on a great work in America and it should be considered a privilege to join this great organization. For that matter, the Red Cross has good enough record of it unselfish war work to run on its reputation. However, its present work is sufficient reason.

We would all like to see Miss Hinnah, the County nurse, retained in the County. Upon the success of the Fourth Roll Call depends her stay in Warrenton. Can we do less than join?

The directors of the Red Cross not only desire you to enroll during the Roll Call but ask each one of us to secure all the additional members we can. It will be a great help if we enroll at the beginning that others doing our good work may do likewise.

The canvassers are giving their time and their money to put this Roll Call over. It's up to us to assist them in every possible way we can and to show them every possible courtesy.

To Preach Red Cross Sermon The Red Cross, thru its Chairman of Public Speakers, Hon. Tasker Polk, requests all ministers to preach a special Red Cross Service Sunday November the fourteenth.
