CHURCHILL ITEMS

Hog killing and getting ready for Christmas, holds full sway around now and from the looks of the fine hogs to be seen hanging from the poles there will be plenty of sausage and spare ribs for Christmas, if our neighbors are not ready in any other way.

Mr. Blount, a Ministerial student from Wake Forest, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adcock of Churchill, and preached a very good sermon at Gardners church Sunday morning.

Mr. Claude Haithecock of Norlina, attended preaching and Sunday school at Gardners Sunday morning, and returned to his place of business in the evening. Claude's wife and young twins are staying on awhile with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Haithecock of Churchill.

Sunday was a cloudy and cold day and would have been dreary, but Mr. C. A. Harris of Macon passed our way four times, and it made the day seem bright and clear to hear him smile, it's almost impossible to be lonesome while Charlie is around.

Mrs. J. W. Adcock, our genial good neighbor that always makes the stranger feel at home, was introducing Mr. Blount to her friends Sunday.

Mr. H. V. Scarborough's Ford failed to go on Sunday, but faithful old Prince, his buggy horse, was on the job all right, and Mr. Scarborough and his family were at preaching at Gardners as usual. It takes something more than a balking Ford to keep Mr. Scarborough from going to church.

Miss Lena Rivers Haithecock was Group Leader at The B. Y. P. U. services at Gardner's Sunday night. This was her first time as Group Leader, and she conducted the meeting fine. She was substituting for her sister, Miss Lillian, who is in a hospital at Richmond, Va., for treatment. As Sunday night was cloudy and cold there was only thirteen members of our B. Y. P. U. present out of an enrollment of sixty, but Jesus said "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, I will be in their midst," so thirteen was not an unlucky number this time.

Mr. Clyde Haithecock was at Norlina Sunday, as his custom is, looking at the new gin and warehouse we suppose.

Mr. Ham Adcock, formerly Churchill, but now stationed at Franklin, Va., with the Seaboard Painting force, was visiting his parents Saturday and Sunday. He attended preaching at Gardner's Sunday morning.

Mr. Garland Overby of Macon called to see Miss Louise Frazier of Oak Side Sunday night.

Mr. Wilbur Overby of Warren Plains was down to see Miss Susie Frazier Sunday night.

Messrs. Edwin Burrows and Clarence Adcock were welcome visitors in the home of Mr. T. P. Shearin on Sunday evening.

Mr. Jimmie Duncan is visiting friends at Neuse.

Sam Blount and Ollie Ellis, the champion cake eaters, were at J. T. Haithecock & Co's store on Saturday night. That means an order has got to go forth for cakes right away.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gardner were at preaching at Gardner's Sunday. Simon is our new Register of Deeds, having defeated Mr. J. A. Dowtin in the recent election. Mr. Dowtin held this office twenty-two years.

Miss Maude Allen Haithecock is visiting her sisters, Mrs. C. W. Smyer and Mrs. H. T. Gooch of Durham.

While in Richmond a few days ago Mr. H. G. Haithecock bought a new Ford. When it comes to buying, trading and selling cars and guns, Henry has us all beat, he doesn't keep either long before he sells or trades them off.

Mr. A. J. Gardner went to Vaughan again Sunday night. Alton certainly does enjoy driving over that good road.

The children are all delighted at the thought of Santa Claus being so near. We hope none of them will be disappointed when he comes.

WELL WISHER.

MARMADUKE ITEMS.
