President-Elect Returns To Washington After Tour of Latin America

FIRST OFF HIS TRAIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—President-elect Hoover came home from his Latin-American good-will tour today, tanned and healthy, ready to plunge Monday into the numerous problems that will confront him at the outset of his administration in March.

The special train which hurried him, Mrs. Hoover, Allen, Herbert, Jr., and members of his Latin American party, without a stop, from Old Point Comfort, arrived at Union Station here at 2:40 p. m.

Hoover was first of his party to step off the train. He shook hands with Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who headed a welcoming delegation including William R. Castle, assistant Secretary of State, and Dr. L. S. Rowe, Director General of the Pan-American Union.

Only a small crowd of people were in the station when the train arrived, and the Hoovers slipped away to their home on S street. The president-elect had dinner with his family tonight privately.

Goos Back West

The Hoover family was united again, but briefly, Allen, the younger son, left at 7 o'clock tonight for Palo Alto, where he will resume his studies at Stanford university. He will return for the inauguration in March, and complete his college career with graduation in June. Allen was accompanied west by John G. Moot, Los Angeles attorney, who made the Latin-American tour.

Monday Hoover will begin a strenuous week. He will call upon President Coolidge at the White House, reporting upon his trip, will confer with the local inauguration committee about the ceremony March 4, and will begin a series of conferences with Congressional leaders and his own lieutenants, designed to clear the way for the opening of his administration, and to make up his cabinet.

Among other things, Hoover will seek the president's views upon another good-will tour, this time to the West Indies.

Hoover virtually has decided to take his second good-will mission, dependent upon President Coolidge's approval. If the trip is made, it probably will be early in February, and take in Havana, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Dominican Republic, and Haiti.

The battleship Utah, which brought Hoover back from Buenos Aires, probably would be used, taking the party aboard at Miami. In contemplation of such a trip, the high frequency radio set, which dispatched about 75,000 words of press from the Utah, has been retained temporarily on the ship. Just before the Utah reached home, previous orders to dismantle the set and transfer it to the cruiser Pittsburgh, now in Asiatic waters, were rescinded.

Mexico City

It is understood Hoover is disposed against a trip to Mexico City, and does not at this time intend to include it. If he makes the West Indian trip, however, considerable pressure will be brought to bear upon him, it is known, to go also to Mexico City.

In his conferences with Coolidge, Hoover is expected to clear up any misunderstanding about his interview with President Irigoyen of Argentina, which, as published in a Buenos Aires newspaper, was interpreted in some quarters as criticism of President Coolidge's Nicaraguan policy.

Farm relief and prohibition are the immediate problems facing Hoover in his visit here, which is expected to be concluded at the end of this week unless some unforeseen situation arises. Hoover promised before election to call an extra session unless adequate agricultural legislation was passed at this session, and that now seems improbable.

Hoover gave much time to a study of prohibition in the last few days on the Utah, and is expected to make some suggestions along the lines of tightening enforcement, as well as his previous suggestion for an impartial investigation, in his inaugural message.

It is generally believed Mellon will retain the treasury portfolio and Assistant Attorney General William J. Donovan, one of Hoover's campaign managers, will be named attorney general.

The names of Julius Klein, now head of the foreign and domestic bureau of the commerce department, and Julius Barnes, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce and head of the war-time grain administration are mentioned prominently as secretary of commerce.

There is considerable speculation about the other posts, which continues without any indication from Hoover as to its accuracy.

Chapel Presented To Confederate Women

FAYETTEVILLE, Dec. 24.—A beautiful little memorial chapel was presented to the State Home for Confederate Women yesterday afternoon by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The presentation ceremonies were held at the Home west of this city, with State officers of the North Carolina division of the U. D. C. taking part and the principal address by Dr. Watson M. Fairley, well known minister of Raeford, who was the Presbyterian pastor in Fayetteville when the Home was established here and has always taken an interest in it. The memorial chapel was presented to Mrs. Walter F. Woodard of Wilson, retiring president of the U. D. C., who then presented it to Charles G. Rose of this city, chairman of the directors of the Home. Mr. Rose made the speech of acceptance.

Mrs. Hunter G. Smith of Fayetteville, a member of the board of directors, presided. Greetings were given by Mrs. E. R. MacKethan, president of the J. E. B. Stuart chapter, and after the singing of "How Firm a Foundation," the invocation was spoken by Dr. Joel S. Snyder. Miss Josephine Smith then sang a solo, "My Task." The presentation of the chapel to Mrs. Woodard followed, with the presentation made by Mrs. Charles S. Wallace of Morehead City, the chairman of the State committee of the U. D. C. which built the chapel. Then came the acceptance of the chapel from Mrs. Woodard by Mrs. Rose, and the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." Dr. Fairley was introduced by Mrs. Smith. After this address the assemblage sang "Joy to the World, the Lord has Come," and the benediction was given by Rev. T. H. Sutton.

The members of the building committee were Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. T. E. Malloy of Asheville, Mrs. S. L.

Smith of Whiteville and Mrs. S. P. Cooper of Henderson.
