HENDERSON IS TO HAVE AUTO SHOW

Attraction Is Sponsored By The American Legion And Chamber of Commerce

APRIL 29-MAY 4 DATES

Henderson, April 18.—With plans being completed and its posters covering this territory indications are that banner crowds will attend the second annual Auto Show, Merchants Exposition and Indoor Circus, under the auspices of the local Legion Post and the Chamber of Commerce at Henderson from April 29th to May 4th.

If just half of the tentative plans of the two above organizations materialize, then Henderson will have the honor of sponsoring one of the largest and most complete trade shows and circuses ever presented in this section of the state.

Henderson is particularly lucky in being the home town of the Castello-Loughlin circus unit. These two families known from coast to coast in the show world, will constitute the bases of the circus to be presented each night in a regulation three ring circus top, which will be erected on a lot in the rear of the High Price warehouse that will be used as the Exposition building. In conjunction with the above riding acts will be added, numerous other acts of various natures. The show will consist of riding acts, sensational aerial acts, phenominal tumbling and acrobatic numbers and practically every attraction that goes to make up any of the first class circuses. Fun will be injected to the program by a troupe of famous clowns neaded by Raymond and Marcus.

Services of the Carolina Buccaneers of the University of North Carolina have been secured for the week and that well known musical organization can be depended upon to hold up their end of the affairs and to assist materially in making the event a success. They will also furnish the music for the nightly dances that will be featured at the Henderson Exposition.

Local Auto Dealers and Merchants readily purchased all available space in the Exposition build- or urban is immune," he said. "Life ing, fifty-six Merchants and fourteen Automobile dealers being represented with beautiful displays.

Hoover Appeals For Obedience To Laws Of All Kinds

NEW YORK, April 22.—President Hoover stated today that in many large American cities murder can apparently be committed with immunity, and he appealed for obedience to laws of all kinds.

Speaking at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, the president said in his first public address since his inauguration that robbery and burglary are far more common here than in Great Britain and that embezzlement and forgery, our record stands no comparison with stable nations.

"No part of the country, rural and property are relatively more unsafe than in any other civilized country in the world."

Prefacing his remarks with a tribute to the late Melville E. Stone, former general manager of the Associated Press, the president began Much interest has been snown by the reading of his prepared address sidered enforcement and obedience fore the American people.

I have purposely cited the extent of murder, burglary, robbery, forgery and embezzlement, for but a small percentage of these can be attributed to the Eighteenth Amendment."

Suggestion To Press The president suggested as crime deterent that newspaper publishers invest the acts of enforcement officers with some of the glamor of romance and heroism 'which our American imaginative minds throw around those who break the law." As he did in his inaugural address seven weeks ago, the president placed squarely before the people their responsibility in the matter of law observance and said the real problem was to awaken the consciousness, the moral sense, of the citizen and, if necessary, to segregate where they could do no further harm "degenerate minds," which have not the intelligence and the moral instinct to obey the law as a matter of conscience.

From his own administration, the chief executive pledged a strengthening of the law enforcement agencies by orderly processes, week by week, month by month, year by year, by steady pressure, steady weeding out of incapable and negligent officials, by promotion and recognition for those who do their duty, and by the most rigid scrutiny of the records and mental attitudes of all persons suggested by appointment to official posts in the law enforcement machinery.
