

PLAYERS ENTER TOWN MATCH

Warrenton Plays Louisburg
Next Wednesday;
Other Clubs Contest

PARHAM IS SECRETARY

Members from Warrenton are to play their first match with Louisburg next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, opening play in the four-town tournament of the Carolina Golf association. The organization was recently organized at a meeting in Henderson which included Warrenton, Henderson, Roanoke Rapids and Roanoke Rapids.

Manning of Roanoke Rapids was named as president of the association and E. P. Parham of Henderson as secretary. The first meeting was held upon a minimum of eight days in any match for the season.

It was also decided that two foursomes, to suit the convenience of the club players, how to be matched one against another, one point to be given for each hole, one point for the nine, one point for the 18 and one point for the 36.

It was also decided that a cup be purchased by the four clubs, to be shared among the four clubs. The club winning the highest number of points in all the matches played is to receive the cup for one year, permanent possession of the cup to go to the club which it three years in succession.

It was further decided that the matches begin promptly at 2 o'clock and that no lunches are to be served by the club acting as hosts.

Those present at the meeting strongly expressed the hope that just as many players as possible would participate in all the matches as the idea is, of course, everybody to have a big time. The directors of the association strongly urged to try to induce every golfer in their own neighborhood to participate in the matches. The question of whether he can shoot under 100 or 125.

Williams Expects County To Receive $59,000 From State

Senator B. B. Williams, member of the State Board of Equalization has been away this week in Eastern Carolina counties arranging for the funds to be sent each county by the State. Mrs. Williams has been with him.

Mr. Williams said that Warren would probably receive $59,000 for school purposes from his board. This, with the more than $25,000 coming to Warren under the new road law, is expected to allow an appreciable cut in ad valorem taxes.

Library Offers Books For "Travel" Reading

Reading courses are being prepared for young readers designed to cover an imaginary trip around the world. Books for this course may be found in the International Mind Alcove. One tour will include Africa. The books covering this tour are "Three Boy Scouts in Africa", a best seller; "Alice in Jungleland" and "Boy of the Desert". For each book read the reader will receive credit for so many miles traveled on the tour. Other tours will include various European countries and the far north.

Some readers have expressed concern over what they term the immorality of modern fiction. They think that the trend of the modern novel is in that direction, and include among the books under ban a recent Nobel prize winner. That so competent judges should pronounce a book of that character the finest literary production of the year seems incredible. The explanation lies, I think, in the matter of standards.

The Book of Books portrays life as it was and is. The most flagrant conduct is uncovered. No one would presume to say that the Bible is immoral on that account. Before pronouncing judgment on a book we should ask ourselves if it makes vice alluring? It matters not how well written it may be it cannot be called a good book if it does that.

An old proverb says, "You cannot touch pitch and not be defiled". That is true. But one must know of its existence if he would guard against its stain. Ignorance and innocence are by no means synonymous terms. That illusion has been shattered. New standards are inevitable, and I think we shall not regret the change after it is accepted.

Richard Dix Now In Baltimore Hospital

BALTIMORE, May 14.—Richard Dix, motion picture star, under another name has been recovering in Union Memorial hospital here from an operation performed several days ago, but not until today did his identity become known.

The actor, who was expected to be able to leave the hospital soon, was entered on the rolls as E. C. Brimmer to avoid publicity. He explained today that the present operation was necessary because some of his strenuous athletics before the camera had opened up the wound of an earlier operation for appendicitis. The second operation was performed at the hospital here by Dr. J. M. T. Finney.

Plaza Part of Capital Building Project

The proposed new Pennsylvania Avenue Triangle of public buildings in Washington, D. C., one of the most ambitious programs to be undertaken by the government, includes a great plaza. The view of the plaza shown above is looking from the Department of Commerce Building east toward the Capitol.

Warren Musicians Play Over Radio At Station In Raleigh

Ten young Warren musicians, pupils of Mrs. John Burwell, went on the air from Station WPTF at Raleigh last evening from 6 to 6:30 o'clock, carrying their talents to thousands of North Carolinians. These pupils were selected following a recital given at John Graham high school on Tuesday evening.

Those who took part in the broadcast late yesterday afternoon were Nancy Gillam, Ethel May King, Emily Reid, Ethel Russell, Mable Carroll, Margaret Blalock, Elizabeth Rooker, Grace Wagner, Panthea Massenburt and Marie Pinnell.

General praise for the program of Tuesday evening has been heard here this week. A large crowd attended and the evening was featured by the selection of the radio group and by the presentation to first year pupils mementoes acknowledging "good work during the course." Mrs. Burwell presented these to the following first year pupils: Nancy and Laura Ellis, Ethel King, Margaret Frazier, Frances Reid, Nancy Gillam, Mariam Boyd and Nellie Ball.

In a list deserving special mention, the teacher included Emily Reid, Edith Terrell, Mable Carroll, Margaret Blalock, Elizabeth Rooker, Grace Wagner and Elizabeth Boyd.

The radio group was accompanied to Raleigh yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. John Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gillam, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Russell of Macon.

Solvent Credit List Is Given Tax Assessors

List takers of Warren, busy in the twelve townships of the county, have been furnished a list of solvent credits which were revealed in search of the records in the office of Register of Deeds Powell. This information was secured by John B. Palmer of Warrenton upon order of the board of county commissioners.

The effort to check taxable values in this manner probably will bring much money to the tax books of Warren, it is said here.

D. A. R. MEETS

Mrs. M. P. Burwell and Mrs. J. G. Ellis were hostesses to Warren Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution on Friday afternoon, May 10th, in the home of Mrs. Burwell. The address of the president general to the 38 continental congress recently convened in Washington was read in part, and the resolution passed at this meeting carefully noted.

The invitation of Mrs. S. P. Cooper, regent of Old Bute Chapter, Henderson, to join with them on the occasion of the placing of marker on the site of the old Bute court house was appreciated and accepted by the chapter.

The report of the nominating committee was read and adopted. Officers elected for the chapter are as follows: regent, Mrs. C. R. Rodwell; vice regent, Mrs. M. P. Burwell; secretary, Mrs. Paul Bell; treasurer, Mrs. W. N. Boyd; registrar, Mrs. R. B. Boyd.

The subject of study for this meeting was "Setting up House-keeping for Ourselves." Mrs. J. B. Massenburt read an instructive paper on "Organizing for the Revolution." Mrs. W. A. Connell gave an interesting sketch of Cornelius Harnett, once called by a distinguished visitor to this State, "The Samuel Adams of North Carolina."

4 Chapters U. D. C. Gather At The Grave Of Annie Carter Lee

Members of four chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the grave of Annie Carter Lee, daughter of General Robert E. Lee, on last Friday to pay tribute through the daughter to the Confederate chieftain and to the men who gave their all to their country's service. Warrenton, Louisiana, Oxford and Henderson chapters were represented. Mrs. Sidney Cooper of Henderson was in charge of the exercises.

Mrs. Cooper expressed the wish that this gathering could be made an annual affair, not only as an appropriate means of honoring the dead, but also to create a more friendly and co-operative spirit through mutual intercourse. Her suggestion met with the expressed approval of those present.

Mrs. O'Neal of the Henderson chapter told of the first meeting at the Jones' cemetery, or raising the monument by popular subscription, and of the visit of General Lee to the grave where he expressed the wish to Joseph S. Jones that the body of his daughter remain there. Mrs. Bridgers of the Henderson chapter read a beautiful poem, a tribute to Anne Carter Lee. Carolina and other patriotic songs were lead by Mrs. Topleman, and flowers and flags were placed on the graves.

Miss Wilker Wins High Music Honor

High honors have come within the past few days to Miss Drusa Wilker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilker of Warren Plains, for musical excellence at Converse college, Spartanburg, S. C. Miss Wilker won praise here for her musical ability and has followed her course at college with marked success.

In addition to winning the cup for the best all around student in B music at Converse, Miss Wilker made 96 on piano examination.

The message of her success came as a Mother's day present to her family.

Board To Elect Welfare Worker At Meeting of June 3

Election of a county superintendent of public welfare, previously held on the second Monday in July, has been changed to the first Monday in June, according to a letter from the North Carolina State Board of Charities and Public Welfare which was received this week by John Clay Powell, chairman of the board of county commissioners for Warren. This position is now held by Miss Lucy I. Leach, who, it is understood, is a candidate for re-election.

The selection is made by the boards of education and county commissioners in joint session, and the letter says that "each applicant should have the recommendation of the County Board of Public Welfare before the application is considered by the boards in joint session." The Warren board is composed of Miss Carrie Helen Moore, C. R. Rodwell, G. B. Gregory and Mrs. C. R. Rodwell.

Kate Burr Johnson, commissioner, closes the form letter with this paragraph, "If you have a well qualified person serving as superintendent of public welfare, whose work is satisfactory, we hope no change will be made, since training and experience are necessary qualifications for doing constructive welfare work."

Rats Believed To Have Started Fire

Rats are believed to have been responsible for the fire here early Thursday morning that damaged the Powell building on Main street and played havoc with the stock of Raymond Rodwell, merchant.

The fire was discovered by Night Officer Lovell at about 12:30 and the alarm brought the fire company and many citizens to the scene. The blaze originated under a counter near the front of the store. Mr. Rodwell locked his store at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. He said that there had been no fire in the store during the day. Damage to building and stock is estimated by Mr. Rodwell to be approximately $500. There was no insurance.

Dies Suddenly In Field Near His Home

J. A. Nicholson, 70, died suddenly in a field near his home at Macon on Wednesday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at the home yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the cemetery near the home.

Mr. Nicholson is survived by one sister, Mrs. Walter Bobbitt.

Fiddlers To Meet At Littleton On May 24

Final plans are being completed and every indication points to a gala affair at Littleton on Friday night, May 24, when musicians from all over this section are to gather for an old time fiddlers convention, according to a communication received yesterday from that town.

The fun will start at 8 o'clock and citizens are urged to come out and bring the entire family.

MISS BOBBITTS' SCHOOL WINS WINSTON-SALEM, May 14.—A

contest of all the city school grammar grade glee clubs was held in the R. J. Reynolds auditorium, Friday night, May 10th. There were fourteen glee clubs contesting, seven girls' clubs and seven boys' clubs. Two numbers were sung by each of the clubs.

Skyland school boys sang in four parts, "Sweet Day is Softly Dying" and "The Volga Boatman," an old Russian peasant air in three parts. The Skyland girls sang "River, River," in two parts and "Would God I Were The Tender Apple Blossom," a Londonderry tune in three parts, unaccompanied. The final numbers, "Old King Cole," and "The Jolly Miller," were sung by the 560 children who were the contestants.

Skyland school, under the direction of Miss Alice Bobbitt won; the girls in first place and boys in second.

TRIAL OF MACON HOLDS INTEREST

May Term Warren County Superior Court Convenes Here Monday Morning

W. A. DEVIN TO PRESIDE

Interest in May term of Warren county Superior court centers in the trial of John "Buddy" Macon, negro murderer, who fatally shot Sam Pinnell and wounded Deputy Sheriff Robert Pinnell at the home of Baldy Mitchell near Afton on May 3.

"Whether I try him is entirely dependent upon Pinnell's condition at Henderson and what the doctors up there say about it," Solicitor R. Hunt Parker said yesterday when called at Roanoke Rapids by The Warren Record. He will not be tried at this term if appearance before the grand jury and then in court will in any manner injure the health of Pinnell, he said.

Bessie Mitchell, negro woman, who told the officers that Macon was not in her home just prior to the time that Macon ran from the back door and fired upon the officers, will be trial on a charge of obstructing an officer.

C. L. Massey, white man charged with manslaughter, growing out of the death of Bob King who was struck by a car driven by the defendant last fall as he with his eloping bride were en route to South Hill, Va., will be heard. Massey was called at the January court but failed to appear and the case was continued to the May term of court.

T. J. Robertson, charged with secret assault, and Phil Tally, negroes awaiting trial in Warren jail, will probably be given an opportunity to tell the court the part they played in the shooting of L. M. King, white man of Wise, on the night of April 4. Trial may await the outcome of Mr. King's injuries.

J. P. Alston, charged with assault, George Woodard, store breaking and larceny, Ford Alston, larceny, Peter T. Williams, trespass, Guy Clark, abduction, Lucy Bennett, larceny, are others who are called to face the court and prove to Warren county juries whether they are guilty or innocent.

What day John Buddy Macon will be tried is not known. He will have to be given a preliminary hearing here before his case is docketed on the court calendar. It is probably that this hearing will not be held until after the arrival of the judge and solicitor. Robert Pinnell is a material witness in the trial and it is possible that he will not be able to be here early in the week.

Although his case has not been docketed for trial, Ernest Saunders, burly negro, will probably be tried next week. He was brought here from the Atlanta penitentiary since the January term of court and it will be necessary for the new grand jury to find a true bill against him before he can be brought into court.

Five years ago Saunders overpowered Jailer Fate Weaver, grabbed his gun and threw the town in a furor in his dash for freedom. He eluded several posses that beat the bush in a vain search for two days. Later he was caught by Federal officers, found guilty of a postoffice robbery and served several years in the Atlanta penitentiary. His time expired in February and he was turned over to Warren officers to be brought back to Warrenton to stand trial for jail breaking.

Jurors drawn for the May term of court include: J. B. Davis, Boyd H. Reams, W. W. Hudgins, W. Duke Jones, Boyd King, W. E. Thompson, R. M. Alston, G. C. Perkinson, Roy Ellis, J. C. Hardy, P. E. Hillard, E. L. Crawley, George R. Frazier, Joe F. King, W. F. Dill, W. A. Tharrington, R. H. Rudd, W. J. Hecht, A. R. Delbridge, C. M. Moore, T. J. Harris, W. A. Kimball, W. D. Bolton, B. M. Hale, W. H. B. Riggan, H. L. Pope, H. A. Wright, E. L. Harris, G. H. Thompson, J. S. Bell, E. L. Hudgins, L. L. Hayes.

Severely Cut By Mowing Machine

H. H. Kearney, negro, is recovering at his home near Embro. He suffered a severe laceration of his ankle last Thursday in a mowing machine. The ham-string tendon and a large vein were cut. Dr. F. P. Hunter administered surgical attention.

The accident occurred when Kearney, standing in front of the mower blade attempted to fasten a girl on one of the horses. The team gave a jerk and the accident resulted.
