WARRENTON, COUNTY MISS Library N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1929

NUMBER 22

ELLS PURPOSE F EXAMINATION

DLUME XXIX

Frederick Taylor Points Out Efforts Of Board To Prevent Disease

ROGRESS EXPLAINED

r. Frederick R. Taylor, director Health Maintenance Bureau of te Board of Health, will this ning examine a select number Farren county men in an effort show the part that physical exmations at stated periods plays the control of diseases.

r Taylor was at Warrenton on sday and conferred with local sicians in order to make plans is manifestly impossible for the te board of health to examine persons in North Carolina, Dr. for explained. It must confine its k to educational programs. Only who are believed to be health rimen are to be examined and director believes that facts nd from these examinations will onstrate their value and cause ers to be examined periodically. s work can only be carried out the aid of local physicians, and data found proves the necessity. ne health director explained the t strides make in conquering e dreaded diseases, such as llpox, typhoid, and tuberculosis. arerage age of life has been thened thereby, but the tremenus strain of modern life has sed a great increase in cancer, t and kidney diseases. The lical profession is now turning attention to these from the pretive standpoint rather than that hese three diseases, as well as ly others, can be cured if found ime. Unfortunately, by the time persons with these diseases feel effect, the disease has made headway that it is very difficult emedy. The object of periodical mination is to find these disease e great damage has been he Metropolitan Life Insurance pany by requiring their policyers to be examined yearly has reased mortality in the examined up by 24 per cent, Dr. Taylor ed. The physical changes reed of the human body in order edopt itself to environment has n greater in the last 25 years n in 2500 pears preceding. The in on the body is tremendous we hope that an increasingly e number will take annual exnations in order that medical nce may give necessary aid in e, Dr. Taylor said.

orth Carolina is the first State put on a state-wide campaign his nature. Dr. Taylor said. He how the ideas of the medical ession were changes from that turing to prevention of diseases commented briefly on the part clinics were playing in betterour health record.

e illustrated the part of prevenby a personal illustration. The sician said that several years while he had private practice, a little boy was brought to because his parents believed he was mentally defective. He apparently healthy, but had rened in the third grade for three s. He was given a simple mentest. The physician placed 17 s in a row and asked the child count them. When he reached he became confused. Then he told to count to 100. He readily piled. Asked to touch the coins count, he counted the full numwithout difficulty. His trouble found to be in his eyes. Fitted glasses he became a bright ent and carried on his school with ease. The tragedy lies, Physician concluded, in the in reference to the Kiwanis barbesands of cases where no inigation is made.

vision W. M. U. To leet Here On June 7

hal arrangements are being after the fire of two weeks ago. e and a program prepared for He did not lose any time. annual meeting of the Greensdivision of the Woman's Misary Union of North Carolina h will be held at the Warren-Baptist church on Friday morn-June 7, at 10:30 o'clock, an er of the local union announced Arday. The meeting will close that this annual Overby, Mutt Overby, Let Jones. Willie Prescott and Duke Jones.

Her Fever 112 ALSTON GIVEN ROAD SENTENCE

The highest temperature believed yet recorded by a patient was that of 9-year-old Rose Lombardi of San Francisco, who is recovering from an attack of blood poisoning. After suffering a fever of 112 degrees, she gradually began to improve in condition, and is much better now.

FOLKS AND

EVENTS

The entire appearance of South

Main street has been improved by the new front which Allen, Son &

Co. added this week. The larger disa door to up stairs offices, add generally to the appearance of the store. The whole force, all of the men, which is not all of the force by any means, has had a hand in the change, working under the general direction of "Mr. E. S." and

"Soon after I went to Philadelphia they arrested me one day for riding a bicycle too fast through

They are runing cars through the

"Between Weldon and Littleton seat. Riding the front bumper, apparently unaware of the danger, a he will attend the Allen-Gregg wedding and visit other friends in the ployes last Friday. In the language of a social outing, "a good time was

Raymond Rodwell has about placed his store in good shape again

GUESTS AT DINNER

Members of B company's basket-

Warrenton on Wednesday evening.

The Warren Record.

asked yesterday.

Had a good time."

park now above 50 miles per hour, and nothing is said about it.

Pryor Allen.

first place.

the park."

Negro Who Plead Guilty OF Shooting Peter Williams Must Serve 6 Months

COURT ENDS SATURDAY

June P. Alston, negro, who plead guilty to an assault with a deadly weapon upon Peter Williams several months ago, was sentenced to served six months on the road by Judge W. A. Devin in Superior Court here last week. Alston entered his plea after a jury failed to reach a verdict on a charge of secret assault. The State accepted his plea and sentenced was pronounced the latter part of the week.

Peter Williams, an aged colored man of near Arcola, was shot one night as he sat in his room. The shot was fired through the window and resulted in the negro losing his hands. Later Alston was arrested and charged with the crime.

Court adjourned Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Cases tried from Thursday noon until adjournment included:

C. W. Alston vs. W. H. Dameron. Judgment was that he is to pay defendant $2,500 instead of $3,800.

Haithcock vs. Sears. Judgment, neither could collect damages resulting from an automobile wreck ing they will return to the orphanseveral months ago. Russell H. Smith vs. J. W. Hudson.

Judgment $523. Plaintiff was suing play windows, made posible by in- for $1,200 damage resulting from cluding the space formerly used as automobile accident.

The case of Roy Rudd vs. J. W. Mayfield, slander, was continued.

Town Citizens Enjoy 'Cue; Kiwanis Guests

Proprietors of Warrenton business houses and their employees "I have never been arrested but gathered at the golf course on Frionce in my life," Herbert Alston day afternoon where they were was commenting the other night to guests for the Kiwanis club barbea group of the younger ones about cue. More than 150 persons gatherthe curb in front of the drug store. ed around the long table and en-We wanted for an explanation, joyed the repast. surprised at the occurrence in the

B. B. Williams told the members of the club and their guests that the purpose of the gathering was to promote good fellowship and to ask them to aid in the development of Warrenton.

As an example of public spiritedness, he told that the golf club was primarily due to two men, Ed Gillam and M. C. McGuire. More of poration. such spirit is needed, he said.

the other day I met a small roadster with three persons crowding the we must have more publicity. He asked all present to aid in this by boosting the various businesses of small boy was greeting every one the town and especially the towith a wave as the car sped along," bacco and cotton markets at every from the "Here-There" column of opportunity.

Invocation was asked by the Rev. Dr. T. J. Gibbs and the hungry Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gregory and crowd fell to with appetites sharpfamily returned to Warrenton on Sunday after spending a week in ened in several instances by a round of golf.

W. N. Boyd, president of the club, "What did you do,' Guy?" he was was master of ceremonies. R. B. Boyd, F. T. Read, Paul Bell, and "Played golf every day I could Roy Davis were in charge of the and attended the horse show, too. barbecue, which was cooked by Jack Riggan. H. N. Walters, E. E. Gil-W. T. Polk, who has a way of lam and M. C. McGuire were in going almost anywhere, any time, charge of the program. E. C. Hecht without any conversation relative of Norlina with his Delco system furnished lights for the occasion. thereto, quietly set sail for New York on Tuesday evening where

Fagg To See Brother

Memories of happy boyhood days J. Edward Allen, superintendent in Ireland will be renewed today of education in Warren, has been at Lexington when W. C. Fagg, attending commencement exercises at Wake Forest this week. While Warrenton magistrate, meets his there Mr. Allen took part in the brother S. S. Fagg of Chicago for States attorney general in Wash- Raleigh station way by Miss Elizathe first time in 51 years at the ington today. deliberations of the board of home of D. A. Shofe, a mutual friend. Mr. and Mrs. Fagg departed from Warrenton for Lexington this General comment has been heard cue given to business men and em-

Magistrate W. C. Fagg come from Ireland in 1876. In 1909 he came to Warrenton where he has been making his home since. His brother has many years, but their paths have not crossed and Mr. Fagg said yesterday that he was looking forward with much pleasure to the meeting.

RODWELL-HARRIS

An announcement of much interest to friends in Warren in Sunball team entertained at a banquet day's News and Observer, was that dinner at John Powell's Cafe at of Miss Annie Harris of Louisburg and Mr. Clyde Rodwell of Warren-Coach John Hunter Newell acted ton. The marriage to take place as toastmaster and most of the the latter part of June.

Miss Harris was a popular memthe has ever had with as ever had with a confiner with the largest representation of the soldiers of the South which is to be held at Charlotte. Mrs. G. H. Macon.

Orphanage Singing Class To Appear At Auditorium Tonight

The Oxford Orphanage Singing class will appear in sacred concert at the John Graham high school tonight at 8 o'clock.

The ten girls and four boys constituting the class will be in charge of L. W. Alderman and Mrs. Read Pleasants. They will be entertained Friday night in the homes of Warrenton citizens. S. E. Burroughs is chairman of the Orphanage committee and has spared no pains in making arrangements for the con-

Warrenton children have been busy for the last few days selling tickets and the prizes offered have brought forth good work. Advanced ticket sales indicate that many will attend, and it is expected that hundreds of others who have heard the programs here in years past will buy tickets at the door. The reputation of the singing class and the worthiness of their cause is expected to draw a banner crowd.

The class was to have appeared here early in the Spring but their dating was postponed on account of the measles epidemic raging here at that time. Now the class is on their way home and the recital Friday night will be the last of the season, it is said. Tomorrow mornage at Oxford.

Mrs. Willebrandt Accepts Position Aviation 'Czarina'

NEW YORK, May 28. - Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt has turned from mopping up the cellars of the nation to sweeping the cobwebs from its airways.

Insofar as aviation can have a czarina, that czarina will be Mrs. straighten out the country's various faced the judge. tions of conflicting legislation and in general to lay out of program of standardized policy much as Will Haves did for the movies.

Revelation of the nature of the new job, which won the nation's outstanding prohibition enforcehere today by Graham G. Grosvenor, president of the aviation cor-

If we are to have a better town interested governmental agencies weapon confiscated. Towns was also will be invited to co-operate in Mrs. charged with violating the Turling-Willebrandt's survey," said Gros- ton act. He was given a four months > Laws Need Unification "Our laws governing and impigning upon aviation need unification. State statutes pertaining both to the havior. operation of aircraft and aviation as an industry lack uniformity. A proization is essential. "Mrs. Willebraudt is ideally quali-will pursue along with her general term to pay court costs. duties as the aviation corporation's legal representative in Washington."

Grosvenor did not reveal what Mrs. Willebraudt's salary would be but said the corporation had no objection to having it made public if she wished to tell "in order to obviate exaggeration."

pany for half a dozen large airplane this young artist. manufacturers and air lines.

Dr. Gibbs To Preach On Sunday, June 9th

The Rev. Dr. J. T. Gibbs will deliver the morning sermon at the are in New York for the wedding Methodist church on June 8, a week of Miss Mary Garland Allen, daughalso been living in this country for from next Sunday, according to an ter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. announcement yesterday from the Allen to Mr. Will R. Gregg of New Rev. B. P. Robinson, minister in York. The wedding will occur tocharge. The Rev. Mr. Robinson will morrow afternoon in the gardens of at that time be in attendance upon Spottswoode, the Westchester counthe Pastor's Training school at try home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen. Duke university.

Gibbs' sermon-subject. The Rev. Mr. Robinson departs next Wednesday ed by J. E. Rooker Sr.

is to be held at Charlotte.

Four Times British Champion

For the fourth time Walter Hagen won the British open golf championship this year, a feat unduplicated in the history of the tournaments. The famous American golfer is shown as he addressed an audience of Britons assembled on the links where his remarkable victory was scored.

Five Defendants Face Judge Here Monday Morning

With five accused persons appear-

John Watkins faced the court on two counts: Both were for giving worthless checks. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs in both counts.

ment officer away from Hoover's the defendant appear in court every a girl across the State line for imofficial family to "a field of con- first Monday for term of six months moral purposes. The defendant structive legal works" was made and prove good behavior by competent witnesses.

Nathaniel Towns was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. "The entire industry as well as He was fined $50 and cost and the road sentence and taxed with the cost. The road sentence was suspended provided that the defendant appear in court and prove good be-

Pishan Hanks was sentenced to jail for a term of four months when Lenard was carried back to Norgram and policy for their standard- he was found guilty of a charge of lina where charges were dropped carrying a concealed weapon. The and he was set free. commissioners were granted the fied for this undertaking, which she privilege of hiring him out for that Good Looks Make

Miss Wilker Plays Over Radio June 6

Miss Drusa Wilker, who recently won a cup at Converse college for excellence in music, will broadcast The aviation corporation was or- from station WPTF, Raleigh, next ganized last March with an au- Thursday evening, June 6, from 7 The cup which Miss Wilker won President Hoover announced ac- is on display at Burroughs Grocery ceptance of Mrs. Willebrandt's Co. Yesterday afternoon from 6 to resignation as assistant United 6:30 o'clock, the program over the I had seen in a long time, and the Ethel Russell of Macon.

IN NEW YORK TO ATTEND GREGG-ALLEN WEDDING

Many persons of Warrenton, with others from Oxford, and Virginia, The bridal couple will go to Europe "The Book of Job" will be Dr. for an extended honeymoon.

Those present for the ceremony will include the Misses Ann and for Duke. Prayer meeting next Alice Burwell, M. P. Burwell Sr., the Wednesday evening will be conduct- Misses Lucy and Edith Burwell, Jr., the Misses Lucy and Elizabeth DINNER FOR VETERANS LATER Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Watson,

Negro Jailed For Two Days; Charges Dropped And Freed

Black, black as the ace of spades, ing before him, Judge T. O. Rod- yet charged with violating the Mann well had a busy morning in Re- White Slavery act; arrested by corder's court here on Monday. Bad State officers on a State warrant, checks were responsible for two of yet charged with a Federal offense, the cases. Inability to distinguish not within the jurisdiction of the between thine and mine was cause State courts; placed under bond in another case. Carrying concealed and sent to Recorders court, inweapon brought two into court and stead of Federal court, and landviolation of the Turlington act was ing in the Warren county jail was Willebrandt, for her task will be to the reason that the fifth defendent the fate of Willie Lenard this week.

For two days he remained Warren jail and then was carried back to Norlina. Lenard was arrested in South Hill. He was brought to Norlina Fernie Williams, white, was Monday by Chief Carter and archarged with larceny. Judgment ranged before Magistrate J. C. was suspended upon condition that Hardy. He was charged with taking admitted taking the girl to Virginia, but said that there was no immoral purpose in it. That he simply wanted to get married, and that he was arrested before he could carry out his purpose.

The magistrate sent the case to Recorder's court, and in default of bond he was carried to Warren county jail. Clerk of Court Newell informed the magistrate that the Morrow after the ceremony. State courts had no jurisdiction over the matter and on Wednesday

Pitchers Go Wild

Wildness by Warrenton pitchers, who came under the glitter of South Hill femininity, and the fleetness of the Virginia town's centerfielder, prevented Co. B from coming home with the big end of the score in the ball game there Saturday. The Virginians triumphthorized capital of $200,000,000 and to 7:30 o'clock. Many Warrenton ed 8-3. A return game will be play-First Time 51 Years is a holding and development com- persons doubtelessly will listen to ed at League Park here tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Vernon and Jack Loyd pitched and the sidelines were festooned with "more good looking girls than boys got wild," according to reports reaching this office. They walked South Hill men frequently but couldn't walk any out of the park. The centerfielder for South Hill romped about the lot in big league style, capturing two long hits from Duke Jones, and one each from Mutt Overby and Loyd Daniel. "They orter been good in anybody's ball game."

B scored on a three-base hit by Vernon Loyd and again on a twobase tap by Duke Jones.

Funeral Mrs. Powell Thursday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. E. L. Powell of Wise, were held yesterday afternoon at New Hope church, near Frank Brown Allen, John Burwell Manson, by the Rev. Mr. Midyette, pastor of the Norlina Methodist

TO HONOR DEAD HERE ON SUNDAY

Memorial Services To Be Held At School Auditorium; Graves To Be Decorated

ALLEN ADAMS SPEAKER

Annual Memorial Day exercises will be at Graham high school auditorium here on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock under the auspices of Limer Post No. 25 of the American Legion. Members of all churches of the town will attend, and a general invitation is extended to county churches to co-operate in this union memorial to men of other days.

Allen Adams, a prominent Legionnaire of Greensboro, will deliver the address. Mr. Adams is said to be a speaker of eloquence and force. The musical program will be under the general direction of Mrs. John C. Burwell.

The morning exercises will open with America, followed by the invocation from the Rev. Dr. J. T. Gibbs. Then music and the address. After a musical number announcements will be made and the exercises will close with the Star Spangled Banner and benediction.

During the evening members of the local legion post will go into different sections of the county to place flowers upon the graves of former service men. There are 29 such graves.

All citizens who have flowers which they will donate to such a purpose are requested to bring them to the school auditorium. The auxiliary is co-operating with the legion in the program which is under the general direction of Stephen E. Burroughs and a committee from the post.

These annual exercises have been well attended in the past and Sunday many will be present to pay their respects to those who departed in the service of mankind.

Col. Lindbergh And Miss Anne Morrow Are Quietly Married

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., May 27.-Miss Anne Morrow and Col. Charles A. Lindbergh were amrried at 4 p. m., this afternoon at the Morrow

The couple left immediately in a motor car for an uannounced desti-

Only the immediate members of the family attended the ceremony. Miss Morrow was not attended by any bridesmaids and Lindbergh had no best man, it was said by the secretary of Ambassador Dwight W.

The secretary said he was not authorized by Ambassador Morrow to reveal where the newly-married couple would spend their honey-

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Williams Adams Brown of Union Theological Seminary, a close friend of the Morrow family. Was Unexpected

The announcement came to unexpectedly as to catch friends of the family and newspapermen off guard. There had been signs of unusual activity at the Morrow home all day, but there was no intimation that the ceremony was to take place this It has been rumored for several weeks that the arrival of Ambassador Morrow from Mexico City would be followed closely by an announcement of the date and place for the Most friends of the family, however, believed elaborate preparations would be made and that a large number of prominent guests would be invited to the ceremony.

The ambassador, however, remained as silent as his son-in-law about the wedding plans. When met at the train yesterday, he gave no intimation that the wedding was so near at hand, meeting all questions with the familiar words of the flyer, "I have absolutely nothing to say."

It was considered possible that Lindbergh and his bride may be enroute to the Morrow Summer home at North Haven, Me., a secluded island retreat where many heretofore had believed the wedding might

The announcement of the cere-(Continued On Page 10)

TO FACE TRIAL

Charged with tearing down and mutilating mail boxes, William War-Warren society.

It J. M. Whitted of Durham, of the division, will be entertained at their dand her address is and her address is an address in the destance of the John Graham high been of the John Graham high county will be entertained at their annual dinner some time later, Mrs. Va. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Edward B. Burwell of Upperville, Va., who is a cousin of Daughters of the Confederacy said by the Rev. Edward B. Burwell of Daughters of the Confederacy said of Richmond and Charles Powell of bound to Federal court under $300 to the court of the court o the division, will be that the largest many interested workers the hope that the largest many interested the hope that the largest many interested workers and Nellic Floyd; Messrs. Loyd warrenton, being secretary-treators the bound to Federal court under $300 was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors that the largest workers and Nellic Floyd; Messrs. Loyd was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors the soldiers of the South which was given. The case will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and will make their home with Dr. and workers and Nellic Floyd; Messrs. Loyd was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and was worked up by Postoffice Inspectors will make their home with Dr. and was worked by her during file was worked by her United Dr. Mrs. Paul Bell, president of the United Dr. Mrs. Paul Bell, pre