

LEGION NAMED

of Goldsboro With Record, Wins Honor At Raleigh

ROMAN CATHOLIC

Aug. 27.—Col. George Henderson was elected commander of the North Carolina Legion of the American Legion before adjournment of the convention here Tuesday. Henderson was chosen as the next Legion commander.

Henderson defeated Dr. H. Henderson by a decisive vote of 211 to 134 in the roll call. It was not until the roll call that it became certain the Legionnaire would win.

The issue was not raised until Colonel Freeman in the contest, but to him goes the credit of being the first to head the North Carolina Legion. He has been active in Legion work for years, having been designated as National commander and is better known among Legionnaires than his defeated opponent.

Newell Loses In Fight For Honors

Aug. 28.—While Colonel George K. Newell, candidate for State Commander of the American Legion, lost the election on Tuesday afternoon to Colonel George K. Freeman, the local Legionnaire came away from the contest with perhaps the lion's share of the honors bestowed in the contest. Newell won for various reasons for the past year. The Legionnaire in large numbers, he was not in the parade, they were in the Ladies' Auxiliary, several of their members were present, and the past year was the keener sort of interest in the Legion. Newell was waging an uphill battle against the so-called "square" in the organization.

Henderson Auxiliary won the trophy cup for the largest membership of any post in the Fourth district during the year. They also won $5 in gold for the best record in prison work, and $10 for the best scrap of paper auxiliary in the State. The award in the form of a certificate of merit for meeting all the requirements for unit work during the year. This came to the Henderson Auxiliary, and is regarded as the most coveted one giving to the Legion for the year.

A ONE-MAN SHOW

CHICAGO, Ill.—James Moore, World War veteran, who has hoboed his way around the United States, Canada and Mexico, in the ancient auto which he calls the "Old Covered Wagon" and uses as a stage for his tricks in entertaining crowds. He is depicted here in Chicago where his wanderings led him recently.

W.R., Former Citizen, Gives Burglar 'Views'

HENDERSON, Aug. 28.—Walter Vaughan, in a communication to the Daily Dispatch today made fun with the "Burglar Man," who wrote a letter to the people of Henderson through the Daily Dispatch yesterday, advising them to "watch out" for him. Mr. Vaughan advised this burglar person that he had a weak heart, and that if the night prowler wanted anything the railroad man had he could have it for the asking, only please don't come. His letter follows:

"Upon my return to the city this morning from a much needed vacation of a few days, I read with much interest the burglar item in your paper, and have heard with much concern about the various robberies. Mr. Burglar had better watch his step, because there are some very dangerous men in this town, and waking up in the wee small hours of the night they shoot with telling accuracy, and to hear them tell how they would handle the situation should a mid-night call be made upon them, is quite thrilling. I did not know until this morning that Arthur Bunn was such a marksman, I would advise this "burglar man" to be careful.

"As far as I am concerned, to say the least, I am "skeered." Something like ten or fifteen years ago I took a "British Bulldog" and tried my darndest to hit a barn door. As far as I know, the bullets are going still; surely they did not stop within the vicinity of the barn. So, Mr. Burglar, please let me go. I can't shoot, never had over a dollar and a half in my house at any one time in my life, and my wife thinks I am a brave man, and if I have anything in the world that you want, please ask me for it, and I will be glad to hand it over, provided, of course, it is not in public, for I don't get "skeered" when there are others around, for I know they would help me out. And the front I can put on in the day time and when there are a lot of policemen and others around is a caution. What I am talking about, Mr. Burglar, is at night when I am alone with nobody around but the wife and kids, that's when I willer.

"Of course, you know your stuff, and you certainly have been "square" in telling us to lookout for you, and I feel reasonably safe, because a brave man like you would want to tackle men like my friend "Buck" Wilson.

"Mr. Burglar, won't you please blow a whistle just before you get to my house? I want to retain the good opinion my wife has with reference to my "spunk" and the grand stand play I will put up will fix me up in grand style. But I swear I won't shoot, and you will be perfectly safe at my house. But please don't come; I have a weak heart, and I have got a lot of praying to do before I depart for the great unknown."

Interment was in the family burying ground, with services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Howard.

Music Course At High School Is New Method

To the Patrons of the John Graham High School.

It is with great pleasure that we are able to announce the organization of public school piano classes in the John Graham high school with the opening of the school year in September. These classes will use the Kinscella method of public school piano class work and will be taught by Miss Lillie Belle Dameron who studied this method under the direct supervision of Miss Kinscella this summer.

The Kinscella method numbers more than 60,000 children in its classes each year and is in use in hundreds of cities and towns in the U. S. A. In fact, "it has gained international prominence and is being taught on every continent of the globe."

It is hoped that many parents will take advantage of this opportunity to enroll their children in these classes. Any child in the school (beginning with the second grade and including boys and girls through the high school) who is not already studying piano with a private teacher, is eligible to enrollment in the class upon proper enrollment at the school building and payment in advance of the slight fee which is charged for the lessons. The fee is $1.50 per month and pupils are required to pay one term's tuition ($6.00) in advance.

Miss Dameron will be glad to give you any further information desired. We feel that this opportunity for first-class instruction at so small a cost is a great privilege, and we hope that we may include a boy or a girl from your home in our classes.

J. EDWARD ALLEN.

Fire Company Wins Honors At Convention

Members of the Warrenton Fire department are still happy over winning a number of the prizes at the recent State meeting at Concord when Warrenton came home with more honors than any other company, according to members of the organization. The speed of the local fire fighting unit served to win several trophies.

A large number attended from here and members had high praise for the manner in which they were treated by the Town of Concord and by the Concord Hook & Ladder Co.

Brickhouse To Preach To School Folk Sunday

"Two philosophies of Life" will be the sermon-subject of the Rev. R. E. Brickhouse at the Baptist church Sunday morning in a special sermon to those entering school and others departing for college. A special solo by J. Edward Rooker, Jr., is included in the program.

A general invitation is extended to the young people particularly and older persons as well to attend the services.

Mr. Dawson Alston of Winston Salem has been spending the week here.

Mrs. Maude Peoples, 21, Buried At Elberon

ELBERON, Aug. 29.—On Saturday morning, August 24, there passed from our midst the beloved Maude Jones Peoples.

Born November 7, 1908, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jones of Elberon, she gave her life to Christ in early childhood and was an active church worker. As president of the B. Y. U. at Sulphur Springs Baptist church, she was largely responsible for the excellent work of the union.

In October, 1928, Miss Jones became the bride of Mr. Lewis Peoples of Elberon, also a member of Sulphur Springs church and an active church worker.

A large number of friends and relatives assembled at Sulphur Springs Sunday afternoon to pay their last tribute of respect. The large array of beautiful floral offerings bore mute testimony of the love and esteem of those who knew and loved her. The Rev. R. E. Brickhouse of Warrenton, who had married the young couple less than a year ago, officiated.

Mrs. Peoples is survived by her husband and infant son, her mother and father, and two sisters and three brothers.

"Don't Ask Me About Driving; I'm No Cop"

"I will appreciate it if parents with children under 16 years of age will stop asking me to allow their children to drive. I'm not a traffic cop."

Thus writes Miss Lucy I. Leach, welfare officer for Warren, in an open letter to parents of this county. Miss Leach says that she is constantly worried by persons who think that she can allow children to drive.

The welfare officer has many duties to perform, but "if I'm a welfare officer, how can I allow persons to break the law? I wish the parents would not continue to make such requests."

Fire Causes Hull To Turn Over; Ribs Hurt

Blazing footboards of his car caused G. B. Hull, local plumber, to lose control of the machine Sunday morning as he was headed toward Inez and four ribs were broken when the machine turned over. The blaze started due to an overheated engine.

Mr. Hull has been confined to his home all the week, but reports yesterday said that he was steadily improving. The car was badly damaged.

ROUTES FORMED FOR SCHOOL YEAR

Thirty-Seven Trucks In Fleet To Carry 11,000 Children To Schools of County

MEET HERE TOMORROW

A fleet of 37 school trucks will move away from Warrenton on Saturday to take their places in the several communities, ready to carry the 1100 children of the county who are to be transported along Warren roads during the next eight months. The trucks will be driven from Warrenton after a general school meeting here in which instructions for driving and care of the machines will be given and other last-minute details outlined.

The school meeting here Saturday morning will be held in the Court House at 10 o'clock and is to be attended by the full board of education, the principals, truck drivers and school committeemen. Due to further consolidation of schools in order to participate in the State fund, practically half of the 2,400 white pupils in the county will be hauled by truck. Six new trucks have been added and all the old ones reconditioned.

A table on this page gives the truck number, route number, how many pupils may be carried and the routes along which the trucks will travel. Numbers 1, 10, 12, 14, 17, 22 and part of 32 are new routes. High school pupils at Vaughan will this year attend at Littleton; pupils beyond the third grade at Epworth go to Littleton; pupils beyond the third grade at Arcola and Warren Plains will attend school at Warrenton as will the two high school grades at Afton-Elberon. All of the Grove Hill children will attend at Warrenton. Oakville pupils go to Wise for school; Churchill high school pupils and all pupils of Embro will travel by truck to school at Macon, and pupils of the eleventh grade at Drewry will attend school at Middleburg.

School will begin at Warrenton at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Littleton, Norlina, Macon and Vaughan schools open the same day. Wise, Drewry and Warren Plains pupils will commence work on Tuesday. The negro schools at Warrenton and Wise are scheduled for work on Monday.

With more than 2,000 white children vaccinated, J. Edward Allen, superintendent of education, yesterday expressed satisfaction with the manner in which the children and their parents had co-operated with the Warren County Board of Health in this work. He said that all of the children who did not have scars showing that they had been successfully vaccinated, would be during the first few days of school. This is a requirement of the State Board of Health.

The first general teachers' meeting of the year is announced for Saturday, Sept. 7, and all teachers are required to attend, Mr. Allen said.

Federal Officers' Car Burned In Franklin

Two Federal officers returned from an unprofitable tour of inspection for liquor outfits yesterday near the Franklin county line to find their big Lincoln car a mass of twisted wreckage. Officers McDuffie and Riddick then went to the home of Joe Pritchard of Sandy Creek township who brought them to Warrenton.

The car was burned just over the line in Franklin county. The officers had no clues as to who was guilty.

OAKLAND-PONTIAC

Two of the five salesmen in North Carolina to sell more than 52 cars in the past year were honored with the other three and two from South Carolina at Charlotte this week. H. Henderson of Warrenton and Jack Turner, manager of the Motor Sales Co. Branch at Henderson, were among the five best salesmen who won the coveted honor.

Henderson says that they were royally entertained with shows, airplane rides, and a banquet.

RETURNS FROM CONVENTION

Roy Davis, local Atwater Kent dealer, returned yesterday from Philadelphia and Atlantic City where he attended a convention. He said that they were shown through the plant at Philadelphia and from there were taken to Atlantic City for the social part of the outing. He reports a splendid trip.
