Farmer Found Dead In His Field

William Williams, negro farm-in the Hickory Grove neighborhood, was found dead in a field near his home by a neighbor of his family Wednesday.
Williams, about 50 years old, complained that morning of being sick, and went ahead with his work.
He did not come home, a member of the family went to for the father. He was dead.
The negro was at Warrenton on Friday, seemingly in good health, and paid $150 on an account. His wife came as a surprise to many.

Norfolk Officers Say Powell Is Man Wanted For Killing

Norfolk officers who visited the Warren jail last Saturday, seeking to identify the negro wanted there for the murder of an employe of a D. Pender store, said that Charlie Powell, confederate of Robert Lee Alston, was the man wanted. Extradition papers are being sought by Governor Byrd from Governor O. Max Gardner, according to information given R. O. Snipes, who figured in the arrest of the two men, by Virginia officers.

Officers here thought that Alston was probably the man wanted, but the Virginia visitors said that Powell tallied with descriptions which they had. In the meantime, R. O. Snipes follows the case with interest. He said late yesterday afternoon that he understood that there was a $500 reward for the capture of the alleged slayer, who was taken at Henderson with Alston two weeks ago on a charge of stealing a calf at Ridgeway after Snipes had telephoned Henderson officers. In the interim, the two men are in Jailer Lovell's care.
Officers from Norfolk, who identified Powell, said that they understood that the reward had been recalled. Mr. Snipes is waiting and so is Powell.

Steam Heat Brings Comfort To Officials

The cool days of Fall and the colder days of Winter will not have the message of ill will which has breathed about the Court House on many mornings of the past when officials cursed the janitor. The new steam heat plant, recommended by several grand juries, and finally ordered installed by the board of county commissioners gives every promise of functioning correctly.
The heat has been tested.

The improvement is marked and will be more noted in days to come.
The ashes and clinkers have gone to the basement. The old stoves will go. The county board may have to furnish a few spittoons for those who used to use the fire places, but such is the demands of progress.

TO MAKE SURVEY SCHOOL CHILDREN

Board of Health Meets At Warrenton Wednesday;
Asks Teachers To Help

NURSE CHANGES HOURS

A request that all teachers of Warren co-operate fully with the county department of health in cataloguing the school children of the county and a change in the office hours of Mrs. Joseph Jones, county nurse, were the two matters settled by the board of health in their meeting here Wednesday morning. Dr. F. P. Hunter, Dr. G.
H. Macon, Mayor Frank H. Gibbs, Joseph C. Powell, and J. Edward Allen were present for the 30 minute session.

In co-operating with the State board of health the county nurse is to make a general survey, with teachers of the county, of the physical defects of school children.
Facts collected are to be used for clinics later. The board called upon the teachers to give their full aid to this program.

The office hours for the nurse at the court house were set from 9 to 10 o'clock, with no afternoon appointment there. This change, it was said, was in order to give Mrs. Jones more time to carry forward the general program of county health work.

Miss Fleming And Joe Ellis Are Married

Warrenton friends were surprised this week with the announcement of the marriage of Miss Janice Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Fleming, to Joseph Nibbs Ellis, an employe of the State Highway commission. The marriage became generally known here on Tuesday after an account of the ceremony had been seen in a Richmond paper.

The young couple were married at Halifax Court House, Va., on Tuesday evening, October 8. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James D. Buford of the Methodist church of that town. They returned to Warrenton immediately after the ceremony in company with Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett, with whom they had traveled to Virginia.

Mr. Ellis has made a number of friends since his arrival at Warrenton. Friends are extending to the couple their best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.
They will make their home at Warrenton for the present.

Man Resists Officer; Blackjack Is Used

Free use of a blackjack and a few lusty blows were necessary yesterday afternoon to bring a negro name Terry, who says he works for Waverly King, to Warren jail. Officer R. O. Snipes brought the struggling and wobbling man to the bars. Chief Lovell swung wide the gate.

The negro was found on the highway near town, cursing, and with a pint of booze in his possession. He didn't want to be arrested and Officer Snipes had to use his blackjack before he persuaded him to come along to jail.

Reid the booby. An iced course was

Fighting And Booze Lead Warren Men Into Court Here

A little fighting and some booze in various sections of the county culminated in trips to the bar of Recorder Rodwell's court on Monday morning. The affairs were of minor nature.

From Wise came Richard Hogue, a negro, who had been disturbing a group of persons who had met at church. Judge Rodwell said that 60 days on the roads and ecsts might teach him a lesson.

From Vaughan came Eddie Gibson and L. J. Pittard who had a small scrap. Magistrate W. T. Carter sent them over to "Brother Rodwell." Warren's Recorder listened-in to the story and fined each defendant $10 and cost.

From the neighboring capital of Vance came Tommie Knight, textile worker, whose eyes went into partial darkness due to the influence of booze, ran across the law with his car. Results of the drinks cost him $50 and the right to drive for three months.

From a section, not given on the docket and court officials didn't remember, came Mary Arrington, a negro woman who took a whack at another negro woman with a flat iron. Personal damages were slight all the way around, and Judge Rod-well ended the morning session by charging her $15 and ecsts.

ART EXHIBIT TO OPEN ON MONDAY

Public Invited To View The Etching And Wood Carving At Library

OPEN ALL THE WEEK

An exhibit of etchings and wood carving opens at the Warren County Memorial library next Monday and will remain open each day during the week. The art exhibit is brought here under the auspices of the Woman's club of Warrenton which has been assisted in its preparation by C. A. Tucker.

A general invitation is being extended to members of the Woman's clubs of this district to view these works of art, and many visitors are expected. Persons having a knowledge of art say that the exhibit here is worthy, and numbers of persons from the county will join Warrenton friends in trips to the library. The exhibit last year won wide praise.

In commenting on the exhibit and the manner in which to appraise a picture or etching, a student of art said:

"Each of these prints is an individual work of art, and each bears the signature of the artist. In many cases they are the works of men and women who are well known as painters for in the list of exhibitors are Child Hossam, Rockwell Kent, Thomas Haneforth, Benson Moore and others. From five to one hundred proofs are made from each subject; then the plate is destroyed.
This adds rarity to the charm of the picture.

"An etching or individual print bearing the artist's signature is superior in art to a reproduction. It carries the individual "touch" of the artist. The interpretation of the press leaves the beholder cold, but the etcher by means of his pencil touches the very artistic nerve of the owner of the completed print and gives him the esthetic thrill that all true art must give or fall in its mission."

Pictures to be on exhibit during the coming week and artists represented include:

Grim Orvieto, John Taylor Arms; Manuel, Loren Barton; Woodland Pastures, Gustave Baumann; Two Goats and a Rooster, George Biddle; A Sure Enough Rider, Edward

The Place of Pictures Peyton Boswell in House and Garden for November gives his views on the message of pictures: The person who has decided to surround himself with prints that can administer to his emotional being, should go about it by considering three things:
What to Look For First—He should look for a print
