Warren Gin-

Miss Carrie Broughton

weather, cotton ginnings in Warren county to December 20 were less than 2,000 bales short of last year, contrasted with a drop of more than 10,000 bales in Halifax county and heavy loss in eastern

Carolina, according to figures of the Department of Agriculture.

1,199; in 1928 16,195 bales Gin-as 658,098 as against 800,102 bales for last year. In Halifax they were given as 27,059 for 1929 and

Cabarrus, Cleveland, Catawba,

Columbus, Davie Iredell, Lincoln,

Mecklenburg, Polk, Robeson, Samp-

central and western Carolina-production in 1929 exceeded 1928.

2,116 bales ginned upon this date:

in 1929, only 904. In Pitt in 1928,

Warren's ginnings in 1929

at 37,836 bales for 1928.

. igures

were

Water of the last

NUMBER 1

ITIZENS ENROLL N LIBRARY ASS'N

Several Persons Become Contributing Members In Effort To Promote Growth

W. T. POLK IS PRESIDENT In response to invitations through the press and by letter a number of who formerly called warrenton this from him." He was in fine fethome have enrolled as members of tle. the Warren County Memorial Lithe affairs of the basis and to make find. The Democratic standardbetter business bearer against Hoover wrote:

for funds each year. The county institution receives 500 yearly from the county and 250 from the town which does not provide even half of the current operating expenses. Books are to be bought and repaired in addition. It is to meet these expenses that the Library association is being formed. Dues are from $1 a year up.

William T. Polk is president of the association and Stephen E. Burroughs, secretary-treasurer. Among those who have enrolled are Mrs. C. E, Jackson. Miss Mamie Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Williams, Mrs. A. E. Jones, Brodie Jones, T. I. Gillam, W. H. Burroughs, William T. Polk, Mrs. A. D. Harris Sr., Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, Judge T. O. Rodwell, Miss Mamie Williams, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Holt, Martin J. Davis, Stephen E. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Palmer, J. William Limer, C. E. Jackson, M. H. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rodwell, Cash-Friend, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Scoggin, S. M. Gardner, Miss Julia Dameron, Mrs. R. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dameron, Mrs. Matille D. Graves, Mrs. W. R. White, George W. Harrison, Miss Sallie Allen, Mrs. E. S. Allen, J. Edward Allen, Miss Sydnor Williams, V. F. Ward, Mrs. T. B. Williams, Miss Rie

Parker, Miss Nena Parker, Limer Post No. 25, The American Legion, Miss Edna Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moseley, H. W. White, Mrs. Frank Serls Sr., C. A. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rooker, G. G.

Three Cases Before Recorder Monday

Larceny, assault. whiskey, were the three causes of the three cases docketed in Recorder's court at Warrenton on Monday.

John Williams and Melvin Brickly, negroes, were each fined $10 and one-half the cost in the case when they faced Judge Rodwell on a charge of larceny. Unsble to pay the sums required, they are boarding with Jailer Lovell for 20 days as required by law.

A recent resort to primitive methods of setting a difficulty brought Ernest and John Henry Jiggetts into court on a charge of assault. Ernest was taxed with the cost and a fine of $10. John Henry was charged with one-nalf the cost in the action.

R. H. Rudd, white man of Norlina, asked for trial by jury when his case was called. He is charged with the possession of whiskey. His case was continued until Jan-

MISS DAMERON HONOREE

Misses Julia and Tempie Damferon attractively entertained at three tables of cards on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Temple Dameron of Centerville, Md. Mrs. A. A. Williams was winner of top score prize and Mrs. G. W. Poindexter of low. A dainty gift was Presented to Miss Dameron. A salad course with bon bons was served. Red candles decorated the tables. Those playing were Mesdames T. J. Holt, G. W. Poindexter, H. F. Jones, R. R. Weston, Edmund White, W. H. Dameron, C. H. Peete, Roy Davis, B. B. Williams, A. A. Willams and Misses Kate White Williams and Tempie Dameron.

Hold Funeral For Mrs. Ann W. Hicks

Funeral services were held on New Year's day for Mrs. Ann Wini-White of Wise, who died on Tues-Elcks who died about 30 years ago. Interment followed the services at erusalem church at which the ev. Mr. Midyette and the Rev. Mr. Valker officiated. Mrs. Hicks is nson, and Leonard Hawks.

Al Smith Thanks Daniel Pegram For Christmas Holly

"See what I got," exclaimed Daniel Pegram, 73, who came into the office of The Warren Record the other day, laying a letter from Alfred Emmanuel Smith gently upon the desk. "Tell me down about Macon that me and John Kerr is the only folks in Warren the press and by action and some county that can get a letter like the Warren Jounty Production order to place holly which Mr. Pegram sent. Fle said it was the prettient is being formed in library upon a said it was the prettiest he could the affairs of the library upon a said it was the prettiest he could

> "Alfred E. Smith "Fifty-one Fifth Avenue "New York. N. Y. "December 26th, 1929.

'Mr. D. W. Pegram "North Carolina.

'Dear Mr. Pegram: "Mrs. Smith joins with me in thanking you for your kind remembrance of us at the Christmas season. The holly is delightful and enjoyed by all the family.

"Kindest regards and best wishes. "Sincerely yours,

"ALFRED E. SMITH." A real Democrat, Mr. Pegram warmed up and was persuaded to let the press have a copy of his announcement when he was a candidate for sheriff. "Henry Boyd wrote that for me." he said.

"How did you come out in that "I was getting along fine but decided to come down in favor of a friend before the primary."

The announcement of 1906: CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

To the Voters of Warren County: Upon the earnest and repeated solicitation of my democratic and Mrs. Carey Porter of this place, friends throughout the grand old county of Warren. I am finally persuaded to lay aside all personal feelings and to announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of said county, subject, however, to the action of the Democratic corivention. I do this reluctantly, but with the highest and most profound feelings of patriotism, having no motive or self aggrandizement, but the sincerest desire to serve my countrymen

Whom I love with an undying zeal, And for whose support I now ap-

I was born and bred a Democrat Branch Bobbitt. of the strictest type, and in my allegiance to the Democratic party I have never faltered, having been the same yesterday, today, and forever. I have peen township constable ten years, tax collector eight years, and deputy sheriff, and with this record I place myself unreservedly with confidence upon the Democratic altar.

Your obedient servant, DANIEL W. PEGRAM. Macon, N. C., April 3rd, 1906.

Mr. Pegram served for many years as deputy sheriff of Warren and as tax collector. He is a frequent visitor here. He has the happy "First Monday" habit and may be seen almost any time about the Court House when official business is in the offing. He will keep Mr, Smith's letter for a long time.

"I tell you Mr. Smith is a Democrat and I'm one too-'tain't nothing half-way about me. Wish we could have elected him and we would not have been having all of these hard times."

School Boy Succumbs To Pneumonia Attack

Boys of the seventh grade of John Graham high school were called from school yesterday to act as pallbearers for Roy Edward Loyd, 15, a school mate, who had died on January 2nd following an attack of pneumonia. He was 15 years old.

Mr. Loyd died at the home of his grandmother January 1st. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Martin. Several uncles and aunts survive.

HONOREE AT LUNCHEON

Miss Olivia Burwell was hostess in honor of Miss Ella Brodie Jones, fred Hicks, a sister of Mrs. W. H. S. bride-elect, at a five-course luncheon in Hotel Warren on Tuesday. day. She was the widow of Silas The private dining room was attractively decorated, and a handsome token of triendship was mund White, T. J. Holt, J. G. Ellis presented Miss Jones.

Those attending were the Misses awks sister. Wrs. White, Mrs. Fed Ella Brodie Jones, Lucy Boyd, Dorawks, sisters, and by two brothers, and Lee Hicks. Active pallarers were Jimmie White, Lewis Boyd, Alice Taylor of Soudan, Va. hite, Willie White, Lewis Boyd, Ance Taylor of Bostati, Boyd, Rev. Bishop Penick Williams, and I come Charles Per- Mrs. James S. McCarroll of Bos- p. m., Rt. Rev. Bishop Penick Will ton, and Miss Olivia Burwell.

President-Elect of Mexico and Family

Pascual Ortiz Rubio, president-elect of Mexico, is shown here with his wife and children as they were photographed in their hotel suite in New York. Rubio made the trip to New York to meet General Plutarco Elias Calles, former Mexican president, who has been in Europe. The children are, left to right; Eugenio, 5; Ofelia, 8, and Pascual, 6.

Mrs. Pattie Myrick Dies At Vaughan

VAUGHAN, Jan. 1.-Mrs. Pattie Myrick died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carey Porter, here on Monday night. She was 83 years old. Funeral services were held in the Old Riggan cemetery here at 3 o'clock on Tuesday evening. She was a life-long member of the Methodist church and was well known through this section, though a fair degree of prosperity, changher health had kept her confined for ing the drudgery and hardships of

She is survived by the following children: Tom Myrick of Vaughan, Willie Myrick of Weldon, Mrs. Felts Charlie Myrick of Durham and

MRS. ARRINGTON HOSTESS

With the bridal and New Year metifs blending into the lovely atmosphere of her home, Mrs. Katherine Pendleton Arrington last night entertained at bridge in honor of Miss Ella Brodie Jones whose marriage will be solemnized on January 18th. Mrs. J. S. McCarroll won high score prize for the ladies and R. B. Boyd led the gentlemen. An Episcopal prayer book and hymnal was harvest of barren regrets." given as a prize to Miss Jones. A vited to the dining room, balloons and expenditures." were distributed by Brodie Jones, winner of the consolation, and everything in one cash crop, whether the Misses Katherine Arrington, it be cotton or something else. Mattie Wiggins Dameron, Bobbie son, and Pett Boyd gave guests fertility. noise-makers and caps. The young cake. Coffee was poured by Mrs. bride-elect. The dining room and sible in the form of livestock. sun parlor were tastefully decorated of the centerpiece were a miniature by rurebreds.

bride and bridegroom. Ella Brodie Jones and Dr. Williams my livestock. Rives Taylor of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Jones, Mrs. Casey, house guest of Mrs. Arrington Mr. and Mrs. John G. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Beddoe, Mr. and Mrs. Branch Bobbitt, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Palmer, Mrs. Shipp McCarroll; the Misses Ann Burwell, Olivia Burwell, Dorothy Walters; Messrs. Yancey Robinson of Oxford, J. J. Tarwater, W.

MRS. DOWTIN ENTERTAINED On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Sam

Davis and Miss Louise Dowtin attractively entertained at three tables of bridge in honor of Mrs. Roger Dowtin of Nashville, Tenn. The living room was tasteful in holly. Mrs. Edmund White won top score prize and a consolation gift went to Mrs. Claude Bowers. The honoree was presented a lovely gift. A salad course was served. Miniature Christmas trees were on each table. Tiny candlesticks were given as favors. The guests included Mesdames Roger Dowtin, Joe Ellis, John Garrett, W. T. Moore of Durham, Ed Bullock of Goldsboro, Ray Weston, Roy Davis, Frank Allen, Edand Claude Bowers.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES

Sunday, January 5th

Communion. Good Shepherd, 3:30 land.

Suggests Farm Plans Boyce Awards Dolls For The New Year

By A. B. BRYAN, Agricultural Editor. Clemson College, S. C.

Southern farmer who will adopt and rigidly follow the resolutions set forth in the following article by Mr. Bryan of Clemson College, will soon change financial condition from poverty to his family to a brighter and happier life. These resolutions should be read and mentally and spiritually absorbed into the very soul and life of every farmer in the South; and, for that matter, of every farmer in the country. Of recent years it Rebecca Daniel, Sarah Davis, Mary has become the custom for a large proportion of farmers to abandon the old system of living at home, and to buy feedstuffs and foodstuffs not only outside their own visinity, but outside their own state. Editor

Manufacturers Record. 1. Resolved, that I will think beyond the present year in planning and executing my farming business. 2. Resolved, that having planned my work, I will work my plan so that I will not reap merely "a

3. Resolved, that I will follow guest prize was presented Mrs. wise George Washington's advice to "keep an account book and enter Just before the guests were in- therein every farthing of receipts

4. Resolved, that I will not stake

5. Resolved, that realizing that a Howard Jones Jr., Henry Ander- man, I will not rob my farm of its high score prize. A salad course Fire Destroys King

6. Resolved, that I will raise home Howard F. Jones, mother of the much of my farm produce as pos- Gregory.

8. Resolved, that if I swear at all and peeping from the decorations I will swear at scrubs and swear

9. Resolved, that I will not expect Among those playing were Miss other farmers to produce feeds for

10. Resolved, that I will buy more farm machinery and make better use of it to enable me to save time for more work and more leisure.

all my land that needs terracing and will build up the waste places. 12. Resolved, that I will save money and time by taking better care of my farm machinery, tools, and implements, and my livestock.

13. Resolved, that I will provide T. Polk, Brodie, Bignall and Duke my family with a better all-theyear garden and with better fruit. 14. Resolved, that I will provide a flock of first-class poultry and give some for market. 15. Resolved, that I will get my eron.

nitrates more and more each year rather than from Chile. 16. Resolved, that I will read and think more this year and thus learn to help reduce the high cost Roscoe Cowper of Raleigh were visiof ignorant farming. 17. Resolved, that I will provide more conveniences and comforts for the farm and home to make it more livable and more attractive holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. W. for my family and my friends. 18. Resolved, that I will make the shrubbery, trees and flowers. 19. Resolved, that I will treat my friends. "farm" it as to get needed timber spending the holidays here.

20. Resolved, that I will join the (Continued On Page 8)

To Warren Girls

Many little girls in Warren county Arch D. Dariel Is are enjoying the dolls which came at Christmas but none more than those who were successful in winning one of the attractive dolls offered at Boyce Drug Co. during its annual doll contest which closed on Christmas Eve night. The first prize went to Estelle Boyce, the second to the Weston twins, the third to Frances Odom.

Others to receive dolls in order named were Ann Macon, Edith Ellis, Dorothy Powell, Douglas Taylor, Patsy Rodgers, Louise Pegram, Mary Baskerville, Sarah Miles, Arden Tucker, and Emily Gregory Votes were awarded for purchases.

NOT AN OPOSSUM

Bearing at first glance resemblance to an opossum but looking more like an "unknown varmint" when studied, a mounted Armadille from Brazil was brought to town this week by W. E. Davis of Creek. It created much interest. The animal was sent to Mr. Davis by his son, W. E. Jr., who is in the merchant marine and who has traveled widely since seeing service with the soldiers over seas in the World War.

MRS. WESTON HOSTESS

Mrs. Ray Weston entertained in formally on Tuesday afternoon a two tables of cards in honor of Miss Ella B. Jones. Miss Jones reworn out soil means a worn out crived a guest prize and also the

Those playing were Misses Ella ladies then assisted in serving a supplies to the fullest extent con- B. Jones, Olivia Burwell, Mesdames salad course, followed by cream and sistent with my land and conditions. F. P. Hunter, H. F. Jones, Joe Ellis, 7. Resolved, that I will market as Jack Scott, C. H. Peete and G. B.

PERSONAL MENTION

Misses Eliza Grimes of Washington, N. C., Martha Ransom of Littleton and Agnes Thorne of Airlie were guests of Miss Lucy Boyd on Saturday and Sunday.

guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. 11. Resolved, that I will terrace Burwell and Mr. Shipp McCarroll for a hunting trip. Miss Margaret Williams is spending several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kearney

Miss Katherine Arrington departed today for Raleigh where she will spend several days.

Miss Mattie Wiggins Dameron returned to Randolph-Macon college, Lynchburg, Va., Friday after poultry products for home use and spending the holidays here with her at the conclusion of the game. parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dam-

Miss Katherine Arrington has tended a number of dances. Messrs. George Cheatham and tors here Monday night. Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Davis and two children of Greensboro have returned to their home after spending the Mr. Eaywood Davis has returned premises more beautiful by paint, to Fort Wayne, Ind., after spending some time here with his parents and

and fuel by such handling as will Miss Fannie Carroll of Middle- dames Roger Dowtin, Branch Bob-Mayfield during the holidays. Hicks were in town Tuesday night. Jones.

1928 report gave Franklin, 18,625 against 10,492 bales for in 1929, but showed a production of

A. B. & C. Auditor Arch D. Daniel, native Warren county boy and well known here where he frequently visited his mother, the late Mrs. Laura Daniel has been named as auditor of the A. B. & C. railroad in Georgia. The position is considered quite an honor in railroad circles. The Atlanta Journal says:

30,277 in 1928.

A. D. Daniel, passenger traffic manager of the Atlanta, Birming down to Mr. Bailey, Chief Justice ham & Coast Railroad, has been W. P. Stacy and Associate Justice promoted to the post of auditor of W. J. Brogden of the Supreme the A. B. & C., according to an- Court. nouncement Saturday by Colonel B. L. Bugg, president. He succeeds E. L. Greene, deceased. The office of passenger traffic manager, it was explained, has been abolished. Tom R. Byran has been promoted to the office of general passenger agent from the position of chief clerk of the passenger traffic manager. Mr. Daniel has been with the Atlanta, Birmingham & Coast Railroad since October 1, 1909, while Mr. Bryan has been connected with the organization since 1913. At the time of his promotion, Mr. Bryan had served as general passenger agent as well as division passenger

The offices of both the auditor and general passenger agent are located in Atlanta.

Home Wednesday

Fire completely destroyed the home of W. H. King between Warrenton and Warren Plains about 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening. About a third of the loss was who piloted the Bailey campaign covered by insurance.

wife and three children had retired when he discovered the fire in the like to have the man who shared dining room. One dresser and bed his defeat also share the victory he clothing were the only things saved anticipates in his Senatorial race. Mr. Henry Bohnson of Passaic, from the five-room cottage. Yes-N. J., was a visitor here this week, terday he did not know where they shall get a fourth tomorrow and I would make their home.

HONORS GUESTS

Honoring her guests, the Misses Eliza Grimes of Washington. N. C. Martha Ransom oil Littleton and Agnes Thorne of Airlie, Miss Lucy Boyd entertained at three tables of bridge on Saturday night. High score prizes were won by Miss Olivia Burwell and Mr. Bignall Jones. A buffet lunch was served

Those playing were Misses Agnes Thorne, Eliza Grimes, Martha Ransom, Olivia Burwel. Leonora Tayfrom the air through legumes been a frequent visitor at Raleigh lor, Tempe Boyd; Messrs. Jim Kerr, during the holidays where she at- Bignall Jones, Henry Anderson, Edward Tarwater, Sam Thorne and Robert Thorne of Airlie.

MRS. DOWTIN HONORED

Complimentary to Mrs. Roger Dowtin of Nashville, Tenn., Mrs. Roy Davis entertained at two tables of cards on Friday morning. Christmas decorations were used in the living room. Miss Ella Brodie Jones won top score prize and also received a guest prize. Mrs. Dowtin was Dr. H. H. Foster of Norlina and Miss Louise Davis has returned presented a lovely gift. A salad Dr. Macon with Dr. Hunter as ing timber as a "crop" and so to her school at Greensboro after course and an ice course were alternate. A business meeting folserved. The guests included Mes- lowed the election of officers. Emmanuel church, 11 a. m., Holy improve and not injure the wood-burg was a guest of Mrs. John bitt, Sam Davis, John Garrett, the Messrs. Frank O'Neil and Ben ters, Olivia Burwell and Ella Brodie cette of Warrenton at 1 a. m. New

OSIAH BAILEY TO OPPOSE STAIMONS

Plunges Zestfully When W.J. Brogden Withdraws For Financial Reasons

HARD FIGHT EXPECTED

RALEIGH. Jan. 2.-Ending a long period of uncertainty as to who would oppose Furnifold Mc-Lendel Simmons, when he enters the Democratic primary on June nings for the State were reported 7 for a nomination for a sixth term in the United States Senate. Josiah William Bailey of Raleigh yesterday announced his candidacy and immediately assumed the role of an active candidate. Senator Simmon's refusal to support Alfred E. Smith. the Democratic nominee son and Rutherford-counties of for President, in 1928, is expected to be an overshadowing issue in were the only ones in which the the campaign.

"I am running this one to win," Pasquotank in 1928 had reported declared Mr. Bailey yesterday afternoon between long distance telephone conversations with support-15,470, but in 1929 only 5.398. The ers in all sections of the State.

"I ran for Governor in 1924 without ever asking any man to vote Northampton produced 24,505 bales for me, but I have not met a single man since I announced this morning whom I didn't tell I would appreciate his support and I shall keep it up."

Mr. Bailey's willingness to run came as no surprise, but the announcement of his candidacy did. Some weeks ago Mr. Bailey declared the "integrity of the Democratic party" demanded that Senator Simmons be defeated and stated that he would run if no one else did, stating, however, that he would step aside for "any strong

Speculation recently simmered

It became certain on Monday that Chief Justice Stacy would not run but at that time it appeared highly probable that Justice Brogden would make the race. That probability increased in the minds of observers with the passage of days. but after many conferences in Raleigh and Durham Justice Brogden definitely informed Mr. Bailey yesterday morning that he would not be a candidate, basing his declination on financial rea-

Mr. Bailey immediately sent for newspapermen and announced his candidacy, but withheld a prepared statement. .'I do not consider my candidacy an individual one and shall cake no steps without consultation with those who are interested in my candidacy and shall follow the advice given me in matters of that kind." declared Mr. Bailey in response to a question as to who would manage his campaign. However, the probability is that C. L. Shuping, Greensboro lawyer for Governor in 1924 will occupy a Mr. King was reading and his similar role in 1930. Mr. Bailey is understood to feel that he would

> "I have three rooms here and do not expect to be practicing law, so I see no reason why I should not use these offices," was the way Mr. Bailey settled the question of campaign headquarters. There is no sort of question about the issue in the forthcoming campaign. Nor is there any doubt but that Mr. Bailey will raise it vigorously. A colorful campaign with a probability of great bitterness is generally forecast.

Dr. Peete Named As Medical Society Head

Dr. C. H. Peete was elected president of the Warren County Medical society at a meeting here on Wednesday evening He succeeds Dr. G. H. Macon. The physicians named Dr. F. P. Hunter as first vice president and Dr. W. D. Rodgers as second vice-president. Dr. Macon was named secretary-treasurer for a term of four years. As delegates to the State Medical society which meets at Pinehurst in April, the doctors chose

DAUGHTER BORN

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fau-Year's morn, a daughter.